

The Water Chronicles ~ Pt 2

Audio Version

Hello, my brothers and sisters. It's Saturday, the 18th of March, and I'm going to share part two of the Water Chronicles. I had a number of emails from people sharing their own dreams and visions that have been given over the years, of flooding coming to the Western Cape of South Africa and in many other nations as well. And I want to start with Luke 21:25

Luk 21:25 And there shall be signs in the sun, and in the moon, and in the stars; and upon the earth distress of nations, with perplexity; the sea and the waves roaring; Luk 21:26 Men's hearts failing them for fear, and for looking after those things which are coming on the earth: for the powers of heaven shall be shaken.

Firstly, I'm sharing a link for a video compilation of some of the flood and tsunami warnings that have been received worldwide:

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=2Gt9kdNkSQ&t=1624s>

and a video interview (Aug 2021) with John Moore, sharing the warnings given in classified briefings to US Navy veterans (from the 20min mark):

I give some details from John Moore later in this message.

Then, in part 2 of the Water Chronicles, I want to continue to share confirming dreams and visions about the first and second wave of water. The Lord has already confirmed the first wave inundating the west coast of South Africa will be as a result of an asteroid plunging into the area close to the Gulf of Mexico. The second wave of water which is far more devastating is caused by something else entirely. I want to reshare a post from 2020 in which I share a vision about an incoming planet whose gravitational field causes havoc on the earth.

23rd July 2020

Vision of large moving planet barrelling towards earth

I personally had not been shown anything by the Lord about what is happening in space until this week, when, as usual, the Father began an interesting conversation with me. I never know what is coming when He says, "come..."

"Come, daughter, We want to show you something."

"Ooh, Lord, that's exciting!"

"In a way..."

This disturbed me a bit, because it didn't sound like it was going to be a pleasant experience.

"Is it scary?"

"Depends which vantage point you look from..."

In a vision, I am suddenly in outer space and there is a reddish-brown large planet to the left of me with a distinct blue glow on its external surface. I can see stars twinkling in the darkness and to my right but further away and looking much smaller, is the earth, suspended like a blue marble. The big planet is moving forward with speed in the direction of the earth, and I am moving with it.

"Is it going to hit, Lord?"

"No... but the debris from its field will."

As the planet gets closer to earth, I see the globe begin to shake slightly and then more violently. The surface of the earth begins to crack open, like the hard ground does when one pulls up the roots of a plant. I see earthquakes taking place all over the globe and volcanoes going off. The earth is shaking violently from the effect of the gravitational pull of the approaching planet.

Then I see a big padlock buried deep breaking open under the influence of the shaking and chains fall down and I see giant beings released from the places where they have been imprisoned and climbing out of them.

I see very strong winds blowing across the surface of the whole earth, and for a brief moment, I am zoomed in and see people clinging to lampposts and trees to try and anchor themselves in the gale-force winds. Then I hear a phrase 'solar winds'. I have no idea what this means.

I asked the Father, "How long will it take to pass by?"

"A few days..."

Then I remembered the research by Gill Broussard, who calculated that it would take 3 days for planet 7X/Niburu to cross the earth's orbit and because of this, there would be darkness upon the earth for that period because it would pass between the earth and the sun. I also remembered that he put forward that the 2 times of it crossing earth's orbit would be some time near the feasts of Passover and the Fall Feasts, with a 5-month period in between. I do not know at the time if I am seeing what He spoke of or if this is another incoming planetary body.

I began to pray, "Lord, help us. Shelter us. From what vantage point is this not scary?"

"From My throne, daughter. Am I not the One Who commands the waves of the sea to rise (and verses from Psalm 107 came to mind) and am I not the One Who launches the planets in their orbits? Do I not know each star by name? And is this not My Destroyer released to deliver My people from the yoke of Egypt? (As He said this, I saw the Destroyer passing over ancient Egypt and the Israelites leaving their slavery and crossing the Red Sea.)

“I delight to provide for them, to protect them and lead them, but how can I do this unless the yoke of wicked men is dealt with? How can I set them apart for Myself and dwell in their midst, while they still wear the yoke of slavery to the systems of this world?”

"But, Lord, " I answered, "We still have to live in this world for a season..."

I had hardly finished my sentence before parts of a very well-known scripture were spoken in my hearing. The words vibrated there in the atmosphere, imparting faith and courage to me:

Mat 6:31 ...take no thought, saying, What shall we eat? or, What shall we drink? or, what shall we wear? Mat 6:32 for your heavenly Father knows that you have need of all these things. Mat 6:33 But seek first the kingdom of God, and his righteousness; and all these things shall be added to you....

