

The Keystone Put in Place

AUDIO VERSION

It is the 12th of November, and in my last message, I shared something about the whole climate change agenda. And as the Lord often does with me, He has me release a message and then the next message is one that He's given me quite a bit of time before - and this is the case here. On the 19th of September, I was watching the Queen's funeral (I didn't watch the whole thing because it was very long winded), but at some point, one of the officials removed the crown, the sceptre and the orb from her coffin, and it was also mentioned that she was in a lead coffin. And something I learned from the commentator was that a sceptre is an instrument of mercy. The crown is a sign of authority, and the orb is a depiction of Christ's rule of the whole earth with the leader of the British royal family as His appointed representative on Earth. So, they consider the leader of the British royal family (Now, at this point, it is King Charles III) to be God's representative, leading the WHOLE EARTH.

When I was watching that funeral, it really leapt out at me that she was in a lead coffin. I'll speak more about that later. But I, for some time have had a sense from the Holy Spirit that although King Charles has taken up his post as the new king of Britain, that he will not be long in that place of rule. The picture that the Holy Spirit gave me was that just as King David collected all the materials to build the temple, but God did not allow him to build it, but he collected and put everything in place so that when his son, Solomon, took over, he only had to follow the blueprints and the temple of God that would house the presence of God would be built because all the preparation work had been done. What the Holy Spirit said to me was that this was Charles's function. He was preparing and putting everything in place for his son to follow the blueprint. Many people have suggested that Prince Charles was a candidate for the Antichrist, because of being the Prince of Wales, whose emblem is the Red Dragon and because of his bloodline. However, there are 13 Illuminati bloodlines, and until Prince Charles married Diana, the Merovingian bloodline was not included. So, William, the first-born son of prince Charles and princess Diana is a carrier of all the 13 Illuminati bloodlines, and he is now the Prince of Wales and has the emblem of the Red Dragon. So, I just thought I would drop that in there.

Do you remember that I had the vision of the tiddledywinks being launched off the table, hitting a house of cards and it beginning to fold in on itself? Well, after hearing that the Queen was going to be buried in a lead coffin, the Lord took me to Zachariah 5, where it mentions a woman in a lead ephah. A few days after the funeral, I was instructed to read that chapter again. And in Zachariah 5:4, it says, 'and I will bring the curse forth. says the Lord of Hosts, And it shall enter the House of the thief and into the house of him who swears falsely by My name and it will abide in the midst of his house and shall consume it both its timber and its stones'. And the Lord God said this to me after I read that verse:

“It will not go well with the House of Windsor from here forward”.

The woman in the ephah is identified as 'wickedness' and a lead weight or lead is placed on top of her. Zachariah is told that this woman in the lead ephah is the symbol of sinners who swear falsely by His name. So, the ruler of the British royal family is considered the head of the Church of England. They therefore claim to be Christians, believing in Jesus Christ and His atonement for sin on the cross. However, King Charles has many times declared himself to be 'the defender of faiths'. And if you look in the right places on the Internet, you can find that the British royal family is deeply steeped in Freemasonry and occult rituals. In fact, Balmoral, (Bel-moral)the castle where the Queen died, is also the place where William was conceived. Bel - or Baal, is a demonic principality and Baal worship was one of the things that God judged His people Israel for entering into.

We had the Commonwealth Games with a giant metal bull, or Baal, opened by Prince Charles before the queen died -. and that was no accident. And King Charles is a fierce supporter of the climate change agenda. So, when God says 'those who swear falsely by My name are going to have their houses entered into by the curse', the British royal family is one of those houses, and that is why the Spirit of the living God says it will not go well with the House of Windsor from here forward. So, when the lid of the container is closed and the journey to Babylon begins, it is time for the house of wickedness to be built. The closing of the lid or the sealing of the coffin is a marker and an indicator that it is time for the house of wickedness to be built.

So, let's look at the true temple of God that was built. In the Holy of Holies, there is a golden vessel with 1/10 of an ephah of manna, which came supernaturally out of the sky to feed God's people in the wilderness. One tenth of an ephah is called an omer, and it is stored in the golden Ark of God's presence, under the mercy seat in the House of God. And the other house, the House of Wickedness that is to be built has an ephah full of wickedness, which is to be set up on its foundation. So, we have two opposing houses here. We have the real House of God, which is the house of those who fear the Lord, and we have the counterfeit House of the One World Religion, the house of those who swear falsely by God's name. If you've been following the news closely and are looking in the right places, (you can't use Google because they never take you to the right places), you will remember that there was a human fraternity document signed after the death of the Queen. It was exactly one week after the Queen's death that the seventh Congress of Leaders of the World and Traditional Religions was held in Kazakhstan, in the capital Nur-sultan, and 111 people attended. That is an occultic number. At that meeting, the human fraternity document was formally accepted. That is the signing into place of the One World Religion.

