

Tearing Veils and Breaking Spells ~ Audio

I'm prompted to release this word before I do the final part three of The Pomegranate Bride and it came about because of a situation that arose with one of the Tip of the Spear company. And as we dealt with it privately, the Lord showed me that this is a microcosm of what is happening on a large scale with many of the remnant. So, there are two previous posts off my website, which you can also read that undergirded the revelation that came in the word I'm going to give you - those two articles are Ignited For Flight and Removing The Static. And you can find both of those on my website by going to any one of the posts, open the post and then on the right-hand side is a search function where you can type in the name of each of these articles.

So, after sharing with this particular tip of the spear saint, I saw a vision in front of me. What I saw was a whole lot of individual people that were at some distance from each other. They were not talking to each other or interacting with each other in any way, but they were just spread all out in front of my line of vision. And some of them looked like they were wrapped in bubble wrap. (You know, that wrap that you can put on your suitcases when you fly, to protect your suitcase). But as I got closer and looked at them clearly, I could see that what they had around their bodies were cobwebs, which had been spun all around their limbs, making it very difficult for them to move freely, make any progress, or in any way go forward. And as I looked even closer at their eyes, I saw that even some of the people's eyelids had spiderwebs, which had been spun connecting the two eyelids, so that they could open their eyes, but they were looking through a veil of spun web.

The Lord said to me that these cobwebs represented false prophetic words, false decrees, soulish prayers, soulish prophecies that were spun by the spin doctors of the Babylonian church system. And what happens is that when a word is released out of the human soul and does not originate from the throne of God, it spins a web or strands of witchcraft which impede and bind and imprison whoever they are being directed at. These strands of witchcraft words hinder free vision and free movement. And so, the Lord is saying that it is necessary to cut off all false prophetic words that have been spoken over you, to you or about you - right back to the day of your new birth. Cut off every word masquerading as a word from the mouth of God, whether it was released from a pulpit or from a prayer circle. You need to take the two-edged sword of the Spirit that divides between soul and spirit, the Word of God, and cut every single word which originated in the soul of man.; every syllable that carried soul power that was spun around you - because it has formed shackles that are preventing you from moving forward. Some of you have not understood why there is no seeming breakthrough; there's no progress, you can't seem to get in any kind of forward movement or any kind of breakthrough. And so, for some of you, the reason is these webs that have been spun around you. When you try to move forward, the cobwebs just stick to each other and hinder you even more.

We are in a time now when we need clarity as never before; clarity of spiritual sight and spiritual hearing and clarity of understanding. And there needs to be uninhibited Heavenly connection, but not to the second heaven. You need to be connected to the throne room of the Living God. And there must be no static, no interference, no crackle. There must be crystal clear communication and reception for your spiritual eyes and ears. Every frequency released over you which masquerades as a truthful utterance of the Spirit of God BUT that is NOT from the throne of God needs to be cut off. Every lying spirit that has bound you with its words, instead of releasing you by the sound of its voice, must now be silenced. And you need to release the sound of the Blood of the Lamb. The Blood speaks a better word than every other voice; the Blood of the Lamb decrees victory and liberty and wholeness.

In Isaiah 59, it describes a situation where it says: 'They conceive mischief and bring forth iniquity.

V5 'They hatch cockatrice eggs, and weave a spider's web. And he that eats of the eggs dies and that which is crushed breaks out into a viper. Their webs shall not become garments, and neither shall they cover themselves with their works. Their works are works of iniquity. Their feet run to evil. And they make haste to shed innocent blood. Their thoughts are thoughts of iniquity and wasting and destruction are in their paths. The way of peace they know not. They have made crooked paths, and whoever goes in those paths will not know peace'.

So, if you have found yourself not being able to find peace, not being able to find a straight path, perhaps it is because of the webs that have been spun around you in the spiritual realm. I asked the Lord why were only some of His people wrapped in these cobwebs? How did the others avoid the cobwebs? And He said to me, "They looked to My Word first. Those who place their faith in the words of man become ensnared." The Word of God says that the fear of man brings a snare, or a trap. I'd like us to just look at Ezekiel 13, because it speaks of the judgment of God upon the false prophets.

