14th Jan 2024 (2nd Adar 5784)

AUDIO VERSION

This morning, I broke bread before I set up my recording equipment to share with you, and I was meditating on the Bridegroom, spreading his arms with his prayer shawl around his bride under the chuppah. I refer to it in part one as 'the wings of the Great Eagle' that carried Jacob, providing for and protecting him in the wilderness. I wanted to share with you that this marriage covenant communion meal has recorded in its frequency: provision, protection, power, peace and purpose. Every day as I start my day, I break bread & thank God that this is what the marriage covenant with my Bridegroom, Jesus, gives to me.

PROVISION. PROTECTION. POWER, PEACE AND PURPOSE.

Now I want to continue with pt 2. While I was meditating on the nuclear fission and everything the Lord shared with me, which I gave you in part one, I realized that the last three-and-a-portion years of the night watches which we have traversed can be likened to a journey down the birth canal.

THE BIRTHING OF THE MANCHILD BEGAN WITH THE LEAVING OF THE WOMB OF PREPARATION, ONLY TO ENTER AN EVEN TIGHTER SPACE SPIRITUALLY, WHERE THE REMNANT ARE ASSAYED, TESTED FOR QUALITY. THESE LAST 3&1/2 YRS HAVE BEEN UPSIDE DOWN SPIRALLING, INCREDIBLE PRESSURE AND A CRUCIFIXION EXPERIENCE AS WE HAVE BEEN THRUST TOWARDS TO CROWNING OF THE HEAD MOMENT AS GOD SAID 'MAKE MY NAME GREAT'. CROWN HIM WITH MANY CROWNS.

The three and a half years ends at Passover. Now this ties in with God mentioning Easter 5784 as being the time when the idol church will be swept away, which is actually connected to the release of the flood of the Dragon. (something is going to happen that will knock them off their feet, whether it is naturally or metaphorically). But remember, I spoke of the two chromatids of the DNA strand of this blueprint? Part one and part two are dealing with the chromatid, the side of the ladder that deals with the manchild and the woman. So, I'm not going to talk too much about the dragon. We'll do the other side in later parts.

Crown Him with many crowns, the Lamb upon the throne. Praise is more effective than prayer in this moment! The crowning of the head of the manchild is connected to God's instruction to magnify Him, to bring about a sudden release of kingdom power and deliverance as we crown Him with our praise and worship in the final throes of the birthing of the manchild. It may be the head of the manchild that experiences pressure but as our minds are fixed upon the throne described in Revelation 4, the passage way opens for us to be brought to full birth & we will be caught up to that throne. In other words, receive deliverance and kingdom power and be safe from the dragon's breath. Practically, you cannot be tense and worship at the same time, the very act of worship - crowning Him with many crowns - worshiping Him, causes your whole body to relax, as your mind and spirit connect with the throne room. In the natural birth process, when the baby's head is crowning, there's a lot of pressure on the head as the cervix arrests its progress. It's called the ring of fire moment by birth coaches as for a brief time, the mother's nerve ends experience burning pain! Mental pressure, stress and bombardment with fears and worries occur as the head of the manchild begins to encounter the barrier of what we'll call 'the cervix', but as we praise and worship, the cervix is basically a gate we're passing through. As we praise and worship, the barrier relaxes and opens up and the head passes through and is described as 'crowned'. The manchild is crowned by crowning the King of Kings with praise. CROWN HIM WITH MANY CROWNS - this is the key to smooth passage through the final portion of the birth canal and the Cervix Gate.

As I speak these words, I am reminded of a post called 'Surviving the Dragon's Breath'. Please check it out when you have a moment. On the 8th of January, 2024, which was the day after I received the download of the banquet, a subscriber sent me a recording of the song 'Worthy Is the Lamb', which was complete confirmation of this.

I released a word just before the year 5780 began on the Hillel calendar (which was the end of September 2019). This was the evening watch year for the remnant, according to the pattern that the Lord gave me of a year being like a watch in the night. And as you know, we are now in 5784 - the Morning Watch Year. Now, I just want to allude to that banquet table again... when there is a middle-eastern banquet, or even in the West, when there is a banquet, some of the food is freshly picked, prepared and presented. Other things have been preserved in bottles from previous years' harvests and are taken down, put in bowls; for instance olives, and mixed with fresh soft cheeses and sun dried tomatoes, things like that. So, the Lord in this blueprint is taking a mix of new, fresh, current words from His lips AND words spoken in previous seasons that have been harvested, and melding them together to make this a part of the banquet. There are also occasions where He takes a word, and I've got to go down to the root of that word and discover what's underneath it, and bring that up and present it in a bowl to you. So root vegetables get dug up, they get prepared, they get mixed with other things above the surface and produce a delicious dish. This is the table He has prepared for us in the presence of our enemies. Hallelujah!

