

Scrolls for My Jewels (12th Oct 2022)

AUDIO VERSION

Precious remnant,

I wasn't really expecting to be doing another message this quickly, but the Lord had other plans and He is downloading so much revelation (and I've had people contacting me with other puzzle pieces), so it's putting together a picture which I really would like to share. Today is the 12th of October 2022. The Orthodox are in the midst of their Tabernacles, but for those who are following the early barley-ripeness calendar, we're in the eighth month and we're heading towards the end of Noah's transition week, which will end on Friday the 14th October. Do you remember that last time the Lord said to me that there would be new assignments being handed out, that He's moving me from being a watchman to being a warrior? I mentioned that it was something that others would be called to warrior positions as well, because the Lord said war is coming to our own front doors. So, it's not just happening with me - it's a widespread thing across the remnant company, and it's very important to remember that you are a spiritual warrior and not a warrior that goes out in the flesh and battles in the flesh, because we don't wrestle against flesh and blood.

So, after I shared that message, the Lord had me look at David. He had highlighted David and Jonathan to me and a certain incident that happened in 1 Samuel 20, and He started speaking to me about those who have hearts after the heart of David (which is a heart after God's own heart), specifically those who joined David and left the Company of Saul. In 1 Samuel 20, it explains that there was a new moon festival and David was hiding because Saul was wanting to kill him. And he and Jonathan had made a plan that David was to hide for three days. He would not appear at the New Moon Festival, and Jonathan was basically going to suss out Saul's attitude towards him, and then if it was not good; if he was still murderous towards David, they had a secret signal that they had arranged that Jonathan was to give David and he would know that he must flee. So, in 1 Samuel 20, it explains that David's seat next to King Saul was empty. In other words, he was given the seat of the firstborn son. Jonathan's seat was opposite his father and David had been elevated to such a position in Saul's company that next to the King was his seat - and it was empty. And Saul assumed that David was unclean and that he would come the next day.

Now, a very important thing to note here is the only time there is a two-day new moon festival is at Rosh Hashanah, the head of the year. All the other new moon festivals are for one day; when they blow the shofar and worship the Lord.

But this was a two-day festival. Therefore, it pinpoints the timing. It was the beginning of a new Hebrew year, and David did not appear on the second day of the feast. And then Saul was extremely angry, accusing Jonathan of siding with David, and even threw a spear at his own son! Jonathan knew that it was very serious and he needed to tell David to get away. And he also did not eat anything from his father's table on the second day of the feast. Then he went out at the pre-arranged time, and the signal he'd arranged with David was that David was to hide at the Stone Ezer, which means 'departure'. And then Jonathan would shoot arrows, and then he'd send his little servant (a young boy) to fetch them. And if he said the arrows are to the side of you, it was safe for David to come out. But if he said, "The arrows are ahead of you", David was to flee. So, the Lord began to speak to me about this being a prophetic picture of the Endtime Remnant and the tip of the spear company and what God's plans are for them. And what the Lord showed me was that David did not celebrate Rosh Hashanah and the New Moon Festival for the start of the year with Saul's household. He did not eat at the table of Saul ever again. There came the separation between the Saul Company and the David Company, and it was PERMANENT.

And this is where he departed from the House of Saul. And the Lord spoke to me about this present beginning of this Hebrew year 5783 being the time the tip of the spear company (those with the heart of David) now separate completely and utterly from the House of Saul. And they will never celebrate the new moon festivals with the House of Saul EVER AGAIN. AS Enoch said to me in a recent post, "What is past is behind you and will never be again". There are tables you have feasted at that you will never return to; people you have celebrated feasts with that you will never celebrate with again...

The other thing that was very prophetic was that it was a manchild that was sent to fetch the arrows by Jonathan, and the signal that David was to flee was 'the arrows are ahead of you'. And the Lord said to me, "My arrows are ahead of the rest of the Body. They must flee. There has been a death assignment released against them by the Spirit of Saul, and never again can they eat with the Saul Company because murder is upon the heart of Saul". Yes, Beloved, some are so angry that you did not celebrate the orthodox feasts with them that murder is upon their hearts and this launches demonic assignments against you as they mutter about you behind their backs!!

