

The Warrior Wine Song

AUDIO VERSION

I had a very interesting time in the early hours of 11th June 2023. The Spirit dictated sentences to me in the night as I slept, repeating each sentence at least twice to make sure I got it. I felt as if I was in a classroom with a power point demonstration being given by the Teacher. At some point, I realized I had better wake up and record what I was hearing. This is what He said:

“Normally, substances are strengthened by adding in certain things, for example, flour is made strong by adding extra vitamin B, sometimes protein and other substances. But wine is strengthened by REMOVING SUBSTANCES. The expression of Christ in you is LESS DILUTED after the pulp is removed.”

The thought came to me - I must decrease and He must increase. And He spoke, “As self is put to death, the sound of Christ being broadcast from your life is AMPLIFIED”.

Sometimes, it is difficult to put into words what one sees in the Spirit because one is shown multiple layers of meaning at once, but I am going to try. After hearing the above statements on the clarity of the wine, I saw a war sandal being strapped onto a foot with a strap across the bridge of the foot. It was pointed out that this bridge strap was giving the foot stability and strength in battle. This message was shown to me three or four times as I repeatedly saw the strap being placed over the bridge of the foot and it was demonstrated to my watching eye how it gave the foot stability and strength and agility. It was a form of yoke. I also know there was a connection between the transition bridge I had just discussed in the hand of the Vintner post and this strap over the bridge of the foot.

When I asked the Lord to help me understand this link, He explained that this preparation of the firstfruits new wine offering is also the yoking of this firstfruits company with the Holy Spirit. The yoking takes place on the bridge of transition from fullness of ripeness to the drawing forth of the firstfruits wine offering. They were those who are led and moved ONLY by the Spirit of God and identified as the sons of God. Then I heard “Braced for Battle. He is a Warrior undefeated!” and knew the foot I had seen was that of Jesus, dressed as a Warrior going into battle. The war-sandalled foot represented His foot soldiers operating under precise instruction from the Head.

Next, I heard, “There is less static as the pulp is removed and the roar of the Lion of Judah is amplified as it is emitted from your life. As the pulp goes, clarity of sound and Heaven’s frequency is emitted.” So, this new wine has a sound; a clear-as-crystal heavenly sound. Pray that He would increase the clarity of the frequency of Heaven in you!

Then I saw a hand reach out and lay hold of an upright spear. Immediately the constellation Bootes came to mind, the man with a spear in His right hand and a scythe in His left. Bootes means ‘Behold, He comes’. The star Arcturus in His left knee also means ‘He comes’. As I had been writing of the tip of the spear for months, I knew that the time was at hand for this weapon to be taken up for the battle at hand. It meant that the tip was completely sharpened and ready for war.

Then the words of a song the Spirit has sung to me before, began to be sounded forth:

Behold He comes and He's a Man of War
 With eyes of fire and a lightning sword.
 The Day of the Lord is at hand and He will not delay.
 Lift up your heads o ye gates, He's on His way.

Then I was shown a very large male lion striding purposefully across the globe. As each paw was put down, the earth shook! I knew this was the Lion of Judah and that the Book of Revelation had declared that he had ALREADY conquered. (Later that morning, I heard there had been a point 5 earthquake in the province of Gauteng, South Africa at 2:48am on 11th June 2023). This is very unusual. The Strongs H248 is the name 'Eliachba', which means 'God will hide'. So, in the shakings, His righteous remnant has no need to fear. He will hide them with His defending presence.

Then again, I could hear words of a poem or decree being spoken:

Lion of Judah
lift up Your battle cry
Moving in power
With the apple of Your eye
A company pressed to the image of the Son victorious in Heaven's power
The battle already won!
The Lord is a Man of War
and His time has finally come Risen and clothed in zeal
the might of the righteous Sun
treading the winepress of His wrath
His sandalled feet stride surely on Crushing the heads of His enemies to the sound of His firstfruits new wine song.

I am going to share what I presently understand of these words, but I am sure there is much more to be taught by the Spirit. The apple of His eye refers to the manchild company; the Hebrew word for 'apple' in psalm 18 being directly translated as 'little man' or 'manchild'. The reference to His sandalled feet being used to crush His enemies depicts the deployment of His foot-soldiers; the firstfruits new wine company, who flow fully submitted to the Head and led by the Spirit in all their movements. No pulp or flesh inhibits or dilutes the expression of Christ in and through our submitted lives. It says the crushing is done to a sound of the firstfruits new wine song, which makes me think that decrees or the release of the sound or frequency of Christ from our freshly pressed lives will wreak havoc on the enemy camp.

I want to share now the amazing confirmation for this message that the Lord provided. I have a precious friend who went camping in the Caprivi Strip this weekend. She discovered that this is the area from which the San tribe originate and she sent me a photograph of a metal sculpture in the camp where she is staying. It depicts a San warrior, clothed with fiery zeal and a flaming spear about to be launched from his hand as he runs towards his target.

She later discovered the statue was made in the western gate of Namibia, Swakopmund, and its arrow is pointing due North. That is hugely significant because, if you remember the encounter I had receiving counsel from Enoch, he said, concerning the West, “Face West and know that everything that has been before is past and will never be again”. In other words, leaving the West gate is about leaving the past behind; leaving the pulp behind and running towards true North, where the city of the great King is situated. Actually, Enoch stated, “Face North and anchor your heart at the throne of God”. So, this statue of the warrior clothed with fiery zeal releasing a flaming spear is about forgetting what lies behind, separating fully from it and pressing forward to what lies ahead, to lay hold of that for which Christ took hold of you. You were chosen to be born as part of this endtime generation. God has a powerful purpose for you as the firstfruits new wine offering - but it is imperative you separate fully from the pulp produced by the crushing.