So, this is the word I released just before 5780 again: I heard a voice say, “Nw the bride will bring to birth the manchild”. I knew from the way it was spoken that the birth pangs had been going on for some time, but now the baby was beginning to travel down the birth canal and was going to emerge in full view. (I wrote this in September 2019, so the three watches of the night have been part of the birth pangs pushing us out from the season of preparation). I'm continuing.. it seems evidence that we are in the season, not the day, but the SEASON of the emergence of the manchild company, and therefore it is important to be aware that this emergence is not met by a trumpet fanfare, but rather the release of death threats and curses. Just as Herod sought to destroy Jesus by releasing a wide-reaching death decree, so to the enemy desires to wipe out the manchild company. As they emerge from the birth canal, the eyes and ears of the manchild are exposed to the onslaught of strong witchcraft and death assignments. Do you hear that? Your spiritual sight and your spiritual hearing is going to be under attack as you emerge with the crowning of the head, even as the shoulders of the man child (representing his authority) are still making their way through the narrow portal into full exposure.

The war is on the mind. The sovereign Lord is going to be unmasking the hidden sources of witchcraft within the company, who call themselves the ‘Bride of Christ’. He will be separating light from darkness, or light from counterfeit light, and labelling each according to its real character. In this way, the true Bridal Company will be able to identify the source of the dragon's breath - up close and personal. Tares are going to be evident amongst the mature wheat.

Malachi 3:17 ‘... and they shall be mine, says the Lord of hosts, in the day when I publicly recognize and openly declare them to be My jewels, and I will spare them, as a man spares his own son who serves him. Then you will return ( the Hebrew there also means ‘look back’) and discern between the righteous and the wicked, between him who serves God, and him who does not serve Him.

So, Beloved, what this actually means is there are some people who you thought were the part of the Body of Christ, but whose hearts are not right towards you, and therefore the enemy has been using them as a source and launching pad of secret attack - and up to now you have not realized it, but God is going to be unmasking the mouthpieces of the dragon up close and personal, and then you are going to be able to separate from them, as the veil comes off your eyes.

I'm going to continue with the word from just before 5780: I see a runner coming to the beginning of the fourth lap of a race. There is a large ball and chain on the right ankle, and it has a name on it. This person has kept on running the race as best as possible through three watches of a very dark night, and now it is the morning watch. This runner has cried out to the Lord to move in the situation, to bring deliverance of this weight that slows down all progress and impedes the freedom of the runner to run his appointed course. But the Lord says that this ball and chain has built much spiritual muscle and strength in you, and this is why He has allowed it to remain for this long season. He says, "Now I come to cut it off, and you will be released in an instant. From that moment on, you will run faster and more powerfully than ever before and complete your race for My glory. Understand My ways, child. Nothing is without definite purpose, no onslaught allowed unless it works together for your ultimate good. I know the appointed course set before you in this Morning Watch; each bend and turn, and you will have need of the muscle and stamina you have developed in the night of trial."

This runner represents the Lord's final relay company, the sons and daughters of the Morning Watch, and each one has had a ball and chain with a unique name on it. For some it has been sickness, for others it is the tailor-made thorn in the flesh or harassing relationship. For yet others it has been incredible demonic resistance, pushing against every step in a forward direction. But just as resistance training is used to build strong and powerful athletes and sportsmen, so too the Spirit has allowed this resistance training to furnish you with ALL you will need in the season ahead. You will finish strong!