So, David fled and he left as he was. (You have what you have. It has begun!) He hadn't any extra clothing or weapons or provision. So, what he did was he went to the city of Nob, to the priests there. That was where the priests lived. And he asked the priest on duty, Ahimalech, to please give him provision - five loaves of bread for himself and his men. And the priests said the only thing there was was the showbread that was being taken out of the Holy Place, as it was to be replaced with fresh loaves on the Sabbath.

So, we know David was there on the Sabbath and David assured him that he and his men were in a right state to receive the showbread. He also asked the priest if he had any weapons, and the priest said he had the sword of Goliath that David had used to cut off Goliath's head in a battle of many seasons before. So, we see that although David and the men with him did not ever eat at the table of Saul again, they were fed with the showbread, five loaves of the Bread of the Presence (That's what the Hebrew is for 'Showbread', 'the Bread of the Presence'). This bread had been saturated with the light of the menorah for a whole week. and was meant to be the food of the priests, but it was given to David and his men.

So, David fled from the death assignment of Saul, but received five loaves of the Bread of the Presence and a giant sword. And this speaks to me of being imbued with new weapons, weapons for a new season. And they are powerful, large weapons. They are weapons that used to belong to the enemy. And they've been used once in the past to deal with a Goliath in our lives, but never again because they were kept at the temple. So, as the tip of the spear company, we are foregoing the banquets of the Saul Company and the House of Saul. But in exchange, we are receiving five-fold of the Bread of the Presence; bread that is saturated in the seven lights of the Holy Spirit revelation that is chock-full of nourishment, and weapons that are much larger and more powerful than anything we ourselves have – much more powerful than our own weapons in the old season.

I just want to confirm for you the need in this new season of becoming warriors, of getting new weapons that have been held in store for this day. What does it say? Our inheritance is stored beyond the reach of change or decay; stored up in heaven for us. Part of what has been held back and kept for us are large, powerful weapons that the enemy used to use to wreak havoc on the people of God. And now we are being given them as part of our weaponry in this new season. I had a dream about two or three days ago, where I went into a shed on a property. It was like a shed a farmer would park his tractors and all his tools in, and there were a heap of tools lying on the workbench. Strangely, they were all painted a faded red color. There were pliers and wrenches and goodness knows what. (I don't know too much about men's tools LOL), but as I was looking at these faded red tools I saw out the corner of my eye a man come onto the property and he looked like he was up to no good.

So, I picked up one of the faded red hammers and I went and stood at the door and I commanded him to get off the property - but he took no notice of me. And then I walked towards him and I began hitting him with that faded red hammer and praying in tongues. Rebuking him. And he just laughed. Then he took both my wrists and held them, took the hammer out of my hand, and began to gently tap me with it, showing me that it actually was having absolutely no effect.

When I woke up, the Lord said that those old weapons with the faded red color were weapons of a past season, and they will have no effect on the enemy assignments of a new season that are sent against us. We need new weapons for a new season. And David received his new weapon in the season where death assignment had been released against him. He received a very large and a very powerful new weapon, and he received bread that he had never had access to before. So, I want you to know that in the season of you being a warrior of God, there is stored up revelation and information, counsel and knowledge and understanding that has been stored up for this very time you are entering into. And there is weaponry that you don't consider to be yours, but it is going to be put into your hands – it is for you, to be used in battle, both for protection and as an offensive weapon, and it's going to be very powerful against the enemy.

So, we see that from this particular new Hebrew year in David's time, he began an existence of fleeing from the death assignments of Saul, and those were released because of hatred and because of jealousy. And the Lord wanted me to tell you that the enemy is releasing a death assignment against a righteous remnant after the heart of David. Remember the dragon wanting to slay the manchild and then releasing a flood to kill the fleeing woman in Revelation 12? There you have it! But there is not only a death assignment against you, when Saul heard that David had been given the showbread AND also Goliath's sword, he was extremely angry and he called the priest who had done this and his whole family, brought him before him, and Saul commanded his servants to kill them. And his servants, the servants of Saul would not kill them. But there was a man called Doeg the Edomite. Edom means 'red', and it speaks of the flesh. This was a fleshly man, a soulish man. And he had seen David get the sword of Goliath. So, when Saul said to him, "Rise up and slaughter these priests", he very gladly did it. In verse 17 of 1 Samuel 20, there was a death assignment released against an innocent and righteous priesthood, and they were slaughtered; men, women and children. Doeg, the Edomite, was a man of the flesh and of the enemy bloodline. The Edomites were the enemies of the people of Israel.