Now I'm going to do a message next time on the Abrahamic Worship Center that has been built in Saudi Arabia, but I just want to mention here that it is connected to this topic. There they are erecting a church, a mosque and a synagogue on the same piece of property – a 3 in one place of worship. But for now, what I want to mention in this message is the very significant things that are being put in place or celebrated in the year of 2022.

- We had the Commonwealth Games, as I mentioned, which celebrated Baal worship. (You do remember that the ceremony opening by Charles included worshipers in white surrounding this great iron bull).
- Also in 2022, the United Arab Emirates (Who are descendants of Ishmael) are celebrating their Golden Jubilee, and they celebrating this by the opening of the three in one Abrahamic Faiths center.
- We also had the Queen's platinum Jubilee in 2022
- Israel has entered a jubilee year in 2022.

So there is a number of Jubilee celebrations being held in 2022 in very significant places, and we must take note of them. At the Queen's Platinum Jubilee, she participated in the lighting of a Tree of Trees that was a big metal sculpture shaped like a DNA spiral, and on the ends of the spiral arms, there were 350 potted trees. The sculpture also contained 3500 lights. Now 350 is  $7 \times 50$ . 50 is the number of Jubilee. 3500 is  $70 \times 50$ . So once again, we see the emphasis on the word jubilee. I don't know if you've watched the video of the Queen pressing on the orb and the 3 stranded DNA was lit up and it ran and along lighting all the light circuits laid down, until it lit up the Tree of Trees, which is the counterfeit of God's Tree of Life.

The fact that those 350 trees were almost shackled in iron shackles on this great counterfeit DNA spiral that reared up into the sky speaks of bondage. I believe it was a demonstration (an announcement to those who had understanding) of what is going to happen with the switching on and the ramping up of the 5G signal as it connects to all those who have been shackled to the One World system by having the shot in the arm. The Bible refers to men as trees of the field. But here we have trees growing in metal pots like shackles shackled to this great DNA spiral that is artificial – and the monarch, the ruler on the English throne is somehow involved in the lighting up of this huge connected system.

The Spirit of God said to me that King Charles is a placeholder and that he will never be crowned. There is no coronation ceremony going to take place for him. And the Spirit of God likened him to a John-the-Baptist-type preparation role, where he will prepare the way for the coming of the false Christ. Now, John the Baptist had a six-month ministry before Jesus stepped up to begin His ministry. Six months roughly from the Queen's funeral takes us to Passover in 2023. I do not know if King Charles will pass away or if he will abdicate, but I believe what the Spirit of God said to me, that he is a placeholder.

He will not have an official crowning ceremony, but he is preparing the way for the false Christ.

Now, his coronation ceremony has been announced to be some sometime in May. I think it is around the 6th of May. I can't remember the exact date, but it is the day after the second Passover. And I want to point out here that you must take note of how they are using dates in the Orthodox Hillel calendar - the Great Reset Bunch and the One World Order people are linking their big events to the Orthodox Hillel calendar. The Queen's funeral was on the 19th of September, which was the day the firstfruits of the oil harvest was offered at the temple. It is called the Pentecost of Oil. The week of mourning that Prince Charles announced was the week of wood offering. That is when trees were chopped down and brought to the temple so that they could be used to keep the brazen altar fires going. The tree being chopped down speaks of judgment. And the end of the mourning period for the Queen was Rosh Hashanah, 5783, on the Orthodox Hillel calendar. Then we have them announcing King Charles's coronation to be taking place the day after the second Passover in 5783. So just as John pointed to Jesus, Charles will point to William. So, the flicking or launch of the tiddly wink that I saw is the send-off or the funeral of the Queen. Now, tiddledywinks is an idle occupation. This is how God sees the royalty of Earth, the kings of the Earth array themselves against Him, but he just laughs. He has already installed His Son on the Holy Mount of Zion.

Now, I might seem like I'm jumping around, but I'm wanting to connect dots. When the queen triggered the lighting of that three-stranded DNA lying on the ground (I think it was at Windsor Castle), she was pressing the Commonwealth globe and when she did that, fire torches were lit world-wide. Now, this was supposed to be because of her Jubilee celebration, but I want you to know that the lighting of those fire torches is an occultic ceremony summoning the powers of darkness. St Patrick - look up his life story on the internet and see how the pagan king was supposed to launch the initial lighting of a fire for pagan demonic ceremonies, and then other fires would be lit on other high places. But Patrick lit a fire in honor of God and pre-empted the king's lighting ceremony, and it led in the end to the king's conversion. Now, the Queen pressed the Commonwealth Globe, and I noted something - the Holy Spirit drew it to my attention. The Commonwealth countries are those that are most heavily regulated with the current rollout of the pharmakeia. We have the U.K., Canada and Australia. These are the largest countries that come under the British crown and they are regulating and oppressing their populations more than other areas. That lead ephah in Zechariah 5 had a base built especially for it in Sinar in Babylon - and that base is the revived Roman Empire. Charles is the defender of faiths and when he took his oath, when he became king, he swore to be faithful to the Anglican Church - but he was swearing falsely by the Name of God.