So that's the end of that word, and regarding the relay race, I spent time with my 91-year-old mother yesterday. I took her to her favorite place, a beautiful garden in a wine estate, and we discussed her going home.... As usual! She is longing to be with Jesus, and she is embarrassingly open about the fact that she's longing to die. It's actually quite hilarious! We spoke of a relay race and how the baton is to be passed at a precise moment so that it is not dropped. Then when I took her home, she gave me a solid silver teaspoon, which her father had won in a tennis tournament a hundred years ago. As she placed it in my hand and held the other side of the teaspoon for a moment, I felt in the Spirit that this was a really profound moment. I felt like I was receiving a baton in a relay race. It's interesting because the head of the spoon is the head of a tennis racket with a ball on it. And so, I looked up the word 'tennis' this morning. It comes from the mid-14th century, from an Anglo-French word 'tonetz', which means 'hold, receive, take' and the word was used in a game played by the medieval knights; the soldiers in France. Is this not what happens in a relay when the baton is passed? Hold. Receive. Take. There's a moment when the previous runner slows down and the final runner takes hold of the baton, and they are both holding it for that brief moment. And then the one lets go and the other one continues. The final runner in the race lays hold of the baton, receives its contents almost like a scroll, and then takes it over the finish line. My mother's father passed that spoon he had been awarded to her and she has now passed it to me - the third generation. That is a relay. To 'relay' means 'to pass on'. Remnant. We are required to hold, receive and carry the heavenly blueprint over the finish line of this race of faith to completion. Those who have gone before in the race, the great cloud of witnesses surround us.

Hebrews 12:1 'Therefore, since we are surrounded by so great a cloud of witnesses, let us strip off and throw aside every encumbrance and unnecessary weight and the sin that so readily clings to us. Let us run with patient endurance and active persistence (The Amplified says) the appointed course of the race that is set before us, looking away from all that will distract to Jesus, who is the Author and the Finisher of our faith. He, for the joy that was set before Him, endured the cross, despising and ignoring the shame, and is now seated at the right hand of the throne of God.'

Today that scripture is for the sons of the right hand. The Spirit also reminded me when I received the spoon of the phrase 'it's time for tea'. Tea time, which is part of a post I released called 'It's Time for T'. But the T is a capital T, not t-e-a in that post. It contains a poem alluding to the coming judgments of God, and part of it says:

A feast of sound abounds
from holy lips
with sips of Zion wine.

It's time for T
A sip of threefold tips
from Aleph's lips
leaves out of His book
healing for the nations.

The Hebrew letter Tav means 'mark'. As the last letter of the Hebrew alephbet, it speaks of completion, sealing, consummation, and fullness of original purpose.

The month of Adar in nautical twilight is the month of setting His gems in place. Where are they set? In their throne room position, washed by the worship of the living creatures and the 24 elders, and joining their voice with theirs.

Aviv, the next month is the month of the exodus from Egypt and the celebration of Passover. Iyar, the last month of nautical twilight is known for something astounding awhen we consider the release of power from nuclear fission nd the sevenfold Spirit outpouring that is going to come after making His name great. The Hebrew letters IYAR form an acronym of 'I am the Lord, your Healer'!!

Precious remnant, for those who are suffering in body and in soul, there is a massive outpouring of long-awaited healing coming for the holy remnant with that power release. And I'm sensing in my spirit that it's very soon! It's very soon, because Ruth received the six measures of barley into her widow's veil, the veil of mourning and grief and carried it away before the end of nautical twilight - before one could recognize another. And it was a FREE OUTPOURING - gift from the bridegroom.

Yesterday, I was with a precious brother in Christ who was celebrating his birthday, and he shared a dream he had received as a young believer many years ago. A huge crowd of people were gazing upward in adoration at Jesus, who was suspended in the air above them. And as He rose higher and higher during their worship, their gaze was lifted ever higher. At a certain moment, there was a huge explosion and a substance rained down upon all those worshipping. They began to cry out and exclaim that they were healed, delivered, restored! This brother says every time he worships, this scene is seen by the eyes of his heart, and he has a peculiar sensitivity in worship.

Remember nuclear fission? The Spirit says during this holding pattern, in order to achieve the desired and longed-for effect, praise has more effect than prayer in this regard. This is what the sovereign Lord says: “From the womb of the morning, My overcomers are released, from the springboard of all the enemy has thrown at them. They leap forward into their tailor-made assignments with the battle cry of the blood of the Lamb upon their lips. Against this, all darkness flees, and the gates of hell will not prevail. Take the kingdom, possess the fullness of the inheritance I have bought for you. Ask of me, and I will give you the nations which lie before you. Run, My warriors, run the race set before you, cast aside the weights. For I have broken its hold on you.”

Beloved, forget the training watches of the night. Press forward to seize eagerly that for which Christ laid hold of you. There is an upward call sounding forth. Come up higher. See things from the throne’s perspective. Like horses released from their starting gates, the morning watch runners are being released from their training time. It is time. It's time for T!

