

The Rising Morning Star pt 3

Precious saints,

We are still on the topic of the morning star and specifically Sirius identified as this at this time of year. Well, I discovered something new (this whole field of astronomy is another world for me so its baby steps 😊). I learned that where I live at the tip of South Africa, Sirius is visible all year round so has no heliacal rising in our skies... Hmm, what does this mean for what I have shared in pt 1 and 2? Well, remember that the Lord is sharing spiritual truths with us, which is why we take ground zero as being Jerusalem, the city of the great King. These spiritual truths are unchanged by your geographical location!

However, if you are wondering what the date and time of Sirius heliacal rising is where you live, there is some free software that can calculate it for you (courtesy of dear Sabine). Remember you will see it to the right of the rising point of the sun.

First, you need to know the latitude of your place of residence. Then go to this website:

<http://www.culturediff.org/english/clientareatest2.php>

On this site, enter your email in the white block and the password provided and click 'enter'.

Then click on the orange title that says 'heliacal rising of Sirius in 2023'.

Then enter your latitude in the space provided and click 'proceed'.

And voila! All the details you need.

REMEMBER TIME GIVEN IS LOCAL SOLAR TIME.

To transpose the results into standard times, simply add the difference between calendar and solar times - for example, in western Europe, 1 hour in winter (from the end of October to the end of March) and 2 hours in summer (from the end of March to the end of October).

I looked up a few places just for interest (these are local solar times):

New York

Day of heliacal rising of this star (MM/DD/YYYY) : 08/18/2023 AD

Time of heliacal rising of the star (LST) : 4 h 38 min

Time of rising of the Sun (LST) : 5 h 18 min

Los Angeles:

Day of heliacal rising of this star (MM/DD/YYYY) : 08/11/2023 AD

Time of heliacal rising of the star (LST) : 4 h 52 min

Time of rising of the Sun (LST) : 5 h 23 min

London, England

Day of heliacal rising of this star (MM/DD/YYYY) : 08/30/2023 AD

Time of heliacal rising of the star (LST) : 4 h 30 min

Time of rising of the Sun (LST) : 5 h 14 min

Tokyo, Japan

Day of heliacal rising of this star (MM/DD/YYYY) : 08/13/2023 AD

Time of heliacal rising of the star (LST) : 4 h 45 min

Time of rising of the Sun (LST) : 5 h 22 min

So, it seems that, at present, for those who are able to view the helical rising of Sirius, August is mostly the month to do it in. Now let's dive back into the prophetic significance of Sirius rising as the morning star.

