

Positioned and Sealed In

Audio version

Precious Saints,

It's good to be with you again. It's been a little while... I've had emails from people asking me if I'm all right, because they're not used to a whole week going by without me releasing something! I am perfectly fine. I've just been getting downloads and trying to ascertain which should be released first or second. And you know, this is the thing about being led by the Spirit - I had a plan in my head this morning when I got up, about what I was going to share first, and as I sat down, the Spirit began to minister and said, "You will release today's message first". So, get used to the Holy Spirit turning your plans upside down, as you move under the unction of the wind of the Spirit as the sons of God. I also want to thank all of you who've prayed for me and for my family, when you saw the recent flooding news and destruction in the area of the country where we live. Just want you to know we're all well and safe and dry. Actually, I'm so grateful to the Lord because they had predicted extremely violent winds, and I prayed and asked the Lord that He would position angels around our property to deflect the winds, because we have a lot of big trees and I didn't want there to be damage to the garden or to the roof of the house. Praise God, we hardly felt the wind at all. We had a little bit of water pooling in the bottom of the garden (we had 80mm in one and a half days), but our garden and our house were dry and safe. Other nearby properties and in the next door town did get flooded if they lived in low lying areas, but the Lord did protect us. So, I'm very grateful.

So, let's go to the message of the day, because I have to release it while it is still today. It is the 2nd of October 2023, and in the Early Barley Ripeness calendar, it is the 16th of Cheshvan, which is the eighth month. Today is the anniversary of the last day that Noah had before he went permanently into the ark on the 17th of Cheshvan, and God sealed them in and the judgments began. So, on the 10th of Cheshvan, God said to Noah, "Go into the ark, you and your family and all the animals, and in seven days' time I'm going to release the judgments". So, the last seven days were days of getting those animals into the ark, sticking them into their stalls, stocking clothing & the things that they needed to eat into the ark. So this last week has been an interim period, an anniversary of Noah's Transition Bridge, going from being a preacher of righteousness and a holy lifestyle and warning people of judgment to absolute laser-sharp focus. He's gone from looking around and speaking a word to those who were in sin, in between his last minute stocking of everything into the ark. And finally, TODAY was his final day when there was no more time to do what he did in the last season. The last season was drawing to a close, and Noah and his family were absolutely focused forward into the blueprint of God and positioning themselves in the ark.

He was moving from a chapter of preparation to a chapter of being positioned - and this is also the season that we are entering as the Tip of the Spear. We've had a long season of preparation, but we are transitioning into a positioning time of shelter, as judgment begins to roll out - and of course it's not a judgment by water like last time, even though there is flooding and extreme weather events all over the earth, the judgment that's coming now is a judgment by fire.

I just want to address, as an aside, the extensive flooding that's happening all over the world in different countries. People have written and asked me if it is connected to the dream I had of a tsunami and the whole area in the Western Cape, where I live, being completely under water. And I didn't sense that it was directly related to that. I do feel that it's a warning to South Africa because we had both a freak little mini tsunami on the first day of the orthodox Tishrei (Rosh Hashanah) in the Hillel calendar, and on Yom Kippur, we had the very, very heavy rain and the flooding. BUT in the Early Barley calendar, we are ahead of that calendar. So, if there is a message or warning, it is for those who are not part of the Tip of the Spear.

I did feel, however, that all these floods all over the earth are an indication of what happens when a birthing process begins. The waters break and there's a great gush of water, and then the birth pangs begin, or the travail begins in the body of the mother. And I did sense that it was a herald announcing the beginning of the birth pangs and the bringing forth and birthing of The Day of the Lord. We know Malachi 4 says that it's a day that burns like an oven, but for those who fear His Name, they will skip about for joy like calves released from the stall. So, I just wanted to say that about the flooding that's going on all over. Think of waters breaking and a birthing - once those waters break, you know the baby is on the way! The Day of the Lord is at the door and is even now beginning! This is what I sense in the Spirit.

So, Noah was set apart and holy to the blueprint God had given him. From the end of 16th of Cheshvan, his old chapter was completely over, and the 17th of Cheshvan marked the cutting off and the complete severing for him of that old chapter. He couldn't even gaze on it because God had built given him an ark to build that had no windows looking out horizontally so he could not even look out at the last chapter; at the people he'd known in the last chapter; at the people that he'd warned in the last chapter. He couldn't look out at the destruction. He could only receive light from a window in the ceiling of the ark - heavenly light. That word for 'window' used there in the Word of God, in Hebrew means 'double light'. So, in the previous season, Noah had been receiving light from the spiritual realm or heaven AND light from the earthly or natural realm, but in the season that began on the 17th of Cheshvan, Noah moved from a mixture of natural and spiritual light and only started receiving light from above. So, it was now no longer about those around him, but about the POSITIONING of him and his family.

