

Moving Out of the Marketplace - audio

Good day, it's Fresh Oil Releases, and it's Friday, the 7th of January 2022. I had a very interesting dream in the early hours of this morning and I'm sensing an urgency to share it with you today. Although I haven't fully understood the whole content and revelation hidden in the dream. And an interesting thing is that the Lord had me put on my shoes before I started making this podcast, and he showed me the specific shoes to put on. They are silver shoes, closed toe flat leather shoes. Now God is a god of detail. And when I was putting these shoes on immediately, he reminded me of the Israelites who were instructed to eat the lamb on the first Passover with the staff in their hand. They launch girded and their shoes on their feet, in other words, ready to leave Egypt. And then the Lord pointed out to me the silver color of the shoes, and he took me to the scripture in Psalm 12, the sixth the words of the Lord of pure words like silver refined in an earthen furnace, purified seven times or purified completely. Now you will understand later on why the Lord chose these specific shoes. But he was also emphasizing, very importantly, that it's time for people to be dressed with their staff in their hand and their shoes on their feet. And he also reminded me of a word he had given me way back in 2015, I think it was it's called the shoes of the Gospel of Peace, and I will share more about this after I have told you the dream and show how it connects into what I'm going to share about the dream.

The kind of shoes you put on and being ready to leave Egypt are extremely important, and I do want you to go and look up. That message, 'the shoes of the gospel of Peace'. You will find it if you go to my website and on the storehouse page, download the Zip file archive of all my messages since 2005. In there you will find the shoes of the Gospel of Peace. And I will read a little bit out of it after I have shared the dream.

So, what I dreamt is this: I was meeting with a friend at a local market, the kind of market where they have little stalls, where you can buy different types of food to eat. And it was very full of people milling about. And as we were deciding what we were going to eat, the Internet went down. And as it did so, I remembered that the previous Sunday, I had had great trouble communicating with my daughter, who lives in North Africa, because of the internet connection. And as I looked around, I noticed that people were having to pay with cash for the food they wanted to buy because the card machines were no longer working as the internet was not available.

But in spite of the internet going down, the market continued. People continued deciding what to eat as if nothing had happened. And I said to my friend, "Should we not leave now? There's so many cars in the parking lot and there's going to be such a traffic jam trying to get out if we wait until everybody leaves". And she said, "No, we're here now. Let's get something to eat. And as we turned around, another lady came towards us, a sister in the Lord, who we hadn't seen for a very long time. I did not recognize her in the dream, but she greeted us excitedly and said it was lovely to see us, and we all three went and sat at a long table that had benches, one long bench on either side of the table for people to sit at. And I noticed that on the other side of the table opposite us, there were three people who had just received plates of food. But what was on their plates with different shaped and colored stones? And the lady directly opposite me was looking at her stone. Each person had one stone on their plate and she was looking at her stone as if it was something incredibly beautiful to behold. It was some kind of sedimentary rock with a lot of horizontal lines on it. And I turned to the lady next to me that we had bumped into and said to her, "Have you been following the information about the end times?", and she said, no, she hadn't.

And I said to her, "Have you heard of the new world order? It has been said that they are going to turn the internet off for a few days and when they turn it back on, the new system will have been installed and the new world order will have begun". And then I got up and I said to the friend I had come to the market with, we need to go now. And we went outside the market area and there was a large crowd of people standing, all bunched together. They looked like a herd of sheep, but they you didn't notice any distinction of color of clothing or different hair colors or anything. It just looked like a whole lot of identical sheep. They didn't look like sheep. They looked like people, but you couldn't tell the difference between them. There was a oneness about them, and we stood at the back of this group who was gathered behind a gate and they were waiting for permission to go through the gate. And after a few minutes of standing there, I said, "I'm not waiting anymore!" And I went around to the front of the crowd of people and saw that the gate was so low that it only came to halfway up one's shins and could easily be stepped over. But these people were obediently standing there as if it was impossible to leave without somebody else's permission. So, I climbed over the gate and I said, I am not waiting until they open the gate. And the man who was in charge of the gate said to me, "If you leave before you have permission, it's on your own head". And I said to him, "I'm thirty five and I think I'm old enough to make my own decisions".

The other thing I want to mention to you, is that when we were standing at the back of the crowd of people for a few minutes, on the road in front of the gate, a very large fire engine went past, with all its sirens flashing, rushing towards a fire. And I said to my friend, "There you see, fires are already breaking out because the internet has gone down".

What I have understood so far from the dream is that it has multiple layers of revelation, both in the natural level and in the spiritual level, so let's first deal with the natural level. The Bible speaks about people going around doing what they always do, buying and selling, and then suddenly the day of the Lord comes upon them. Going to markets is quite a common pastime among modern people when they want to do something for relaxation. And. In real life yesterday, I had great trouble communicating with my daughter because of the poor internet connection. And then I had this dream early the next morning.