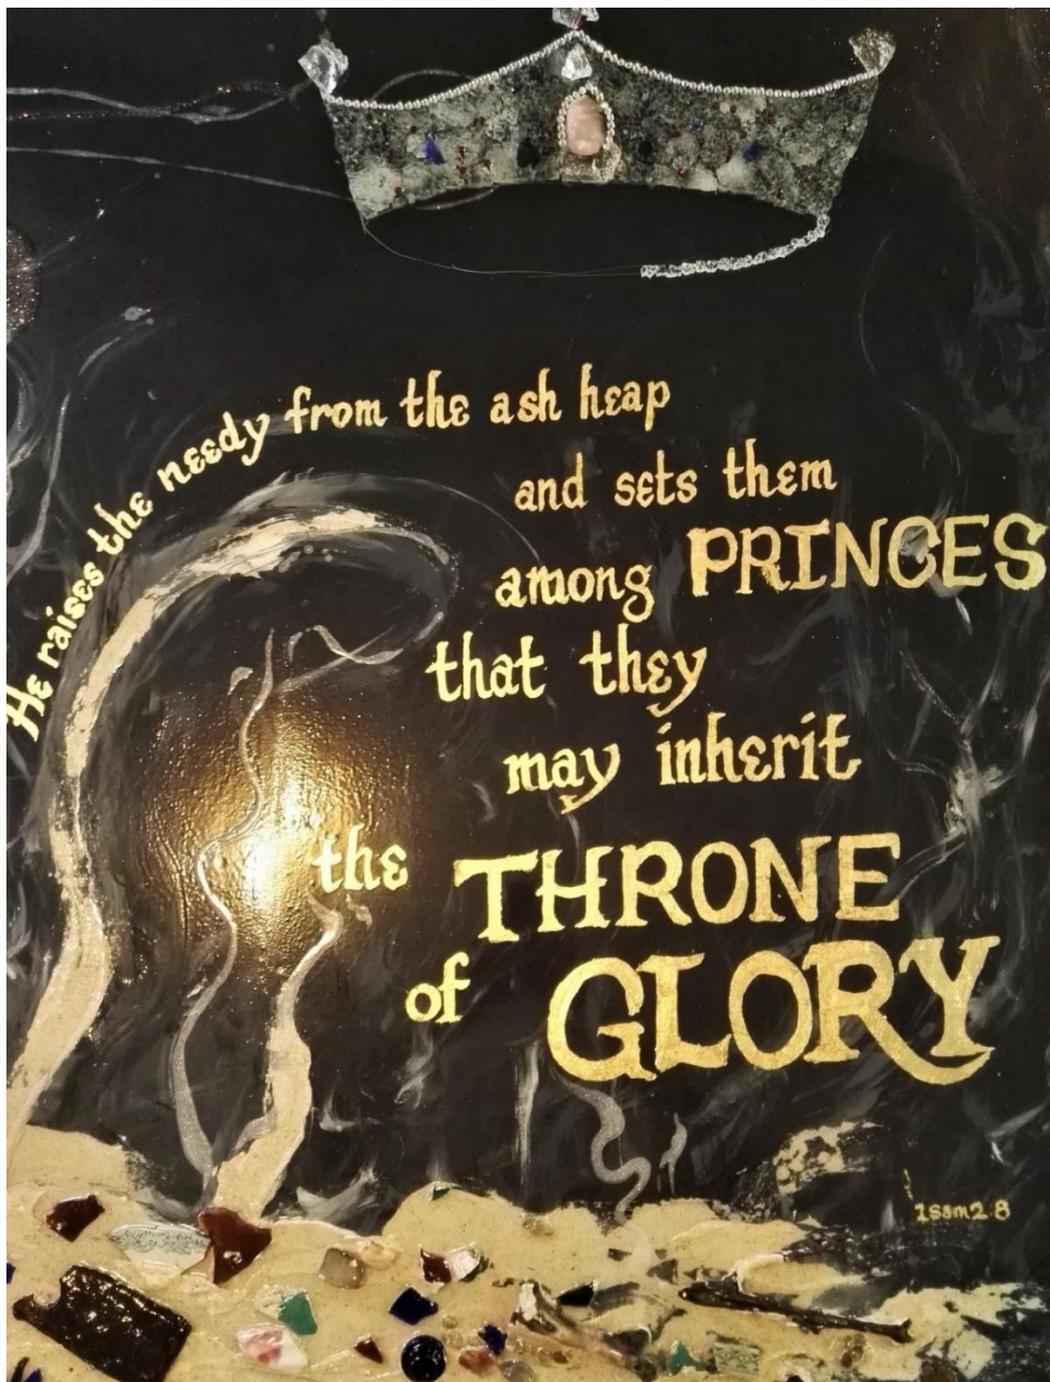

Remember I spoke of Sirius being a prince rising?

There is an amazing verse in Samuel:

1Sa 2:8 He raises up the poor out of the dust and lifts up the needy from the ash heap, to make them sit with princes and inherit the throne of glory.

You can only sit with princes if you become a prince yourself. In 2020, I was prompted to do a resin painting of a vision I received while standing on an ash heap behind an ancient house in the wilderness... As I stood amongst the broken coloured glass, shards of vessels, rusted pieces of chain and other debris of the generations, I saw in the Spirit a wind which began to blow over the sand and form a whirlwind. It sucked up all the broken pieces and lifted them high into the air, setting them in place to form the pieces of a giant sparkling crown high up in the heavens. Then a verse of Scripture was spoken aloud. It was the verse above, describing how the needy and broke are set in place amongst princes and the portion of their inheritance is the throne of GLORY. This is the 1st time it has been seen by anyone other than my family.

Think of Job restored to princely status again. An ash heap is where the remnants of a fire is thrown. All that is discarded, broken, rejected and unwanted ends up there.

Think of Jesus, a Man of sorrows, Who was rejected and acquainted with grief, Isa 53:3 He was despised and rejected and forsaken by men, a Man of sorrows and pains, and acquainted with grief and sickness; and like One from Whom men hide their faces He was despised, and we did not appreciate His worth or have any esteem for Him.

Yet He was raised to glory and honour and seated at the right hand of the Father. The manchild is caught up to the throne, to the place of rule.

Now, concerning the lifting up of the broken, it's really important that you listen to 'In the Twinkling of an Eye pt 2', which I shared in August 2022 (or read from the appropriate zip file on the Storehouse page of my website). Remember that Sirius is the rising Morning Star between roundabout early July and mid-September every year, so this message was released at that time, although I had no inkling that Sirius even existed at that point! The Spirit reveals truth, layer upon layer and shared with me some amazing prophetic truths from the feeding of the five thousand and the connection to the manchild being gathered and raised up.

In part 2 of this series, I shared about the anointing and baptism of fire appointed the manchild company and connected it to Sirius rising as a prince. Why is the rising of Sirius important in 2023 (or 5783)? It is necessary for this anointing and equipping to take place before functioning in the delegated authority given. As we contemplate the crowning, anointing and setting in place of the kings of the Melchizedek priesthood, there is an interesting phrase, timing-wise in 2 Samuel 11:

2Sa 11:1 in the spring, when kings go forth to battle...

The actual Hebrew says 'when the year ends', referring to the beginning of the month of Aviv (which God had said would be called the first month). So, this is the time when kings ride out to battle. It makes sense that a new king would have been anointed and crowned before riding out to war. 1st Aviv is also used to reckon the years of reign of the kings of Israel. By the time Aviv 5784 comes round next year, the manchild company will be fully equipped and ready to ride out to battle, as the dragon wages war against the remnant seed.

A Word to the Wise

Now let's look at what Daniel says about God's people shining like stars. It is mentioned in two places:

Dan 12:3 And the teachers and those who are wise shall shine like the brightness of the firmament, and those who turn many to righteousness (to uprightness and right standing with God) [shall give forth light] like the stars forever and ever.