Then He spoke again, “Yes, daughter, David’s household fled from the murderous plots of Absalom and arrived exhausted at the Jordan, and did I not refresh them by the hand of My servant? And did they not come to Mahanaim and find a banquet already prepared? Do not underestimate my ability to plan ahead, daughter. I know My faithful children’s needs.

Yes, the Destroyer comes, and a great cry shall arise in Egypt (He refers to the world systems here) as it passes by and wreaks havoc with their plans and dynasties, but you, My people, make use of My Blood and shelter in the shadow of My wings. It is the reward of the wicked that the planet comes to execute. They think to hide deep their plots and plans, but He Who made the ear, can He not hear their diabolical whisperings, and can He not see the shelters they build deep in the earth? There is no place they can hide from Me.

Be at peace, my daughter. My angels already have their orders to bring My veiled ones to safety before judgment strikes. What you need now is extreme focus, not alarmism but purposeful focus! It’s time to pass through the eye of the needle now... and wait ’til you see what awaits you on the other side!”

As He says this, I see a camel kneeling down outside a gate in the wall of Jerusalem, and all the baggage being unloaded from it, so that it can fit through the small gate. I realize He is speaking of getting rid of weights and cares and issues we are dragging with us. I also see a woman sitting at a window, trying to thread a needle. The room where she is sitting is dimly lit and she is using a shaft of sunlight coming through the window to see clearly. She is intensely focused and keeping her eyes on the small portal that the thread must pass through. The Spirit is saying that as the light in the world gets ever dimmer, while the dark night of trial sets in, we must focus and use the light and revelation of the Son, Jesus, in order to accomplish what we need to do.

Do you remember in my dream witnessing the flood of water in the Western Cape, I was in the middle of moving house and returned to get 'my camping things'? I believe this is a reference to the Israelites leaving Egypt and going into the wilderness, where they dwelt in tents as they followed the cloud. Perhaps it also refers to the importance of people possessing some kind of temporary portable housing like a tent for the difficult days ahead, if displacement should occur.

On 2nd Aug 2020 I dreamt I was driving with a friend, whose name means 'valour and bravery', and we saw a huge planet at horizon level, in pastel colours, and then later, when we circled back to photograph it, it looked white.

Then the Father led me to an interview done on 13th Aug 2018 which gave me quite a bit of information that filled in the gaps in my understanding. Below are quotes from that interview:

(Natural News) A large, planet-sized mass inhabits our solar system, and its large elliptical orbit around the sun brings it across Earth's orbital plane every 3,600 years or so, wreaking havoc on our planet due to strong gravity effects. The U.S. government has been aware of the approach of "Planet X" for over forty years, warns John Moore "The Liberty Man," in an interview on Brighteon Conversations.

While Planet X won't strike the Earth, it's nearby approach will unleash cataclysmic consequences across our planet. Those effects may include a global "pole shift," which means the Earth's crust slips to a new orientation, unleashing extreme winds, volcanoes, earthquakes, flooding, tidal waves and more.

(John Moore is a former U.S. Army intelligence analyst and took part in 57 air combat missions over Vietnam and Cambodia. As a long-time radio host, Moore has developed a long list of sources inside government and the U.S. military. He hosts a radio show each weekday from 8 – 10 am central time, via Republic Broadcasting. Learn all the details at TheLibertyMan.com)

\*As Moore explained, the pole shift would place North America closer to the equator than its current position, and the “bulge” of ocean water at the equator (due to centrifugal forces of the rotating planet) would raise the level of the ocean by hundreds of feet compared to the continental United States. John Moore’s website — TheLibertyMan.com — hosts this map of anticipated changes. Note that Florida and much of the Eastern seaboard are under water in this depiction.*

John Moore explained how people living in other areas of the world can easily determine whether their current locations will be inundated with higher relative ocean levels.

The Planet X fly-by would likely also bring asteroid impacts to planet Earth, causing global chaos and mass destruction as large space rocks impact the planet at extreme relative velocities. A recent study found that just one such impact in any ocean would unleash 400-foot ocean waves that would devastate coastal cities around the world (and flood coastlines for potentially a hundred miles inland).

*The United States government is fully aware of the approach of Planet X but has chosen to withhold this information from the American people for the simple fact that there’s nothing the masses can do to survive the anticipated events.