He must have had quite a feeling of trepidation on this 16th of Cheshvan, because the rain hadn't started yet and they'd never seen rain. He didn't know really what it was going to look like when God's judgments rolled out, but he knew that he had been obedient to what God had called him to do. And now God was going to shut him in and protect him and his family, because they were righteous in the earth.

In the same way. Esther, on the first of Tevet, also moved from a year of preparation for her appointment with the king to POSITIONING as the wife of the king. She moved from the general company of the women to the company of the king. And like Noah, her dwelling place and resting place was forever changed.

Noah moved from speaking about God, to being hidden in the ark - and what is that a picture of? In Genesis 6:14, God instructed Noah to build the ark and to cover it with pitch or tar inside and outside. That word for 'pitch' is H3722. It is 'kaphar', which actually means 'to cover, to purge, to make atonement, to cleanse, to pardon, to forgive sin, to cancel, and to make reconciliation'. Kaphar is a word that embodies the redemption price of the Blood of the Lamb. So, when Noah placed the pitch within and without and then went to dwell within that doubly pitched ark, that is a picture of being hidden in Christ, the Ark of Salvation that God designed for protection and transport during the roll out of judgments. It was the Ark of Deliverance for His righteous remnant seed.

So, this speaks to us about being covered with the Blood of the Lamb within and without. We are kept safe from the judgments that are going to be rolling out by entering into and being sealed and covered, within and without, by the Blood of the redemption price of the Lamb that was slain. When you move from preparation to positioning, the positioning is in the redemption power of the Blood - and this is NOT a static position. The ark moved on the flood waters, but Noah and his family did not come out from under that double covering of pitch. And in the same way, we need to go now and move from a place of preparation to a place of being hidden in Christ, covered within and without with the Blood of the Lamb, just as the Israelites did in Egypt, when they put the blood on the doorposts. The destroyer was not allowed to enter those dwellings and they were delivered. THAT'S REALLY IMPORTANT, Beloved, in this time.

The days of preparation are also like what goes on at the threshing floor. There is a winnowing and a separating of grain from chaff, but then the grain is stored in the barn and the chaff is assigned unquenchable fire. Noah and his family were the seed or the grain; the remnant grain, stored in the barn of the ark, and the chaff were the unrepentant sinners who received judgment.

So, it's extremely important now, precious saints, to be aware that in the time that we are staring at in the face, the ONLY WAY we overcome is by the Blood of the Lamb and the word of our testimony, and you must POSITION YOURSELF and hide yourself in Christ, in the Anointed One Who provided the 'pitch' to cover you within and without; Who provided the redemption price for complete and utter protection, both inwardly in the soul and outwardly for your body, for your family, for your belongings, for your home, for your property. Avail yourselves of the power of the Blood in these days and position yourself within the ark of the redemption price, because that is the only place where you are going to find deliverance in the days ahead. What is coming and what is rolling out now is a thousand times worse than what we've already been through. We think we faced a plague... I'm telling you, the next thing that hits is going to be ratcheted up a hundred fold, and the only place of COMPLETE PROTECTION is going to be wrapped within and without in the Blood of the Lamb and being found in Christ.

We are moving from the PREPARATION SEASON to the POSITIONING SEASON, and as you position yourself under the Blood during the days of judgment that are going to be rolling out, (which are to remove the wicked, remember that!), during those days, you may be moved, just like the ark was moved on the waters of judgment. You might find yourself like Noah and his family did, coming to rest on a place like Mount Ararat, where there was no more movement. That was their appointed place of stepping out into a new season. But while the judgments are rolling out, remember to stay under the Blood. Apply the blood within and hide yourself under the Blood. In other words, take communion regularly. Keep your hearts clean. Position yourselves. Decree where you are positioned. Trust God to shut the door and seal you in -and don't spend your time trying to gaze at what's rolling out in the earth as the judgments roll out, but avail yourself of the double light of heavenly revelation that's being provided for you in the safe place where God is willing to seal you in and transition you to the next chapter.

This isn't a long message. I am going to share more on the remnant seed in the next message, but I wanted to release this today on the anniversary of Noah's last day in his old season. May the Lord bless you. May the Spirit strengthen you, give you wisdom and understanding, counsel and knowledge, and may you be filled with the fear of the Lord alone as we go into the days ahead. Amen.