Who are the 'wise' who shine like stars? It is those who, like Mary, have chosen the good portion of sitting at His feet; the wise virgins who had extra oil available as the long night of waiting dragged on and so were equipped to go and meet the Bridegroom at midnight. Remember that stars have different levels of glory and Sirius is the brightest star we see in the heavens. The Hebrew word for 'wise' is 'sakal', also meaning to be circumspect and hence intelligent, expert, prudent, understanding'. The wise are those who are trained, not novices, able to rightly divide the Word of Truth. Yet Daniel tells us in chapter 11 that some of the wise will fall. How on earth will this happen? Well, it has to do with the rise of the antichrist:

Dan 11:32 And such as violate the covenant he shall pervert and seduce with flatteries, but the people who know their God shall prove themselves strong and shall stand firm and do exploits. Dan 11:33 And they who are wise and understanding among the people shall instruct many and make them understand, though some shall fall by the sword and flame, by captivity and plunder, for many days. Dan 11:34 Now when they fall, they shall receive a little help. Many shall join themselves to them with flatteries and hypocrisies. Dan 11:35 And some of those who are wise, prudent, and understanding shall be weakened and fall, to refine, to purify, and to make those among [God's people] white, even to the time of the end, because it is yet for the time appointed.

So, we find that it was the wise who did not get seduced by the antichrist's wiles because they are not violators of the covenant (wicked) – this is their protection, a holy life! So, you end up with two groups – the seduced and the wise. However, a time of great persecution against the true remnant of God breaks out, specifically by four means – sword, flame, captivity and plunder for an extended time (I will deal with the four ways, the bombardment is destined to come in another post). In spite of this attack, some help arrives and many are added to their numbers, but not with sincere hearts. They are actually sent by the enemy to infiltrate and weaken the remnant.... And what is it that causes it to happen? FLATTERY!

How on earth did this flattery work at the second attempt when they were standing so strong before, doing exploits because of their intimate walk with God? The key is that the word used for 'flattery' in verse 32 is not the same as the one used in verse 34. The first instance uses H2514 – simple flattery, something that works on those who crave the praises of men. It comes from a root word meaning 'to separate, to take away a portion'. However, the word used in verse 34 for 'flatteries' is chălaqlaqqâh, which is a VERY strong form of flattery, something treacherous and slippery. The enemy assignment is turned up 10 notches because he knows the usual tricks won't work.

So here is what we must be aware of, precious remnant – we have to ask God to deal with any desire within us for the praises or approval of men. If this is not pulled out by the roots from the soil of our hearts now, we will be vulnerable during the days of persecution when enemy infiltrations come and penetrate the ranks of those still standing for God. Let your focus be on obtaining the approval of God – “Well done, good and faithful bondservant” or “This is My beloved son, in whom I am well pleased.” This will make you impervious to the smooth tongues of wicked men on demonic assignment to penetrate and cause destruction amongst the ranks of those who know their God.

The flattery may come in the form of lavish praises about your spiritual strength, discernment or giftings. Flattery directs praises at man; genuine praise is always directed toward the One Who deserves it – God Almighty! Also notice the order of events. The infiltration only occurs after the bombardment has gone on for some time. The word translated ‘fall in Daniel 11:33 & 34 also means ‘waver, totter, falter or faint’. It basically describes someone exhausted by the onslaught and when we are physically, emotionally and spiritually tired, we are very vulnerable and our spiritual shield of faith sometimes slips a bit. This is exactly when the stroking words from slippery tongues slip past and penetrate the heart. Delilah stroked Samson to sleep with her caresses and then bound him and handed him over to the Philistine lords. This flattery is insidious and not easily discerned. It makes one let one’s guard down allowing the flatterer to come closer; to sidle right up to your side and whisper gently in your ear. This is not the, “Oh you are so incredibly gifted!”. This is more, “Did God really say...?” It’s a form of flattery that makes you doubt whether you understood correctly. It makes you waver and falter. It takes away a portion of your faith as you begin to contemplate the suggestions of this new supposed ‘friend in the faith’. Unbelief starts to send its roots into your heart and a double-minded man is unstable in all his ways.

Remember Haman (a type of the antichrist) managed to wheedle his way into the king’s inner circle and become his right-hand man. How did this happen? Because the king was emotionally drained after surviving an assassination plot by trusted advisors and so he was weakened and wavered in his judgement.

So, let’s put it this way, it is not wisdom to let yourself get to the place of physical, emotional or spiritual exhaustion. God instituted a day of rest for a reason. We need to devote time, at the very least weekly, to walk with God and talk face to face; to recharge our spiritual batteries. Jesus said, "Come unto me, all you who are weary and heavy-laden and I will give you rest." Even when the spiritual battle is on, he is still the Good Shepherd that restores our souls. He prepares a table with nourishment for your spirit even in the presence of your enemies. He anoints your head with oil (all described in psalm 23). It is vital you recharge your batteries in the Lord's presence - and not by using things that stroke the flesh, as this will just weaken you more spiritually!

Daniel 11:35 explains that God allows the enemy assignment to have some success because He is trying and refining His choice saints, and this will continue until 'the time of the end'. The end of what, we must ask? Well, the answer is in Daniel 12:

Dan 12:6 And one said to the man clothed in linen, who was above the waters of the river, How long shall it be to the end of these wonders? Dan 12:7 And I heard the man clothed in linen, who was above the waters of the river, when he held up his right and his left hand toward the heavens and swore by Him Who lives forever that it shall be for a time, times, and a half a time [or three and one-half years]; and when they have made an end of scattering the power of the holy(consecrated) people, all these things shall be finished.

So, the refining time appointed for the consecrated in the earth is 3&1/2 years. In a refining process, once the dross is completely removed, the process is complete. There is no further reason to continue the refiner's fiery applications. So, we are looking at a time of distress and dire straits for 3 &1/2 years and then Daniel 12:1 says all whose names are in the Book will be delivered. There is a lot more that can be said about this topic but that is for another post. For now, let's keep focus on the wise, shining like stars and Sirius rising as a prince.