A little while back, I released part one and two of ‘Finishing Touches and Final Processes’. It was probably in about 2021, somewhere around there. It was about the month of Adar and His jewels being revealed. I said part 3 was coming, but I never released it. And now, in this month of Adar 5784, as it begins, for the tip of the spear, I sense it is time. Time for T. Time for time of completion of release of that 3rd part of the revelation - but I will do it in a separate post as part three of this Banquet and Blueprint. Yes, God is taking some preserves off the shelf and serving them as a first-fruits tasting for His first-fruits Tip of the Spear Company.

The Spirit has referred me back to a number of visions and dreams given as that Evening Watch year commenced. Yes, preserved jars of light nourishment are being opened for this banquet. They are part of the DNA of God's blueprint for this season. Nucleotide segments given previously; puzzle pieces, are now being shown as part of the whole blueprint for the manchild and the woman as the season commences. As Isaiah 46:10 says, ‘declaring the end from the beginning and from ancient times the things that are not yet done, saying, My counsel shall stand, and I will do all My pleasure’. As we move through the Morning Watch year, it will do us well to refresh our memories about exactly what the Lord said at the beginning. How can you look forward to and praise Him for what He is about to do, if you can't even remember what He said at the beginning? With that in mind, I have some things to share with you...

On the 22nd of September 2019, I was participating in a worship service and the Holy Spirit instructed me to sing in tongues the whole way through the service, not just in the worship. As I did this, I was shown a vision. Initially, I saw a dull, grey butterfly which looked like it had come out of a mould and seemed to be made of some sort of metal. It was set in place on the top of a cork, which was sealing a wine bottle. As I sang the words the Spirit was giving me, the greyish wings began to stir and move up and down, and the grey layer was removed, displaying many jewels set in place in the wings. (The Lord is saying to me now as I read this, that the grey layer was ash from the Refiner's fire). The more I worshiped in the Spirit, the more energy seemed to be imparted to the wings of the butterfly, and it rose up towards the heavens, pulling the cork with it. I knew somehow that the open bottle contained a portion of the best wine, which had been reserved for release at the time of this butterfly's flight, and that the opening of the bottle was generated by the power of the Spirit.

As I watched the butterfly soar higher, I could see angels leaning over balcony railings, excitedly watching for something that was about to happen. Then somewhere up high, a lion began to roar and my line of vision was shifted to its location. I saw the Lion of Judah roaring, and the butterfly with jewel wings was positioned inside His mouth. There was a river of liquid flowing earthwards out of His mouth, and the butterfly surrendered and yielded itself into the flow, and the jewels in the wings became liquid rainbow colors of the sevenfold Spirit of God, raining down upon the earth in the mighty outpouring. The pouring out of the roar was not random, but over a specific location where an altar had been built in the wilderness.

Now these are my present-day comments: NOTE THAT THIS WAS NOT A CATERPILLAR BUT A BUTTERFLY. THE SEASON OF CHANGE HAD BEEN COMPLETED, AND THE BUTTERFLY HAD MOVED OUT OF THE PLACE OF PREPARATION, AND THE POWER TO ASCEND WAS RELEASED THROUGH WORSHIP. REMEMBER THE KEY THE SPIRIT GAVE - PRAISE DOES MORE IN THIS REGARD THAN PRAYER, WHEN SEEKING GOD FOR A RELEASE OF POWER. ONCE ASCENSION WAS COMPLETE, THE BUTTERFLY WAS POSITIONED TO BE PART OF THE LION OF JUDAH'S MOUTHPIECE. IT IS THE

ROAR OF HIS BREATH THAT IMPARTED THE SEVENFOLD SPIRIT OF GOD IN A MIGHTY OUTPOURING.

Now I'm going back to reading that old post... 'Initially, it had looked as if the stationary butterfly was just a moulded decoration of the cork, part of what was blocking the release of the contents of the bottle. But the Spirit showed me that there was a company of saints who had been completely dismantled and rebuilt, or re mantled, while soaking in heaven's wine away from the eyes of man. The parameters of the change had been set in stone in God's blueprints in heaven, but the fullness of transformation would only be revealed once the empowering and the breath of God was released with a kairos sound or song from the throne. They had emerged from the preparation chamber or womb, had been positioned and set in place, ready for their first assignment under the power of the Spirit, to open up the very same contents for the set-apart Bride to drink from to set in motion the next season in Kingdom purposes.