Let me use a real-life example. I have a friend whom God has often used to show me what He is doing prophetically with the Tip of the Spear Company.

Often, I get part of a message, have a phone call with her, and without sharing what I am busy hearing, she tells me what is happening on her end and this supplies me with the needed puzzle pieces to form the rest of the picture I am seeing. Did you know your life speaks, beloved remnant? Always be expressly obedient to His instructions even if you don't understand why He is telling you to do a certain thing.

Since I began the series on the Hand of the Vintner, this friend's mother passed away in another State. The Lord had already told her she would not be travelling to see her mother before she died. So, she only connected via video call to say goodbye. Then she has to travel a two-day journey to deal with all her mother's belongings. The Holy Spirit very strongly emphasized she was not to take any of her mother's possessions for herself; including photographs, memorabilia, artworks or clothing. And she was determined to be obedient to this instruction because she understands the principle of the pressing. There is to be COMPLETE SEPARATION between the pulp and the new wine as it flows through the narrow gate of the press. The most astounding part of this is that winemakers refer to this mix of pulp, skins and stalks as the 'mother'. To produce the new wine, there has to be COMPLETE separation from the 'mother'. In fact, no portion of the mother must be found in the new wine once it is pressed. If this happens, it is considered contaminated! Interestingly, this friend is travelling due west to attend to the disposing of her mother's possessions. Having done so, she will leave that Western gate, running in the power of the Spirit of Elijah, unencumbered with any weight from the 'mother', as part of the firstfruits new wine offering for the King of Kings.

So, holy remnant, I don't know what the pulp or 'mother' represents in your crushing and pressing experience, but I can guarantee there will be some emotional or soul attachments to those things God is separating you from. You have a choice to cooperate with the complete severing and separation that the Spirit is trying to accomplish – or you can resist, which will just result in increased pressure and greater pressing. God will have His way. I have found that yielding and joyful submission is far less stressful, even though sometimes painful for the soul. Remember when it was time for Jesus to be crucified – the apex of His reason for coming to earth, He was able to say, "He has nothing in Me".

Joh 14:30AMP I will not talk with you much more, for the prince (evil genius, ruler) of the world is coming. And he has no claim on Me. [He has nothing in common with Me; there is nothing in Me that belongs to him, and he has no power over Me.] Joh 14:31 But [Satan is coming and] I do as the Father has commanded Me, so that the world may know (be convinced) that I love the Father and that I do only what the Father has instructed Me to do. [I act in full agreement with His orders.] Rise, let us go away from here.

God desires to bring you to a state of being where satan has nothing in you; no emotional strings he can pull, no territory he can use to derail you on your God-given endtime assignments. The removal of pulp AMPLIFIES the sound of Christ in you. You are strengthened by the REMOVAL of the 'mother' from your life. The pressing produces purity and clarity in you.

Back to early morning on 11th... After hearing of the new wine song, I was given a sense of these same ones being pressed newly minted coinage, bearing the image of the Head, solid and pure, yet somehow liquid and yielded. Then I heard of this army the words from a song based on Joel 2: 'they rush on the cities, they run on the walls, for great is the army that carries out His Word'. They are described as being like the dawn on the mountains. Job describes what this light-filled dawn company do:

Job 38:12 Have you commanded the morning since your days began and caused the dawn to know its place, Job 38:13 So that light may take hold of the corners of the earth and shake the wickedness out of it?

In the dawn watch, the morning star rises to herald the dawn. Half an hour before the sun rises, the morning star is visible in the sky. A herald is one who announces something forthcoming. "Behold He comes," the heralds decree. Bootes, the Man of War is on His way with His weapon of war in His hand.

And finally, I am hearing the words of Chuck Gerard's powerful prophetic song, Soldiers of the Lion. They seem fitting to end this post with. Beloved, the pressing has purpose. It clarifies and amplifies the frequency of Christ in your life. Let Him remove every vestige of pulp and draw you through the narrow gate onto the narrow road that leads to life. And as that powerful LION OF JUDAH strides across all the earth, may we, His foot-soldiers, be used to greatly shake the earth and execute His righteous judgements. For this we were born and for this we have been prepared, tried and trained.

Soldiers of the Lion

The field is white and frosty, the hour is drawing near
The battle lines are being drawn as the hour of dawn appears
In the stillness of the morning, the air is crisp and charged
With the tension of the battle, and the enemy at large
The battlefield is crowded, but the soldiers here are few
Yet the enemy is held at bay, no weapon can get through
Our tiny band of warriors continue in our stand
And as new soldiers join us, we prepare to take the land

We form a line of conquest, like fire our armor shines
With unshakable advancement, we move against the lines
Our swords are drawn and ready, and our numbers grow each day
We'll soon be fully strengthened and we'll blow the troops away!

Chorus

We're the soldiers of the Lion, we're the army of the light
The unstoppable battalion that drives away the night
And the Lion is our standard, and we know we cannot die
'Cause the mighty name of Jesus is our sovereign battle Cry!

We move against the forces of the father of all lies
And the enemy is forced to flee before our very eyes
For no demon can resist us or begin to stand against
An army fully armored, no! Hell has no defense!
So look out powers of darkness, your hour has finally come
Our commander's name is Jesus, and we've got you on the run
And we'll charge you and we'll route you
With the Spirit's mighty sword
You've had this planet long enough,
You know you're not our Lord!
So get back to outer darkness, and you leave the saints alone
Your weapons cannot prosper, we're commissioned by the Throne!