And so, I believe we are entering into a season where persecution and martyrdom is coming; often on orders from governmental places. Spies will report on movements like Doeg the Edomite did and it will trigger great persecution. Sometimes it also falls on those who are linked to aiding and helping those who are with the company of David. Amazingly, in that terrible slaughter, one son of the priest, Alimelech, escaped. So, we see that a remnant escapes this slaughter. He fled to join those who had separated from Saul and were following David. And in verse 23, we read that David said to him, "With me, you will be safeguarded". And very importantly, he brought the priestly ephod with him. So, the ephod was no longer in the temple. Remember, that ephod had a little pocket that had the urim and the Thummim inside; which the high priest used to determine God's will in situations. In other words, the ability to understand and get counsel from God was taken away from the House of Saul and given to the House of David and the men who were with David. Not long after this, Saul consulted a witch and God turned from him.

When I read about that one son escaping - a remnant, it likened it for me to Revelation 12 when the dragon was wanting to slay the woman, but she was taken to a place prepared and she was kept safe and fed. So, in another message, I'm going to be speaking more to you about what God did with David and the men who joined him. But today, I want to add something else to this message that is foundational to what we're going to share in the future.

So yesterday morning, I went out into my garden and my apple trees had finally begun to blossom. We've had very strange weather. One day it's summer, one day it's winter. And all the fruit trees have been very confused; they didn't really know whether it was spring or wasn't in our part of the world. But today I saw on my one tree that three little baby apples had begun to form, and I was so excited. What was really interesting was it was the tree that usually wakes up last after winter that had these new apples and the other two trees that normally wake up much quicker and get their fruit setting much quicker were still just beginning to blossom. In fact, the one that is called Early Red hasn't even produced a blossom yet. So very interesting... There seems to be a change of order. Those you think are early fruiterers a way behind and lagging, and the ones who seem to formerly be very sleepy and slow on the uptake now have understanding of the times and have quickly set their fruit. The last will be first!

When I looked at those three new baby apples, the Lord reminded me of my message about receiving individual scrolls from the breath of the Bridegroom and the word 'tappuach', which is the word for 'apple tree' coming from the root word, 'puach' meaning 'breath'. I had spoken about the Scripture in Song of Songs 8, 'under the apple tree I awakened you' and how the Lord had a special message and a blueprint to release individually to people. So, the Lord connected me again to that message. And then He said, "Fresh breath from the Bridegroom for a warrior company has been released”. There are new scrolls coming. We receive them by faith and we must lay aside the old words for the old season. You know those old scrolls and blueprints of the past season? We have come to know them so well that the scroll has almost become one with our hands as we have studied them and chewed them and come to understand what it is God was saying. But now, Lord, grant us grace to let the old scroll go and to fully embrace the new scrolls that are being released, the new blueprints and the words of His lips that are falling like dew for each of us. The Lord said to me,

a warrior word &
a warrior way.”