*Moore recommends people move inland and get 500-600FT ABOVE SEA LEVEL TO BE SAFE. (500 feet =150m, 600 feet is 182m)

See the full interview here:

Direct Brighteon.com link

As far as the timing of the return of Planet X, Moore explained that people who keep asking about the timing are those who refuse to prepare.

Moore says the following events will be triggered by this giant planet’s passing:

- Sea rises during 30-day period
- 12/24/72 hr period when magnetic and true North come together again, disrupting the 500ft bulge of water normally at the equator, initiated by the gravitational pull of Planet X
- 200mphr winds for a day, earthquakes, asteroids
- Weight of water on new Madrid seismic zone will trigger three 9+ earthquakes
- phenomenon during solar eclipse cessation of gravity, where pendulum swing reversed, navigation systems dependant of magnetic compasses stop working (aircraft)

Needless to say, in this scenario, Bitcoin would be worthless, as will all fiat currencies. The only things that have value from that day forward are gold, silver, firearms, ammunition, food, fuel, first aid, land and other "real" items.

The Book of Revelation openly warns humanity about a fiery mountain falling out of the sky and impacting the ocean, devastating the planet and destroying a third of the world's ships.

From the things I have been shown, it seems that the displacement of the bulge of water at the equator by Planet X's gravitational pull is what will cause massive coastal flooding worldwide and the second incoming wave which I was shown in my 2016 dream where portions of the Western Cape, and Cape Town in particular, were completely under water. This is not a tsunami, which rises up high and comes crashing down. This is just a continual increase in sea level until the water has encroached far inland, depending on the terrain.

On 13th Aug 2020, I had yet another flood warning dream:

I dreamt it was early morning in an apartment upstairs, I leaned out of the window and saw it was early dawn and workers were standing together talking, downstairs in the garden. By mistake, I knocked something out of the window and asked them to put it on the concrete bench and I would come and fetch it. I also saw my metal wall hanging of a birdcage with an uncaged bird on the bench already. Then I closed the curtains on the other side in the lounge to stop partying people on that balcony looking in, & walked to open the front door to look out. Strangely, it was nighttime on that side of the apartment and I saw electric lights on and the figures partying were quite dim. As I stood at the front door, I turned back and strangely saw water flowing in, until the floor was about 20 cm underwater, a bit more than ankle-deep. I didn't know whether to close the door to stop more coming in, but saw the door didn't seal properly and left it open for the water to flow out again. I said to my husband, 'We should have moved higher'.

I then woke up with the verse 'when the flood waters overflow, they will not reach the spirit in me'. I again asked the Lord what this dream was about.

He said, " I am showing you the first wave. It will flow in and flow out. The second wave will remain upon the earth for 40 days. It will come early in the first watch of the night."

"Is this second wave connected to the pole shift and Niburu/Planet X?" I asked.

"Yes, daughter."

"Lord, what time in the morning did I knock something out of the window?"

"7:30am."

In the dream, on the balcony on one side, it looked like it is night time and crowds of people were partying, but on the other side, outside it was early morning and workers were ready to get to appointed tasks. This aligns with what I have been shown before that the remnant have been moving through the night of preparation and the dawn is at hand and a new day, but the world and those reveling in its ways are going into the darkness and a night of trial. This is why the partygoers were in the darkness but outside the other window, workers were wide awake and ready to do their tasks assigned for the day of the Lord. The uncaged bird and birdcage have always reminded me of being set free from a time of being shut in (perhaps a sign of being released from the stall, mentioned in Malachi 4).

What does this closing of curtains in the dream entail? A shutting down of website/etc so the worldly can't see what we are doing inside? OR does it symbolize a severing and separating between the world and the remnant??? I think it must be because i am sensing that at time of ancient exodus from Egypt, aka the remnant will be coming out of world system, The people went into their houses with the blood on the doorposts and stayed in there feasting on the lamb. Just before they were to come out of the world system.

14th Aug 2020

The next day I pressed in for more understanding. "Lord, tell me more about the 2nd wave I saw in my first flood dream."

***I immediately see a planet close to earth and as it approaches, I notice an asteroid falling, which causes the first wave. The planet crosses the earth's path after Passover and as it leaves, a massive flood of water rises. (this is caused by the bulge of water at the equator being shifted as John Moore mentioned).

The ankle wave in my dream of the day before was the warning wave. I remember the Lord did tell me that there will be no warning for the second rising of water. The sea level would just rise.

I had a question burning in my heart, "Lord, when I had the dream where I saw the planet looking massive in the sky in the morning, when is that going to occur?"

"3 days before Passover" (but He did not tell me which year).