I have said a number of times that the manchild company will be equipped to wage war against the dragon and his troops and there is a verse in Daniel 8 which also speaks of these events:

Dan 8:25 And through his policy he shall cause trickery to prosper in his hand; he shall magnify himself in his heart and mind, and in their security he will corrupt and destroy many. He shall also stand up against the Prince of princes, but he shall be broken and that by no [human] hand.

Note that he will contend with the Prince of princes, but will be destroyed. Isn't the phrase 'Prince of princes' yet another depiction of the bright Morning Star Jesus and His manchild company, who are anointed and crowned, rising like Sirius the prince in the latter part of the morning watch? As for contending with the Prince of princes, remember the dragon waging war against the remnant seed is described in Rev 12:

Rev 12:17 And the dragon was enraged over the woman, and went to make war with the remnant seed, who keep the commandments of God and have the testimony of Jesus Christ.

They are the breaker company that ride out with the Lord at their head! Daniel 8:28 says the one warring against the Prince will be destroyed by the hand of God. You can read about this Prince and His loyal army riding to war in rev 19:11-19.

Daniel 12 identifies the wise as those who lead many to righteousness and Daniel 11 describes them as those who instruct many. So, what does this look like in connection with what we have been studying about the manchild company arising with a double portion of the spirit of Elijah? Malachi 4 says that God will send Elijah before the great and terrible day of the Lord and Jesus confirmed that John the Baptist was the Elijah that was to come. But we also know that Elijah was instructed to anoint two kings, Hazael of Syria and Jehu and then to anoint Elisha – whom we know received a double portion of the Spirit of Elijah. So that's a picture of a double kingly anointing and a double prophetic anointing. Elijah ministered BEFORE the great and terrible day of the Lord, firstly as the original Elijah instructed the people how to rebuild the altar that had been broken down, and then the spirit of Elijah in John the Baptist instructed the people how to get right with God through repentance and led them to the Lamb of God Himself, Who would become their Righteousness at the cross. Elijah's mantle was imbued with a double portion and given to Elisha ie. There is a movement from Elijah to Elisha. Therefore, this prophetic 'Elisha company' (manchild) are released ON the Day of the Lord in the form of the morning star rising to again herald the coming of the Lord as the Righteous Judge. Remember, God's day starts with evening and is followed by morning, and just as the morning begins with the dawn, so too the Day of the Lord dawns with that company ready for battle described in Joel 2.

We also know from the last verses of Malachi 3 that those written in the Book of Remembrance are released or revealed as His jewels:

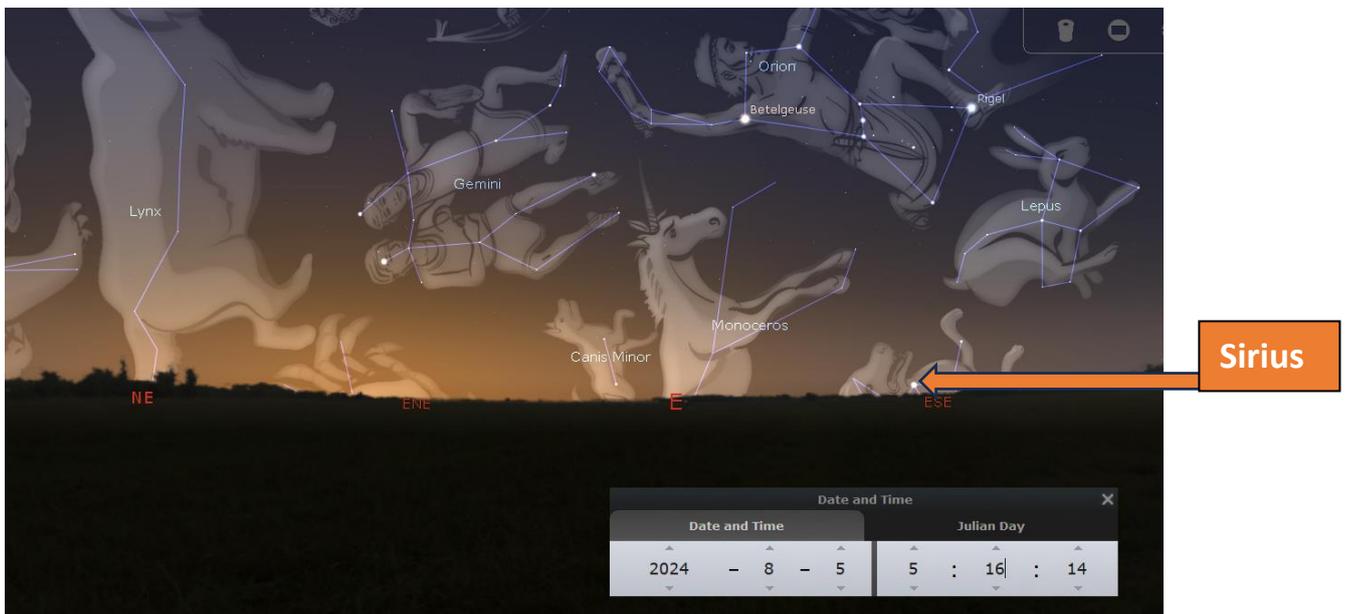

Mal 3:17 And they shall be Mine, says the Lord of hosts, in that day when I publicly recognize and openly declare them to be My jewels (My special possession, My peculiar treasure). And I will spare them, as a man spares his own son who serves him.