And then I had a closer look at those baby apples, and I noticed that they have little crowns on top of them, almost like pomegranates. And the Lord said, “Yes, the new scrolls; the Warrior Scrolls are about kingly anointing. It is kings who go to war. And there is kingly authority coming for kingly battle in these new scrolls.” So, the important thing is to let go of the old, so that we can fully receive the new. You know, if our hands are full of words from an old season of preparation, there's no way that we can receive something new. We have to lay aside the old and fully embrace the new. And the interesting thing about a scroll is that it's normally sealed when it's given. The seals have to be broken and it has to be unrolled, unfurled, before we can read and receive what's been imparted on it. And it is the same with the little apple - the blossom has been fertilized and the apple begins to form, and in that apple is the full DNA for a great big juicy apple that can be picked and enjoyed, but it's NOT FULLY VISIBLE YET. And so it is by faith that we put out our hands and receive what the Lord is imparting for the new season. The Lord reminded me about Joshua, the high priest in Zechariah 3, who received a change of garment and turban. But that was just the FIRST STAGE of transformation for a new calling and a new positioning. Joshua was to depict the Melchizedek priesthood. And the second stage was that a crown had to be placed on his head. You can read that in Zechariah 6:12 and 13. The Lord said he was to rule from a seated position on his throne, which speaks of a kingly anointing, and the Lord said, "Behold the man whose name is the Branch" – a king and a priest upon a throne.

So that there is a kingly anointing being released on God's warriors, and it's part of the scroll that is being imparted. Now when I read that Scripture, 'behold the man whose name is the Branch', I was reminded of my word at the beginning of the New Year for the Barley Company, called 'The Heavens Declare', and also, in 'A Word for the Early Ones' (released on Yom Kippur for the barley harvest calendar). I spoke of the Constellation Spica, which is a sheaf in the hand of Virgo or Bethulah; the Virgin, and I mentioned that, that particular star Spica, used to be called Tsemach, which is 'the branch'. So, the Lord got me to read those posts again and I was actually astonished because I saw that God said a whole lot more than I initially realized at the time. He has been leading us step by step without our realizing it into this time of transformation - for me, from a watchman position to a warrior position, I don't know what you were doing before, but transformation is involved in moving position and moving function. In 'The Heavens Declare', I included a picture for you to see that in October, Venus and the Sun travel all the way down the left arm of Bethulah, until they are very close to Spica (Tsemach, the Branch) on the 13th of October, 2022. That's tomorrow!

I quote: 'All three are gathered together in the left hand, almost like a conference or a meeting together. This is halfway through the Feast of Tabernacles in the Orthodox calendar, and these three planetary bodies would be so close together that they would be seen as one body. In fact, the brilliant light of the sun would completely veil both Spica and Venus, the morning star. It would be like a clothing-over or a transfiguration, with garments of vastly superior light'. So that was the picture that I shared was taken of what the constellation would be like at 5h10pm in the evening on the 13th of October 2022. To continue: 'Revealing Himself in the way that is depicted in the heavens on this particular day seems to involve manifesting the glory of the light of Christ clothing both the Branch and the Morning Star - and for the rest of the Orthodox Feast of Tabernacles, these three heavenly bodies remain very close together, bathed in glorious light. But the woman's body is not getting the same exposure to the light'.

So, we see here that there is a company called the Branch that is being clothed in the glory light of God, when the Bethulah, the Virgin Bride, is not being clothed in glory. They are forerunners, they are ahead, like 'the arrows are ahead of you'. SO its time to flee is basically what Jonathan said to David.

There is a company that receives the clothing with glory light before the rest of the Body does. And in 'A Word for the Early Ones', part of what the Lord said to me was He was speaking about His 'keliy' which means 'weapon of war, implement or jewel' and God was speaking about His jewels; His weapons of war... I would really encourage you to go back and listen to it again. He said, "My pressed ones; the highly polished arrows, My Ben Shemesh (or Sons of Oil) are held as a standard in the midst of the unclean generation". And then He said, "Release, release, release, release angelic guard, release finance for the journey, release fire to ignite". So those releases are part of the Warrior Scroll, for the kingly anointing that is being imparted at this time. And remember, I've just said that Spica (or Tsemach) stays bathed in the light of the sun for the rest of orthodox Tabernacles (for the next few days), and I find it so interesting that it overlaps with the day that Noah got sealed into the ark for the early barley calendar watchers - because the glory light is a protection as well as a provision for war and for bringing about kingdom purposes.