This is very interesting, as Planet X is sometimes referred to as 'the Destroyer' because of other times in history when it has passed by, and astronomers know that the Destroyer passed over Egypt at the first Passover.

Here is a link to a downloadable document with Biblical instances of its mention.

Planet X/Niburu in the Bible

Pastor Efraim Rodriegez said that the asteroid hitting the Gulf of Mexico would stop the earth's rotation for 3 days so the western hemisphere would have 3 days of darkness. I wondered what we in South Africa would have, as we are 7 hours ahead of Gulf of Mexico?.... It also seems there may be more than one period of darkness coming as this giant Planet X will also block out the sun like an eclipse, as it takes 3 days to pass by the earth. Take this to prayer, saints!

Another Confirming Dream on Unrecorded Date ( round 2021)

I am in the back seat of the car and my brother-in-law is driving with my sister in the front passenger seat. We are going down the main road to the Strand (the neighbouring town to where I live). Suddenly, in between the buildings that are close to the beach, we see a massive wave approaching. It is halfway up the height of the blocks of flats. My brother-in-law immediately turns off the main road into a side road because he wants to go and look at the wave from another angle, but I say, "Don't do it, it's not safe".

As I wake up, the Lord says, "Now you have seen the first wave!"

On the 5th Feb 2023, I watched the prophecy given by Rebeckah Erlank about the tsunami in the Western Cape (link is in pt 1 of Water Chronicles) for the first time, and at this time, the Lord began to release me to share what He had told me about this event. I asked Him some clarifying questions:

1. How much time do we have left?

"You have one year"

Now, this is interesting because. I watched another interview with John Moore, given last year in late 2021, and Mike Adams asked him the same question, "How much time do we have left?" And he said that those in the know at that time said that we had two years. Now. It is 2023 and the Lord is saying to me 'one year', so those two time periods given are confirmations that in 2024, at some time that year, this whole sequence of events of the different waves will begin to roll out.

2. Will it be before or after the 3 days of darkness?

"It will be after the destruction by water of the California coastline."

3. What is the time gap between the first and second wave I dreamed of?

"Weeks".

I thought of the barrier wall erected last year along the Strand beachfront to hold back the spring tides, and as I did, the Spirit said, "That bulkhead will hold back nothing!"

A month later, I had another dream:

Dream of 6th March 2023

I dreamt I was on the west coast with my family (it was not clear from the landmarks which nation we were in, but I do live on the west coast of the Western Cape). I knew we all had to leave and I shared this with them. We discussed and debated when would be a good time to go. That night, we all had the same dream, in which we were warned to flee east to Zoar, because judgement was coming. We knew we had to go IMMEDIATELY. It was quite a treacherous journey and we ended up in a small town, where we were told to stand in a queue for registration.

This dream indicates that the Spirit will confirm timing to members of families or possibly brothers and sisters in Christ in close fellowship, just before the time of fleeing. Zoar is the small town that Lot fled to before Sodom and Gomorrah's destruction. Zoar was not their final destination but the first stop. In His mercy, God had sent messengers to thrust Lot and his family out of Sodom and, when they had done so, the angel's instruction to the family was clear:

Gen 19:17 And when they had brought them forth, they said, ESCAPE FOR YOUR LIFE! DO NOT LOOK BEHIND YOU OR STOP ANYWHERE IN THE WHOLE VALLEY; ESCAPE TO THE MOUNTAINS, LEST YOU BE CONSUMED.

Beloved, the Lord warns His people of judgments to come because He does not want them to perish. Please take these things I have shared to prayer and speedily obey anything the Spirit instructs you to do. Many coastal cities worldwide will be destroyed as the Lord's judgements unfold. Remember that the people mocked Noah when He preached of the need for repentance and ridiculed the ark he was building, but in the end, as they were washed away, they knew that he had heard correctly from the Lord. Do not expect others to embrace this message, as it disrupts all status quo and comfort for them to heed it. But the Spirit will confirm to those who fear the Lord exactly what they need to do.

Luk 21:34 But take heed to yourselves and be on your guard, lest your hearts be overburdened and depressed (weighed down) with the giddiness and headache and nausea of self-indulgence, drunkenness, and worldly worries and cares pertaining to [the business of] this life, and [lest] that day come upon you suddenly like a trap or a noose; Luk 21:35 For it will come upon all who live upon the face of the entire earth. Luk 21:36 Keep awake then and watch at all times [be discreet, attentive, and ready], praying that you may have the full strength and ability and be accounted worthy to escape all these things [taken together] that will take place, and to stand in the presence of the Son of Man.