V2 Son of man, prophesy against the Prophets of Israel that prophesy out of their own hearts, thus says the Lord, 'woe to the foolish prophets who follow their own spirit and have seen nothing. The prophets have been like foxes among ruins. You have not gone up in the gaps, nor built up the wall for the house of Israel that it might stand in the battle in the day of the Lord.'

So, there we see the true function of a true prophet is to fill in the breaches in the wall and build up the house of God that it might stand in the battle in the day of the Lord, but these false prophets are prophesying out of their own minds and hearts.

V6 'they have seen falsehood and lying divination, saying the Lord says, but the Lord has not sent them. Yet they have hoped and made men to hope for the confirmation of their word. Have you not seen a false vision and not spoken a lying divination when you say the Lord says, although I have not spoken'.

So, we see that false prophets will very often speak a word that gives immense hope and joy. It's very flattering to the hearer. It's not something that is in any way abrasive or feels like it's challenging, but it just strokes the hearer - this is a sure sign - if it appeals to the flesh, it is highly likely that the prophecy is coming out of the person's own spirit and own imagination. True prophecy always challenges, always brings realignment to truth, always exposes areas that need dealing with, and always warns people to walk in the fear of the Lord.

Further down in Ezekiel 13, it says in verse 17, 'Son of man, set your face against the daughters of your people who prophesy out of the wishful thinking of their own minds and hearts, fastening magic charms to wrists and deceptive veils upon the heads of those, to hunt and capture human lives.'

So, we see that the false prophetic's goal is to ensnare human lives, to keep themselves alive. "Sow into my ministry. Sign up for my daily prophetic word. Receive my three-part exclusive revelation from the Throne Room of God and pay this much..." These people are spinning veils and cobwebs on people to keep themselves well-supported. Listen, remnant, you should not have to pay to receive a word from the throne of God. The true prophet is a bondservant of the living God, and he does not work for the salary of men.

Ezek 13:26 I am against your pillows and charms and veils with which you snare human lives like birds And I will tear them from your arms and let the lives you hunt go free, the lives you are snaring like birds. Your deceptive veils also will I tear and deliver My people out of your hand, and they will no more be in your hand to be hunted and snared. And then you will know that I am the Lord.'

So, these scriptures in Ezekiel 13 are scriptures you can decree, using the Word of God that is sharper than a two-edged sword, which divides between the soulish prophecy and the prophecy that comes from the Spirit of Truth. And you can declare that the Lord God is against those who've uttered such foolish prophecies; ones that you have unknowingly embraced somewhere along your journey. You can pray and decree that the deceptive veils over your eyes will be torn, according to Ezekiel 13:21.

I want to go back to what the Lord was saying about those who look to His Word first – these are the ones who escape being ensnared by cobwebs. And He showed me another picture and it was of horizontal blinds on a window. I was looking at the inside of the blind with the window behind it, and I saw a hand come from the outside and pull open a gap between the blinds. And a voice was whispering through the gap. And then immediately I saw that the horizontal blinds were actually the lines of text on the page in the Word of God. And it was as if God was whispering and adding comments between the lines, as the person looked first to the Word of God. And He said this: “I encounter my Beloved in the context of My Word. Through the window of what is written, I have open dialog with those who seek Me. ”

Now in Song of Songs, chapter 2, it says that her Beloved peers through the lattice of the window - she didn't encounter him first in the streets when walking the noisy thoroughfare. She sees him through the lattice, just like the lines of the Word on the blinds on the window. We see Him and hear His voice through the latticed window of His Word, and He opens up more understanding and personal application through His private whispers between the lines - and the framework of His written Word supports it. Without that framework, we are susceptible to the loose woman and the false prophetic described in Proverbs chapter seven; the spirit who seduces with stroking words and skilfully spins a web that is as strong as steel and leads to captivity.

So Precious Saints, if you feel that you're one of those that maybe have been ensnared by webs of witchcraft, soulish prayers, soulish prophecies, soulish decrees - even well-intended words from people who are doing it out of their own wishful imaginations, take this opportunity to cut them off in the Name of Jesus and let the frequency of the Blood be released to silence every word that is not a word of Truth over your life. I want to speak liberty and victory over you. I want to speak mobility and the ability to see and hear clearly in the Spirit, to be able to move forward and keep in step with the Spirit and I pray that every web that has been spun over your eyes to prevent you seeing the way in which you should walk or a turn you should take, would be cut off and broken and nullified now, in the name of Jesus. Amen.