This morning, I received a call from one of my subscribers who's really become a friend, and in the course of our having some sweet fellowship, she prayed over me a verse from Song of Songs 1:2 'Let him kiss me with the kisses of his mouth.' And as she prayed that, I was suddenly reminded by the Holy Spirit that the word for 'kiss' in Hebrew also means 'to equip with weapons'. Do you remember in the Legion of Heavy Hitters message that I referred you to in my last post, all those soldiers were putting on their armour, strapping on their weapons. But here in Song of Songs 1:2, we see that the weapons are imparted by the kisses of the mouth of the Bridegroom. And that takes us back to Song of Songs 8, where we read 'under the Apple Tree...' He awakened us. When He kisses us with the kisses of His mouth, when He breathes upon us and speaks with us intimately, He's imparting to us weapons; new weapons for a new season - weapons of vastly superior size and power for the season that we're going into.

One of the things this precious friend shared with me, and I'm sure she won't mind me sharing it with you, was that the Lord gave her a number in the last couple of days (He always speaks to her with numbers) and it was the number 1221. And when she looked it up, the H1221 in the Strong's Concordance, it means 'a fortress or an inaccessible spot', which speaks of absolute safety. Noah, sealed in the ark, was in a fortress, completely protected. And I looked into that word and it comes from a root word, which means 'gold defence', and then this comes from another root, which means 'to be isolated by height or fortification, to be fenced in or defenced'. So completely are we going to be protected! And then when she was studying this word, she heard the words 'fitted fortress'. In other words, a fully equipped fortress, just like Noah's Ark was fully equipped for the journey ahead when he was sealed into it. And so, this impartation of warrior scrolls we are receiving is to fully fit us out and equip us, because we are His weapons. We are His jewels. Remember in Malachi 3, it speaks about those who fear the Lord, and the Lord writes their names in a Book of Remembrance. And then He says, “And they will be my jewels in the day I openly display them”. Not only will they be My jewels, but they will be My weapons of war. So, understand that not only are you a soldier and a warrior, but you are a weapon of war in the Lord's hand as His jewel.

And then just to finish off this wonderful treasure hunt the Lord had me on today - with different people bringing different confirmations to show me what the message was, somebody sent me a message by Byron Searle about the Lord's jewels. So I have also included that at the bottom of this transcript, along with the youtube links. The Lord is confirming the time of equipping His warriors; the time of making them ‘fitted fortresses’, fully equipped for the season ahead, is at hand. You have a new scroll! Eat that scroll! As you unroll and the Spirit opens it up to you, it has the blueprint and the DNA to fully equip you and impart to you everything that you need to face the season ahead with victory and joy, as an overcomer.

The Hebrew word for ‘kiss’ doesn't only mean ‘to equip with weapons’, it also means ‘armed men’. So, the legion of hard hitters is really a room full of kisses; The Lord's kisses - His armed warriors which He is releasing - like the mighty men of David, into the earth. They are fitted fortresses completely and utterly equipped, clothed within and without to be victorious in the season ahead.

Now, many people have said to me, “Oh, I don't feel like a warrior. I'm not really sure I'm equipped” or “I'd like to be a warrior, but I don't really think I am...” And I want to remind you that when David fled from Saul, he escaped to the cave of a Adullam. 1 Sam 22:1,2 'And when his brothers and all his father's house heard he was there, they went there to him. And everyone in distress or in debt or discontented gathered to him and he became a commander over them. And they were with him about 400 men'. That's quite a lot of distressed people in debt. But I wanted to say to you, that description doesn't sound like mighty men. It doesn't sound like warriors. It sounds like David and his family and his father's house came together, and then a whole lot of people whose lives were a shambles joined him... And these are the ones that God made into Mighty Men of Valour. So, I want you to know that when you are receiving the impartation of the scroll with this kingly anointing therein, God is going to make you into a mighty man of valour, just like he made Gideon into one. And it's not going to look like what the world thinks a warrior looks like. Remember, Gideon's battle plan had nothing to do with earthly weapons. They had torches and shofars, and yet the enemy was utterly destroyed with God's kingdom blueprint for war. And so, these are the kind of things that God is going to be using His warriors for, because His wisdom is high above man's wisdom. His ways are not our ways, and He's always three steps ahead of the enemy. Not only that, the angelic army is working with you! So, when God tells you, "Get up and go and stand on that street corner at 6 p.m. and blow your shofar and then go home", do it because it's part of a battle plan. When He says to you, "Purchase this and give it to that person and tell them such and such..." you are partaking in Kingdom Battle plans .You might not see the full map of the battle plan rolled out, because God keeps his cards very close to His chest. He doesn't want the enemy to see the battle plans, and that's why He uses different warriors for different sections of the battle plan. But God's battle plans always destroy enemy positions. So, it doesn't matter if you look like these men who went and joined David in the cave. God sees you as a mighty warrior because He knows what your warrior scroll says about you. He knows what the kingly anointing will impart to you. And He considers you one of His jewels. So lay aside the scroll of the past season. Let it go and put out your hands in faith and receive the impartation and the conception of the new blueprint into your spirit, even though you can't read it yet because it's rolled tightly shut and sealed. Just receive it and the Holy Spirit will open it and unfold it step by step for you. And as He does so, you will be kissed with the kisses of His mouth and receive and be equipped with weapons for the battle ahead. Hallelujah!