So, this is a clue as to when the timing of the internet being switched off is going to happen when there is severe trouble with the internet connections on a Sunday in the week following that, the internet is going to be switched off. The other thing that went through my mind when I was standing in the market, seeing someone paying with cash was a moment of panic and fear, having complete understanding of the times and what was unfolding and wondering if I had prepared enough and if I had drawn enough cash to have on hand because the ability to pay for things with one's card would no longer be available. So, what the Lord is saying is that it is important to have cash on hand because when this happens, the only warning you're going to have is that on a Sunday, the internet connections are going to be very difficult intercontinentally, and that is a sign that very, very soon there is going to be no internet available - by which time, if on that Sunday you are having that terrible trouble with the internet connections, you need to go and withdraw some more cash. The other thing that was alluding to the signs of the times in the natural is the herd of people standing at the gate, these people seemed to have no mind of their own. They had become a crowd of people that seemed to be all the same, meekly submitting to a very low obstacle that had been put in front of them and not thinking for themselves that they could quite easily leave - even a child could have stepped over that gate. They could quite easily leave if they wanted to. And this spoke to me of the large mass of people that have submitted to the injections and to the restrictions that have been placed upon them and are not thinking for themselves that it's more important to urgently get home or to get where they're going, but to just stand and do something that is completely illogical (and we find this type of mass hypnosis is happening worldwide with people concerning various mandates, various rules...) Now you can sit inside, now you can sit outside. Now you can have 10 people together. Now you can have 100 people together and the rules change all the times. All the time and people just submit to it mindlessly. But in this case, when that internet goes down, it is very important to get where you knew you should be going because what's in front of you is not a good scenario. The fire engine going past could refer to fires in the natural breaking out at installations that are overheating because computers are not functioning properly, or it could also refer to spiritual fires of judgment breaking out.

Now I want to talk about the plates of stones that were dished up for food. Remember that in the scriptures it says about being baptized in the Holy Spirit, it says if you ask your father for a fish, he will not give you a stone. And how much more will He not give the Holy Spirit to those who ask Him? The fact that these people were being dished up stones and this woman was enraptured with her stone tells us that the plate of food that was being served to these people did not originate in the Father's kitchen or from Heaven. In other words, there was no nourishment in it. And yet this woman was studying the lines on her stone as if there was revelation to be received in it. Line upon line, precept upon precept. So that tells me that the market with all these little stalls for food also symbolizes spiritually the different places gathered together, mostly on the internet that Christians can go to, to get food. And what the Lord is saying is that there is going to be a large number of places serving up stones instead of real food because the Spirit of the Lord will have left the building, so to speak.

The friend who I went to the market with has a name that I don't want to share with you for privacy's sake, but her name means 'my people'. So, my friend and I at this market of food stalls represents God's people. And I think I represent the remnant who has understanding of the times, because I was the one who knew we ought to leave, otherwise, we were going to get caught in a traffic jam. And I also knew that we shouldn't be ordering food. And the lady who I asked the questions of had absolutely no understanding of the times, and she represents quite a large percentage of the current Body of Christ who have no understanding of the times, and therefore they are milling about, ordering a little bit to eat at the stall, a little bit to eat at that stall, sitting down at long tables and excitedly exclaiming over food that is served up - it is absolutely without life or nourishment of any sort. Now, that is why it is important that the Lord emphasized to me my message, 'the shoes of the gospel of peace' and having the right shoes on your feet. So let me read a little bit for you from this message called 'The Shoes of the Gospel of Peace':

The Lord gave me a very short flash dream in the early hours of the morning, and what I saw was someone needing to put on a pair of shoes and this person was trying to slide their feet into a French loaf - one of those long, narrow breads that the French people make. It had been hollowed out and the ends cut off for the toes to stick through. And they were trying to put their foot into that loaf of bread, to use it as a shoe, but the bread or strap broke over the top of the arch of the person's foot. It was really a strange thing to see. And the Lord said to me, "It is time to put on the shoes of the gospel of peace, but My people do not know how to put them on". And when I asked what the loaf of bread meant, He reminded me of the two men at Emmaus after Jesus' resurrection and how their eyes were opened to see Him in the breaking of bread. The word 'Emmaus' means 'hot spring or hot or a day' in Hebrew. So, in essence, the town Emmaus is symbolic of the Day of the Lord and the Lord's disciples having their eyes opened to see Him in the breaking of bread. And as soon as their eyes were open to see Him, they arose and went back to their brethren and shared what they had seen and heard. When I asked why the bread had broken over their feet, the Lord said their feet were the wrong shape. The arches were too high and they had fashioned the bread shoes for themselves. In other words, out of the bread of the Word, they had made their own style of shoes, cutting them to suit themselves and their own doctrines.