I was given understanding that the butterfly represented the manchild company who rose towards the throne with the equipping of the Seven Spirits of God. Do you remember the breaking forth of the portals in the mountains in my other dream? Just as the birth and the ascension of the manchild in Revelation 12 triggered the release of the woman from her birthing assignment, so she could be transitioned to her appointed place in the wilderness, so too, the ascent of the butterfly triggered the opening of a bottle of the best wine kept to last.

The positioning of the butterfly in the mouth of the Lion tells us that the manchild will be involved in the release of the roar of God in the earth, that this company will surrender completely to their call and become part of the mighty roar of creative sound released over the woman in the wilderness. Incorporated in the sound will be the ministrations of the seven Spirits of God. So, now we know that the manchild will be involved in ministering to, feeding and preparing the Bride during the three and a half years of the dragon's flood. The flooding sound of heaven's best wine poured out on the surrendered Bridal company in the wilderness will impart all that is needed to sustain, strengthen and equip her for kingdom purposes. The dragon releases a river of death, but the Lion of Judah releases a river of life and power!'

Now I want to share with you from the post, 'Positioned and Peaceful' - this is another bowl on the banquet table. God has chosen to put this at the setting of the table He's prepared. I attended a prayer meeting and during worship, I had a vision (which is usual for me). I saw a giant tap and a hand holding the tap, and I knew it was the Lord's hand, and I was waiting for Him to open the tap and release the water or whatever it was in the tap, and He did not do it. I just stared at this image of a hand holding a tap for quite some time, and then somebody came and put their hands under the tap, and immediately He opened the tap and I heard the words, “Position yourself. Position yourself for outpouring”. You know what? If it is vaults or storehouses which the tap is connected to, the contents of that vault will not be wasted in heaven's economy. But there is an appointed outpouring, and the hand of God is waiting for His people to position themselves to receive the outpouring.

As I was preparing to share with you, I heard the phrase ‘acceleration of impartation’. In other words, a speeding up of imparting. When I was watching the vision of the tap, once the person's hands were positioned to receive, the tap was opened not in a trickle but in a flood. And the Spirit of the Lord is saying, there's going to be an acceleration of impartation in these days to fully equip you to complete your kingdom assignments in the days that are ahead. So just like you have to position yourself in the Spirit and keep hovering in a holding pattern, you also need to position yourself for accelerated impartation. Positioning speaks of FOCUS. It speaks of ORIENTATION and it speaks of CONCENTRATION. So where are you focused? In what direction are you orientated? Are you looking out on everything that's going on in the earth, or are you like Noah in the ark who only had a window at the top of the ark, so the only way he could look out was upwards. Focused praise and intentional worship are what is required at this time in 5784 in the nautical twilight of the morning watch year. Focus, orientation and concentration.

In my video about the frankincense, the gold and the myrrh, the Lord said, “I infill those I can entrust”. You can access that video on my Brighton channel. It's called **‘Following the Frequency of His Fragrance’**, and in the soundtrack I have used the actual frequency of frankincense and myrrh. Yes, solid spices have a frequency. Everything in life has a frequency. Frankincense has a frequency of 147 Hz. The Hebrew word numbered 147 means ‘threshing floors’, and it is used only once in the Word in the Scripture in Daniel about the stone striking the foot of the statue and destroying it. FRANKINCENSE IS THE SOUND OF WORSHIP WAR. No wonder God has said praise has more effect than prayer when seeking breakthrough and release of power.

Now, what is really at stake here is what value do you place on God's outpouring? What value do you place on what He is wanting to impart? Because that will determine how you prioritize your positioning and your concentration. If you are only willing to give 5 or 10 minutes of your day to positioning yourself for outpouring, you're not going to receive the fullness of what heaven is wanting to pour out in your spirit. FOCUSED ADORATION unleashes power.