So I've been pondering on all those things that God had been connecting for me. Then, on the 11th of October. God said to me, "Go back to King Charles. He is the lynchpin". Now, I remember that word because Barack Obama once described himself as a lynchpin before, and so I had to look it up to see what it was. A lynchpin has synonyms which are 'keystone, base, foundation, cornerstone or driving force. So, the lead ephah went to be set up on its 'foundation'. You could say it's going to be set up on its lynchpin. God said to me that King Charles is the lynchpin. He's also the keystone. The keystone is a final stone in an arch, put in place and holds all the other stones in place and completes the arch. The Antichrist will walk through that archway that's being built. And then the Lord said something really shocking to me. He said, "The dragon, the beast with terrible teeth will enter through that portal fully constructed when the keystone is put in place, and a time of sorrows like no other will come down upon My Body. Pray that you may be counted worthy to escape these things and to stand before Me". And I said, "Lord, what of Charles?" He answered, "He will retire to his place at the top of the Masonic Arch". And then he intimated that the Israelis will embrace the Antichrist 'as the bloodlines are checked, as the carefully laid plot becomes visible'. And he referred to the Antichrist as "a cuckoo in the nest, embraced as a true son of Israel". Therefore, I really believe that the Holy Spirit is showing me that William, with his 13 Illuminati bloodlines, is a very strong candidate for the Antichrist. I know that many people have said that the Lord has showed them that Barack Obama is the Antichrist. To that, I have only to say that in the Book of Revelation there are two beasts that rise. One rises out of the sea of the nations and the other one rises out of the land. And it behoves us to go back to the Book of Revelation and study more closely what it says about the two different beasts, because the one beast makes everybody worship the other beast.

A lynchpin is that which serves to hold together parts or elements that exist and function as a unit. And as I was picturing that archway made of stones, which with the lynchpin or keystone right in the top of the archway, I saw faces on the other stones in the archway, but I could not see their identities. And then the Spirit said to me, “Look where the arch of Palmyra was erected. Archways or portals are built in those nations by people placed in ascending positions of power”. So, I looked up on the Internet where the digital arch of Palmyra was set up and it was very interesting. They set it up in a number of different places, starting in 2016. So, I'm just going to list here the ones I found and why the dates they set them up on were significant.

- in London in 2016, they set it up on Beltane, which is a pagan festival.
- In New York. They set it up on the fall equinox in 2016, which was the feast of Mabon, who is the Welsh God of darkness, war and death.
- Then they set it up in Dubai in 2017 for the World Government Summit
- and in Florence in March 2017 for the G7 summit.
- Then they set it up in Washington DC in September 2018, which was Tabernacles 5779.
- And then they set it up in Geneva, Switzerland, in April 2019, on the date of Passover.

The arch of Palmyra is actually the arch of Baal or Bel, which led to the Temple of Bel in Syria. So, the Holy Spirit said that the setting up of this digitally built arch of Palmyra was to announce and form portals in those particular nations. And what are the portals for? To open the door for demonic entities to come and rule in the earth. Remember that, the Lord said to me that when the final stone in the arch is placed; which is the keystone (or lynchpin), the Antichrist can walk through that archway.

So, I wanted to share those things with you. I know it's always difficult when a person shares something that messes with your theology and with your understanding of scripture. But I pray that it would really encourage you to go back to the Book of Revelation, go back to the Book of Daniel and read Scriptures again and ask the Holy Spirit to give you fresh understanding. I would also encourage you to look up the Abrahamic House of Faith. There are videos online of what it's going to look like when complete. 2022 is a pivotal year for the laying in place of the foundations for the House of Wickedness. We are of the House of those who fear the Lord, but the lead coffin, sealed as the queen was laid to rest, was an indication that the House of Wickedness is now going to be set up. Let's read again what the Lord said. He said, “The dragon, the beast with terrible teeth will enter through that portal, fully constructed, and a time of sorrows like no other will come down upon My Body. Pray that you may be counted worthy to escape these things and stand before Me”. Yes. Amen. And amen. Help us. Lord, help us to be counted worthy. Amen.