The words I have highlighted in yellow are translated from the Hebrew word 'asah', which also means 'to prepare, to bring forth, to appoint, ordain, institute'. So, there is a definite sense of being set in place in a position of authority and power, and the very next chapter describes the commencement of the DAY that burns like an oven and the release of those who fear His Name. The word translated 'day' is 'yom' which literally means 'hot or the 'hours between sunrise and sunset' – in other words, the hours after the rising of the Sun of Righteousness, whose anger rages!! Doesn't it make sense now that the Holy Spirit has been showing us the manchild company rising into plain sight like Sirius, the morning star in the last watch of the night hours - the morning watch! Of course, it's important to remember the morning star Sirius is a binary system – two stars, the smaller one (manchild) circling the larger one (Jesus, the Morning Star), but in such close communion that the two appear to be one - echad (in complete union). Halleluyah!

The Morning Star in 5784

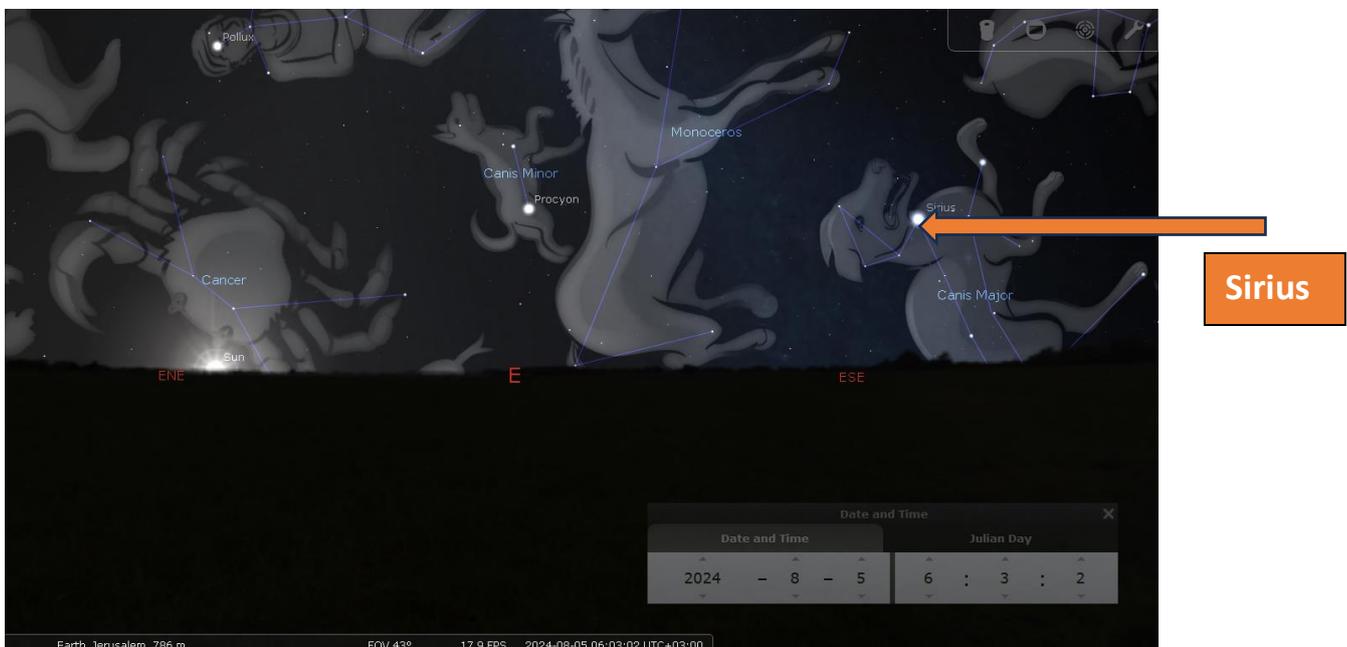

So, I want to look at what is happening with Sirius in the year 5784 (which according to the pattern of a Hebrew year depicting a watch of the night, is actually the 'morning watch year'). In the morning watch, the morning star rises and becomes visible during the second half of civil twilight, which would correspond to the last two months of the Hebrew year ie. Av and Elul 5784. Perhaps there is more to learn concerning God's plans for the manchild company...

The free software available does not yet show the calculated heliacal rising dates for 2024. So, I used Stellarium to get an approximate picture of what will be occurring. And according to Stellarium, Sirius rises in the Jerusalem sky on approximately 5th Aug 2024, at 5h15am BEFORE the sun rises at 6h03am

Of course, we do not know yet whether the barley will again ripen early in 2024. Only the God of the Harvest knows these things, so we must wait to see if the barley firstfruits ripening time aligns with the official calendar of Israel or is again early.

At the time of year when Sirius rises to the right of the sun for the first time, the sun rises in the constellation of Cancer. We can see it below, appearing in the left claw of the crab.