Malachi 3:17 And they shall be mine, saith the Lord of hosts, in that day when I make up my jewels; and I will spare them, as a man spareth his own son that serveth him.

I was given this dream from the Lord on February 1, 2019 at 1:00 a.m. Almost one year later on January 3, 2020, the Lord gave me the message, 'My Jewels', in which He speaks about the dream. After receiving the dream, I was awakened and directed by the Lord to write it all down. I was not led to post or to send it out at that time as I knew there was more that the Lord would speak to me about this dream. The Lord brought this dream back to my remembrance recently. After praying about it, He has led me to share both the dream and the word at this time. This is what the Lord spoke to me: My son, THE REMNANT ARE MY JEWELS - - the same as I have shown you in the dream.

DREAM: I found myself standing in front of a massive, grand building, and I was completely awestruck with the enormity of what I saw. I gazed upon the immense doors in front of me and all of the elaborate and ornate details contained within them. Upon entering, I noticed the exquisite, intricate tile work that ran all along the top borders of the walls. As I walked further inside, I saw that the room was larger and more expansive than I had anticipated. It appeared to go on as far as my eyes could see in every direction. I stood there in awe and amazement of the sheer size and grandeur of the room which I understood to be some type of banquet hall. The room was filled with what looked like hundreds or even thousands of rows (it was hard to estimate) of beautiful, round tables that looked to seat about 10 to 12 people at each. I looked more closely at the table nearest to where I was standing, and it was breathtaking beyond description. It was so beautifully and meticulously set with brightly shining, white plates, glistening golden utensils, and exquisitely sparkling crystal goblets that reflected rainbows of vivid colors in every direction. The table covering was glowing white with intricate gold and colorful designs woven throughout. As I examined more closely, I noticed that every one of the tables appeared to be glowing from within and radiating out a beautiful light, illuminating the area around it. It was an awesome and amazing sight to behold!

At first, I was just an observer in the dream and was not aware of any other people around me. But the dream then changed somewhat, and I suddenly found myself in the company of another man whom I did not seem to know. It was then made known to me that he and I were a team, and we were on a very important assignment. I was then also able to hear many other people all around me talking in a happy, excited manner, although I did not see them at that time, only heard them. I knew that these tables were all being set up for a very special event that would soon be taking place. Every team had a group of tables assigned to them to work on. The other man and I had an area of about 20 tables that we were responsible for completing. The atmosphere in the room was one of joy and excitement as everyone talked, giggled, and worked quickly to complete the task at hand. The scene then suddenly changed, and I found myself in another part of the building in an expansive room that appeared to be more like a sanctuary or auditorium. There were many other people in this room as well, and the other man and I were again a team here with a different assignment. We were instructed that there were little bottles hidden all over the room, and it was our job to hunt for and to locate them. We were told that whenever we would find any of the bottles, that we were to take them to the designated area and to break them open, but to use extreme care while doing so. The bottles were made of a very thin and delicate material with the consistency similar to baked phyllo dough in how it breaks apart and crumbles very easily. It was made known to us that if we did not open them carefully, that the bottle and its valuable contents could crumble and disintegrate. The bottles were smokey gray in color and solid so we were unable to see the contents inside.