And the Lord emphasized that this is really to do with pride, when we fashion things after our own imaginations and our own understanding, instead of walking out what God has provided. The Lord said to me that the shoes of the gospel of peace are closed shoes, shoes that are closed over the toes and they are needed in these days because the enemy will try to reverse what has been done in Genesis 1 and will operate in a counterfeit of Genesis 1. And instead of saying 'let there be light', he is wanting to release darkness in the form of dark matter through the rent veil caused by CERN.

Now I'm going to stop there, I really want you to read the whole of that message the Shoes of the Gospel of Peace. But suffice to say that the silver closed-toe shoes that the Lord had me put on this morning are a direct contrast to that market where there are dozens of stalls with any kind of food to tickle your taste buds; all fashioned after people's own liking, to suit their personal tastes and just tastes. And the Lord is saying that there is no nourishment to be found there anymore. And it is time to come away from there. And to walk in the shoes of the gospel of peace, where the Lord is the way, the Truth and the Life, and there is no other gospel - there is a full stop after He says 'the way, the truth, the life'. He's not whatever you want Him to be in whatever shape you want Him to be and whatever name you want to be used. Yahweh, the ever living and one true God, has one son, Yeshua, Jesus Christ. And He is the only Name under heaven by which men might be saved.

There is also another message that I shared that followed The Shoes of the Gospel of Peace, and it's called Noah and the Ark of His Presence. You will also find that in the archive of all my messages. It also refers to the shoes made out of French loaf and what God is saying. So, it's very important that in my dream, my friend and I did not order food at the market. We only witnessed other people being served up stones that they exclaimed over. And there was an URGENCY in my spirit to get home.

I am reminded now as I speak of another message that I shared some time ago. It is called Separating Light From Darkness. And in that message, I shared about a couple in Israel who lived in the place. Ein Kerem, where John the Baptist was born. Under their living room floor, there was discovered a mikvah ritual bath (which was a stone bath in which the Jews used to cleanse themselves for religious purposes). In other words, it was connected with spiritual cleansing. This couple had no idea this was under their living room floor. But suddenly, when they were doing renovations, they discovered this baptismal pool in their own home. And in the message Separating Light From Darkness, the Lord really emphasized. That it was a picture of having a spring of living water to drink from within your own house, within your own home, in your own tent or the body that God has given you to live in. There is a river of living water which you should be able to drink from. I would encourage you to read that word , and to understand that the Spirit of the Living God Himself in these days is wanting to minister to you as you sit and behold Him, with the Word of God that is silver refined seven times before you. You do not need to go to the market and find something to eat and study stones with line upon line upon them, where there is no nourishment because the Spirit of the Living God is within you and wanting to wash you and cleanse you with the living waters that come from Jesus Christ Himself.

When I had the dream of the market, the whole dream where the market area took place was very dimly lit, it was actually quite dark, and you couldn't make out a lot of detail. There were a lot of people milling about, it was very busy, it was very noisy, but THERE WAS NOT A LOT OF LIGHT. And He who is the Light of the world, He who is the Light of the heavenly city, the Lamb is within you and His Spirit of Truth is wanting to lead you into all truth.

The Lord is warning that at this time, there is not a lot of nourishment found out there in the marketplace of the Christian food stalls. So don't go shopping from stall to stall for something that will tickle your fancy and appeal to your taste buds. Go home and sit before the Lord yourself with the Word that has survived generations and ministered to generations of saints and imparted life and given them courage and strength to stand. That same Word is available to you and the same Spirit of Truth that broke the bread of the Word and opened the eyes of the disciples to see Jesus is still with you, wanting to minister like truth and direction to you in these days.

So, saints, put your shoes on, get your staff of the Word of Life in your hand and feast on the Lamb. You're enduring the night of watching; waiting for God's signal to leave Egypt and the Babylonian system forever - but until the moment He does so, we have to be correctly clothed, have our feet correctly shod and not be shopping in the marketplace of the Babylonian system! God does not want His people there milling about looking for food. GO HOME. Let Him feed you, let Him lead you. Those Israelites who each waited in their own houses under the blood, prepared and waiting for the signal and the word to move, marshalled, out of Egypt. The whole of the second watch of the night was a waiting period of feasting on the lamb and waiting until the moment of release. And it was only when a great wailing broke out in the land of Egypt because the destroyer had passed over, that the Word came to get out. And it is in the midst of a very great weeping and mourning in the world and in the world system that the people of God will move out of Egypt with the shoes of the gospel of peace on their feet and the staff of the bread of life in their hands - and their stomachs full of the revelation of the Lamb of God that takes away the sins of the world.

So, precious friends in the Lord, make sure you have cash on hand, have understanding of the times, know that the internet is going to suddenly not be available, and go to the Source of living water. He is well, able to feed you within from your own Word. Stay away from the marketplace. Don't be swallowing stones.

Selah.