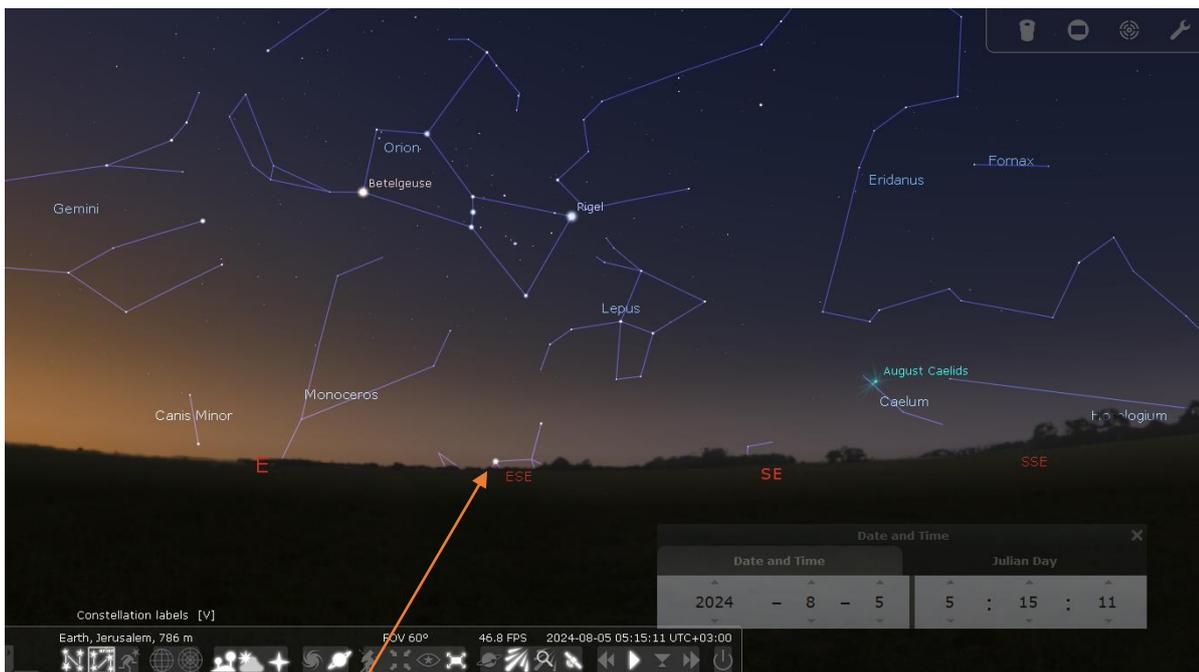

Not surprisingly, this constellation was NOT depicted as a crab in ancient times. It was rather referred to as a cattle-fold and the star in the lower left large claw, is called Acubene, which, in Hebrew and Arabic, means 'the sheltering or hiding-place'. As the sun is first seen in this exact location as it rises, is this perhaps connected to the woman who is taken to a place prepared where she is kept safe for 3&1/2 yrs? If we read the order of events of Rev 12 again, we find that first the manchild ascends to the throne ( is set in place with ruling authority), which we see the heavenly patterns for in 2023. Then the flood is released from the dragon's mouth (probably through diabolical decrees and laws which unleash persecution) and the woman flees to the wilderness (Aided by the wings of a giant eagle) to the place prepared by God.

Other stars in this cattle-fold constellation which the sun clothes in glory light bear names meaning 'a multitude, offspring', 'assembled thousands', 'the kids or lambs'.

If indeed, Sirius does have its heliacal rising on 5th August 2024, this happens to be 1st Av 5784; the first day of the month of mourning, the anniversary of the day Aaron died and Eleazar ascended to the high-priesthood. I mentioned before that the morning star acts as a herald, announcing the coming of the Sun of Righteousness – in other words, announcing that the daylight hours of the Day that burns like an oven is about to commence. The wicked will be judged but those who fear the Lord will experience 'healing' or, as the Hebrew word also means, 'deliverance', before participating in the judgement and treading down of the wicked. In this event, it is only those who are in the Book of Remembrance who are identified as jewels and will be spared as sons.

In last 'half hour' of morning watch year, 1st Av 5784 Rabbinic calendar, Aug 5th 2024, Sirius rises at 5h15am on Stellarium, now acting as the morning star herald of the day that burns like an oven

Rosh Hashanah, the first day of the new Hebrew year, is also called Yom Hadin is translated as "The Day of Judgment." In Amos 8, God's judgment is connected and pegged to the time of the flooding of Egypt - which happened in the season when Sirius rose as the morning star. This scripture also references days of darkness being experienced.

Amo 8:8 Shall not the land tremble for this, and every one mourn that dwelleth therein? and it shall rise up wholly as a flood; and it shall be cast out and drowned, as by the flood of Egypt. Amo 8:9 And it shall come to pass in that day, saith the Lord GOD, that I will cause the sun to go down at noon, and I will darken the earth in the clear day: Amo 8:10 And I will turn your feasts into mourning, and all your songs into lamentation; and I will bring up sackcloth upon all loins, and baldness upon every head; and I will make it as the mourning of an only son, and the end thereof as a bitter day.

Sirius rises as a herald of the Day of the Lord, of a time of great heat in the earth in the natural realm – as well as alluding to the heat of fire of judgement aka ‘the Day that burns like an oven’. It announces the coming day of judgement upon the wicked and Amos mentions great floods of water and darkness occurring. And Amos 8:10 indicates that the coming feasts will be times of mourning and not celebrating. The next feasts to occur after Sirius rises as the morning star in July and August are the Fall feasts, Rosh Hashanah, Yom Kippur and Tabernacles.

Rising in Stages and Metrons

We can see a pattern for rising to the place of full kingly rule in the life of David. He was anointed and marked as the coming king as a youth, but did not take his seat on the throne in Jerusalem until many years later. He spent many years fleeing Saul, undergoing a time of trial, refining and character development, and only on reaching age 30 (the age a man is ‘adopted’ or set in place as fit to take over his father’s business), did he begin ruling as king over Judah.