I know many people are feeling the pressure of preparation in the natural realm, getting food, supplies, fuel, supplies and putting things in place in the earthly realm, but in our 24 hour days, we have to prioritize time to receive acceleration of impartation because things are accelerating in the earthly realm in a negative fashion. If I told you the banks are going to be locked permanently in two days time, what would you do? You would immediately get online, transfer funds, go to the banks, go to the ATMs, withdraw as much as possible... before the ability to access your own finances was cut off. Now, we do know that things are going to go pear shaped financially very soon, and therefore we must prepare practically, but God is also wanting you to prepare spiritually for what is going to be unfolding in the earth very, very soon. He's saying this is why there is an acceleration of impartation that's going to be happening for those who will position themselves to receive outpouring. Make time, Beloved, make concentrated, focused, heaven orientated time. Crown Him with many crowns. Make His name great in the earth. You're going to need every drop of what God is wanting to impart to you, and you will not be sorry that you've used that time for impartation.

Our God is a Rock! When we are rooted and grounded on the Rock that is Christ, that Rock is unshakable and immovable, and we ought to conform our minds fully to the fact that we are citizens of another kingdom - that we are wayfarers and strangers on the earth, and we are not citizens of the geographical area we find ourselves walking in. We are merely Christ's ambassadors in this place. All of this involves a leaving and a cleaving, a process of deliberately letting go of one thing and a determined seizing of another higher and eternal reality. It is the pulling up of our roots wherever we find ourselves, and allowing them to only be put down to grow deeper and more firmly into Christ. He is the ground that we are planted in. He is our dwelling place. He is our home.

Psalm 110:3. Your people will offer themselves willingly in the day of Your power, in the beauty of holiness, out of the womb of the morning, to You will spring forth your young men who are as the dew.

Now I want to just encourage you also to go back and listen again to 'The Rise of the Light-Bringers' from December 2023, where the Lord speaks of the anointing of His DAWN ARMY. I am not going to share that again now because it was recent, and you can easily go back and access it on the main Fresh Light Releases podcast page.

Then the Lord wanted me to share a word from October 2019, which was the beginning of the Evening Watch Year 5780. Remember, He declares the end from the beginning, and is called He Changes the Times 'Poised for the Starter's Gun' is the sub-heading: 'A few days ago, in the middle of the night, I surfaced and saw a vision with two scenarios. The first was a runner in starting blocks, lean and muscled, and his body arranged in precise position. His head was lifted and his eyes trained and intensely focused on the end of the racetrack. His ears had blocked out the white noise of the watching crowd and were alert and pricked up, waiting for the moment when he heard the starter's gun go off. Adrenaline was pumping through his veins, fuelling his body in anticipation of launching forth at full speed into the race ahead. And there was an intense stillness about him, a focus that could not be broken. His training days were behind him, and he crouched, fully prepared for the day of launching. Everything was in perfect order and position, all preparation complete, and the crowd gradually became quiet as they tangibly felt the pregnant waiting of the runners. Each knew his appointed lane, its boundaries and parameters. None looked at their fellow runners. Singular focus and readiness filled the atmosphere.

Then I saw the stopwatch of the person assigned to fire the starter's gun, and they were just seconds to the start of the race. No more. The second scene I saw was a large gold coloured key being inserted deeply into a gold coloured lock on a door and then being turned, and I knew that the runner sent like an arrow to a target, was also the key, designed to fit a particular door, and the insertion of the key into the lock was also the arrow plunging deep into the bull's eye of the target, to which it had been sent by the strong arm of the Lord.

Tip of the Spear Company, did you hear that? Sinking deep into the target towards which the Lord has aimed you, is also the unlocking of a door. You are a key for something that is locked up UNTIL YOU ARRIVE THERE TO OPEN IT!

Back to the vision... Each runner released by the sound of the starter's gun would be a key released to unlock a door in heaven over a situation, a geographical area, a family, a tribe, a nation, until they are released, the door in heaven remained locked and the outpouring stored up behind it, untasted. Keep your focus, runners of the Morning Watch. Let your attention become minutely focused on the spiritual realm. Screen out every distracting sound wave. Let the ears and the eyes of your heart be sharply trained upon the throne, because He who is the Alpha, the Starter, the Firstborn of all creation, is about to roar - and in that roar is ALL THE SPIRITUAL POWER AND MOMENTUM YOU WILL REQUIRE TO FUEL YOUR JOURNEY TO THE FINISHING POST.

Become one with the purposes of heaven in this moment. Join the 24 elders and the living creatures in the throne room. Let your voice harmonize with their crying, "Worthy is the Lamb upon the throne". Can you hear the ticking of the second hand on the Starter's stopwatch? Can you hear what the dull of hearing will never discern - that moment before nuclear fission. It's a split-second moment which is about to break out all over the earth. From the womb of the morning will spring forth those who have offered themselves willingly in the day of His power; a mighty explosion of endtime runners, leaping forward at full speed to their assignments, planted deeply in the keyhole of the door in heaven they have been appointed to steward.