Pt 2

The room was full of very large chairs, and we were told to search all over the chairs, inside, around, on top and underneath for these hidden bottles. When we found bottles, we took them to the area in the back of the room with large tables where we very carefully broke them open and shook out the contents. These bottles all contained jewels of various colors, styles, and cuts, and all were about the size of a quarter. They were so brilliant and shining, and seemed to be pulsating and alive. We were told to sort the jewels according to color, and place them on large silver trays, a different tray for each color. There was a special emphasis made for the red jewels as these were the rarest and most sought-after jewels. These red jewels were separated and put into a special golden bowl. There were also little scrolls in the bottles along with the jewels. They were various sizes, rolled up and tied, and were all placed onto a large tray, separate from the jewels. Every bottle had a scroll, but not every bottle had a jewel, and some bottles had more than one jewel in them.

While we were all quickly working away, someone called out for us to hurry up as the bride was on her way and would be arriving momentarily. Everyone was excitedly chatting away, hurrying to finish up. There was an air of joy, excitement, and anticipation in the room that was felt by all. Then suddenly, a voice from somewhere shouted out to me and the other man on my team, "HURRY UP, YOU COHEN BOYS!" My name is not Cohen, but I knew that this was directed at us. We continued to work as fast as we could, running back and forth, looking for the remaining bottles.

Then suddenly, there was an abrupt change as we became aware of news of the bride. It seemed to come across as a special message with everyone receiving the message at the exact same moment. The message was the bride was not coming at this time - SHE WAS DELAYED. In an instant, the atmosphere changed from joy and excitement to one of sadness and disappointment. I heard many sighs from people, and then all was quiet. After all was still and quiet for a few minutes, a shout seemed to come out of nowhere but out of everywhere at the same time, and the whole place reverberated with this – "WHAT ABOUT THE REMNANT???" Then I woke up.

THE WORD

You, My Beloved Remnant, who have stood strong in the face of adversity and held tight to the foundation of faith are the JEWELS in Heaven.

Many think that because they attend a church or give tithes that that entitles them to be JEWEL. It does not, for those are the works in the flesh, and no different than the pharisees, who puffed their chests out and walked around like they were special. They wanted to be seen by men as holy, saying long prayers and taking the best seats in the temple. These men thought they were JEWELS, but they were nothing but ASH.

My son, My Remnant want no recognition. They pray in secret closets that only My Father hears them. My Remnant assault the gates of hell with power from the Holy Spirit, yet they are unknown to most. My Remnant hear My voice and obey Me when I speak, never puffing themselves up to be seen of men. My Remnant are humble and pure, the JEWELS THAT SHINE BRIGHTLY in a dark world.

My son, it has begun. All that has been spoken by all My prophets, by all My watchmen, by all My Remnant through words of knowledge will start now. I have trained you, My Remnant, and have warned and shown you what must come to pass in order to fulfill My Word and bring My children home.

I love you all so much. When these events begin, do not fear, but lift up your eyes, for your redemption draws nigh.

My Remnant, you will lead many to the door. There, My Holy Spirit will fill their hearts with joy, not fear. There will be many fearful and terrifying sights, but I say, WALK IN FAITH - NAY - WALK IN GREAT FAITH! I AM WITH YOU!

My JEWELS of many colors - each color represents your strengths that I have given you. Some are strong in Faith. Some are strong in Prayer. Some are strong in Miracles. But the strongest and most special JEWELS are strong in Love. I have told you, My Remnant, what color jewel you are -- walk in it.

I have set up the banquet hall, and very soon, My Remnant, you will have a great feast in your honor.

My son, PREPARE! PREPARE! PREPARE! FOR THE TIME HAS RUN OUT! SOON THE EARTH WILL SHAKE, IT WILL ROCK, IT WILL STAGGER AS A DRUNKEN MAN! ALL THE EARTH WILL KNOW THAT I AM IS COMING SOON!

Amen.