2Sa 5:4 David was thirty years old when he began his forty-year reign. 2Sa 5:5 In Hebron he reigned over Judah seven years and six months, and in Jerusalem he reigned thirty-three years over all Israel and Judah.

So, he had his 38th birthday on the throne of all Israel in Jerusalem, but his time of reigning as king of Judah in Hebron was significant. During this time, Abigail joined him as his wife and he married 5 other wives as well, having 6 sons (2 Sam 3). His 7th wife was Bathsheba in Jerusalem. Also, during his time in Hebron, many of the soldiers in Saul’s army came over and swore allegiance to him. The Bible tells us that the house of Saul got weaker and weaker, while David’s house got stronger and stronger in these years at Hebron (2 Sam 3:1).

Why are we talking about David and Hebron? Because Hebron was the portion of inheritance of Caleb. Remember in pt 2 of this series, Caleb is also connected to Sirius rising as the morning star.

Jos 14:13 Then Joshua blessed him and gave Hebron to Caleb son of Jephunneh for an inheritance. Jos 14:14 So Hebron became the inheritance of Caleb son of Jephunneh the Kenizzite to this day, because he wholly followed the Lord, the God of Israel. Jos 14:15 The name of Hebron before was Kiriath-arba [city of Arba]. This Arba was the greatest of the Anakim.

Hebron is territory claimed from the giants of Canaan. It is the spiritual place of fruitfulness, where sons are born, and where the manchild company increases in strength and numbers. It is the place of initial anointing unto kingship, but greater influence and territory is up ahead. So, David's anointing as king in Hebron can be likened to the anointing and crowning we have discussed for the manchild in 2023 and the rising of the manchild morning star company. We are entering a time of growing stronger and stronger before ascending to operate as sons of the right hand (David's ascension to full rule in Jerusalem).

The Counterfeit Rising

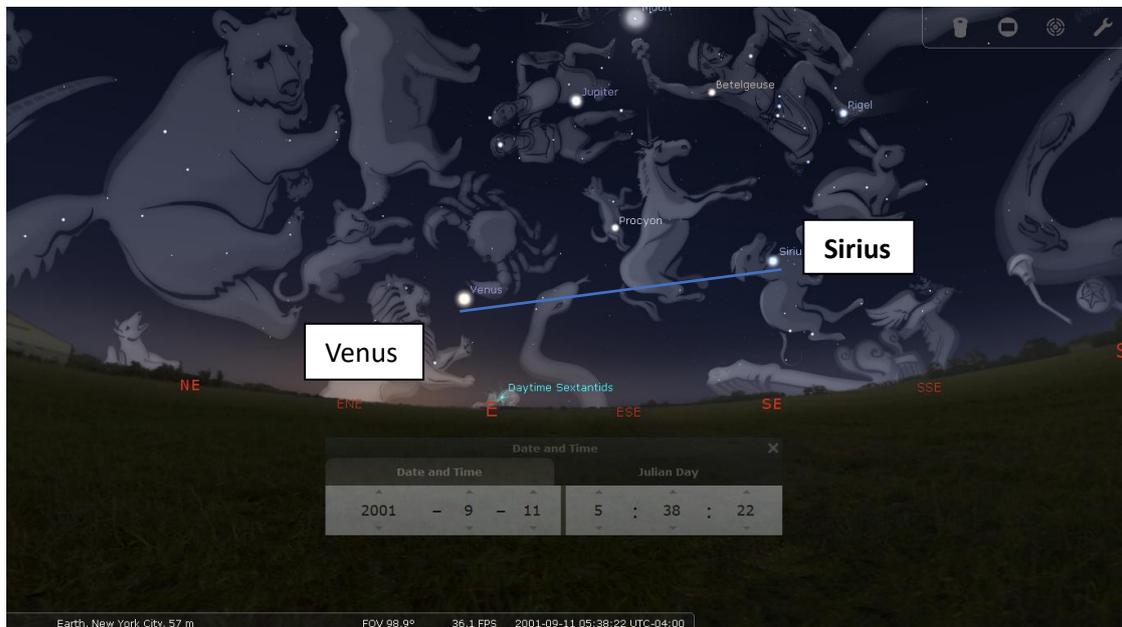

Whatever heaven is doing and the heavens are depicting, satan is copying. He has no ability to create, but only to copy. The occult elite have designed many of the world's major cities with covert constellation alignments and occult symbols hidden in the road layouts. Let's see what they have done concerning Sirius (and remember both Sirius and the sun are worshipped by the occult). Did you know that The Statue of Liberty is a carefully positioned depiction of the morning star rising? Here is that 'burning torch' in the morning watch. She is of course modelled on the goddess Isis/Venus and obviously 'liberty' refers to casting off the restraints of the rule of God.

The star Sirius is a fixed star always appearing in proximity to Gemini, which depicts the Bride and the Bridegroom in Biblical understanding. In New York City, the statue of Venus (usually called ‘the morning star’) rising in alignment with the twin towers (depicting the Gemini constellation). However, Venus is a planet, not a star, so how can it be ‘the morning star’? We don’t call Jupiter or Saturn ‘stars’. On the day of the twin tower destruction, this below was the alignment of the constellations in the heavens above it. You can see that Sirius is higher than Venus (blue line) and therefore rose before it, to the east of the coming sun. So, I believe Sirius is the true morning star.

Look also how (in order from the top) Saturn, the moon, Jupiter, Venus and the sun are all in alignment at sunrise in the New York sky! Considering the occult elite do all their rituals at ‘auspicious heavenly times’ with their occult beliefs, this tragedy can be no accident.