Some take the seconds of silence as a sign that nothing is about to happen, that all will continue as it always has, that perhaps they should go and buy another snack to feed their flesh or watch another movie on Netflix. But the DREAD CHAMPIONS know otherwise. This is what they went through the wilderness for. This is what they were trained for in gruelling test after test. This is what they were born for - to run this race for the praise of His glory. NOT THE PRAISE OF HIS GRACE, BUT HIS GLORY – THAT MEANS HIS GLORY WILL BE ON OPEN DISPLAY!!

2 Timothy 4:7, Paul says, 'I have fought the fight, I have finished the race, I have kept the faith. Henceforth there is laid up for me the victor's crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the Righteous Judge, will award me on that great day, and not to me only, but to all those who have loved and yearned for and welcomed His appearing.

And the last thing the Lord wants me to share with you today is from a post called 'wine from Wisdom's Table'. I started speaking about the communion and I'm ending off speaking about the communion.

As I took the last sip of wine in my communion cup, I heard, "The power of the Blood is in the wine of the Word."

"Can you explain this to me, Lord?" I asked.

"It's quite simple, when you break the human body, the blood flows out. When you break the body of the Word served under Wisdom's watchful eye, the wine of the Word imbued with the power of the Blood is released. In this hour, My Melchizedek priests are sprinkling the altar of consecration with the wine of My Word, broken and blessed at Wisdom's table; understanding of the times is imparted, so the people know what to do at this moment. It is bread and wine for the Day of the Lord, not the sweet cakes being dished up by the bakers of the Babylonian courts. Yes, honey from the Rock is within the wine of My Word, but only the Breaker can break open the way to access it.

You will pass through the open gates revealed in My Word, following the King of Glory as He rides to war with mammon and Dagon and the likes of their demonic huddle. They will yield now, as My princes come forth, rightly dividing My Word of Endtime Truth. Fall on their faces, they will, in the presence of My four faces. Ezekiel 1 is coming to town and I Am is not backing down. Fire-starters now unleashed, the Jordan River crowd who baptize the seeking in waters to open blind eyes and deaf ears, turning compass needles to true North and fine-tuning focus to behold the Lamb of God that takes away the sins of the world. It's high time souls moved from musty climes of the religious order's chaos. Seats must be filled at the banquet supper of the Lamb, but how will they come if they don't even know? How will they sit if they can't even see?

Wilderness warriors, fearless speakers, hailing and weeping, are being swept up now in the whirlwind of My reapers; separated from the shores of all they've known and synchronized with Heaven's chimes, they rest upon the stormy winds of change, and wait for touchdown and planting at their battle stations. Trusted ones with burning hearts are all I need to start the raging worldwide furnace of My endtime judgements. That will drive the rats and snakes to open view; their schemes exposed, in cinders too, while in the heights My laughter rings. Who dares confront the King of Kings?

My seasoned saints, already locked within the sling of David's Son, are lifted high above the battle plane, strapped in and set to fly, in sequenced file and rank. The utmost parts have been assigned; they've asked of Me with Kingdom minds. Now to inheritance they go; the bondslave ones whose names I know. They're seeking not fortune or fame, but only glory for My Name. They've chosen well, they bless My heart. Forsaking all to claim a part of what was paid for by My Son; desires granted, every one!

I've portioned them the upper ground, the mountain heights is where they're found. We've measured out and deeds are sealed; inheritance to be revealed, for jewels recorded in My book. They've chosen fear of Me, not man, and so for honored use I can apportion them their lot with kings, the right to view the secret things. Treasures of darkness, long been stored, granted to bondslaves of the Lord; the ones who've said, "Not my will, Yours' are set before My open doors, with kingdom keys and rods to rule - this, My reward to bless My jewels. My kingdom come on earth as writ, the scrolls fulfilled now, every bit. The jots and tittles finally done, the manifest of battle won, through pathways walked by Spirit-led, who heal the sick and raise the dead, and east to west My Name proclaimed, by blind who see and dancing lame, and desert sands are now in bloom, as all the earth is making room, and knees are bowing left and right as Kingdom comes within their sight; rollout of My will full done - behold the glory of the Son!