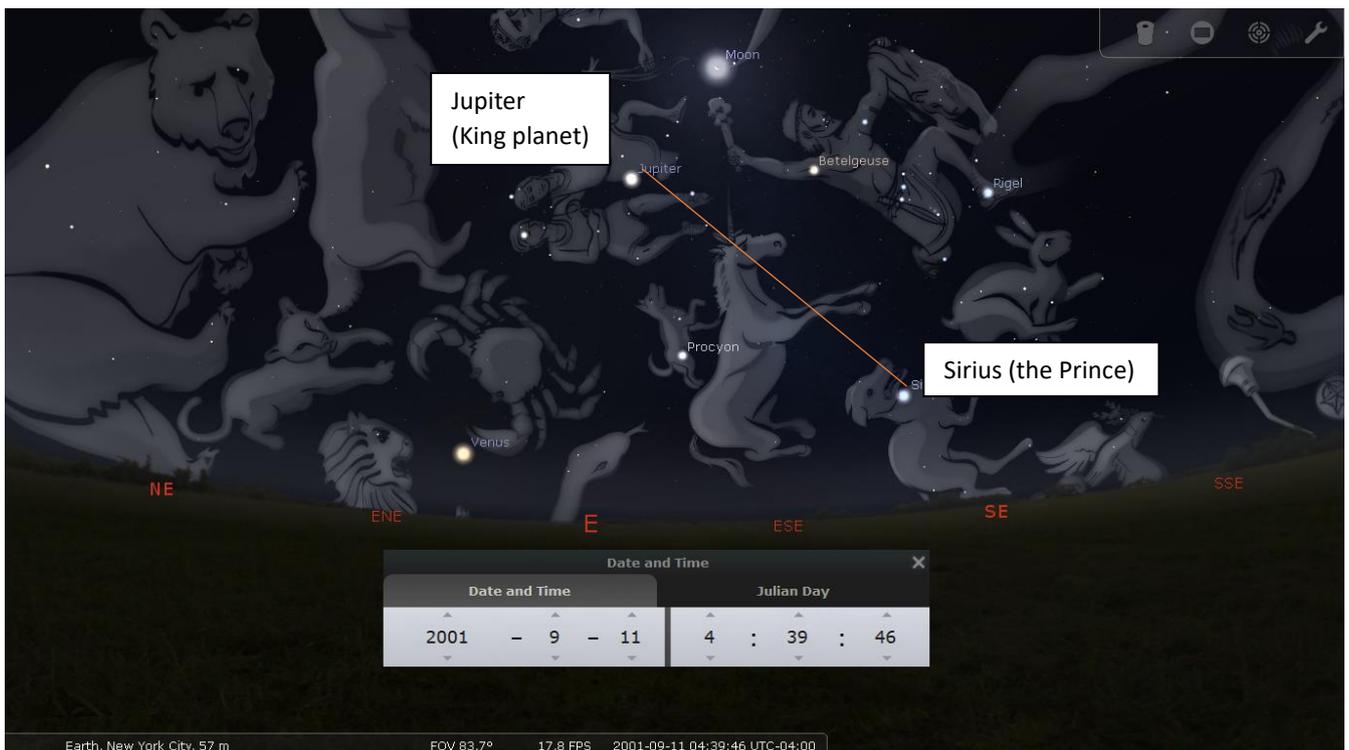

The fall of the twin towers was a massive blood sacrifice ritual to satan... And then, no surprise, the two became one (a counterfeit of the wedding of the Lamb and His Bride. And what was the single tower called originally? The Freedom Tower – freedom from the rule of God. The twin towers also represented the two strands of human DNA. So perhaps the One World (Government) Trade Center, as it is now called, represents the engineered mRNA, with its syringe needle headdress.

So, what does the Freedom tower depict from the heavenly constellations? Let's look again, keeping in mind the true morning star Sirius...

The line between Jupiter and Sirius goes straight through the place where the single horn attaches on the unicorn (Monoceros constellation). The Freedom tower has a single 'horn' on top of it. So instead of Venus and Gemini depicted in New York, we have the morning star(Sirius) and the unicorn. The two towers were replaced by the one tower which was raised up in their stead – in some sense as their seed or 'son'; a son rising with great power. Psalm 92 says in KJV, 'My horn will you exalt like that of a unicorn. You anoint my head with fresh oil'. It depicts someone rising to power after being anointed. The word translated 'unicorn' comes from a root word meaning 'to rise or be lifted up'. Numbers 23:22 equates God's strength to the strength of a unicorn, and in the image above, it is the horn that is highlighted between Jupiter and Sirius. The Hebrew word for 'horn' also means 'ray of light, power'.

Lastly, I want to remind you that the counterfeit son of the right hand, the antichrist, who is the son of the right hand of satan, is also going to be rising as the counterfeit morning star with his false manchild company around him. The truth of what God is doing will help you to identify and discern what the enemy is trying to achieve with the movements of the dark side. Sabine pointed out to me that the World Economic Forum had its 'gathering of new champions' in Tianjin, China, at the end of June 2023. The Hebrew word for 'champion' also means 'mighty man'. Tianjin means 'Ford of Heaven'.

Be alert and awake and pray for ever-increasing discernment in these days of deception. More importantly, be aware and rejoice for these are the days of the mantle of Elijah being laid upon the shoulders of Elisha. These are the days of the revelation of the Jesus as the bright Morning Star rising in our hearts.
