

A Banquet and a Blueprint ~ pt 1

AUDIO VERSION

Hello, precious remnant.

It's just after 6 p.m. on the 12th of January, 2020, and the new moon was sighted in Jerusalem by Rivkah Biderman at 17h21. So the new month of Adar for the tip of the spear has begun. She watched the sky black with storm clouds and thought there was no chance of seeing it but then the clouds parted at exactly the moment of the rising of the moon and she caught sight of the 2% sliver of the new moon. A brief window of opportunity confirmed again as the storm clouds gather over the earth. Wow, what a pivotal time. This message will be obedience to the instruction that God gave me in Psalm 81, where it says, 'sound the shofar on the new moon'. This message will be a shofar blast into the spiritual realm. I had a look at the time 17h21. The Greek 1721 is 'to implant by instruction'. There is no coincidence with that. This is what will be happening with this shofar blast message.

So, on the 7th of January, I was still meditating on the holding pattern, and I was walking around the block in my neighbourhood, praying in tongues and just focusing on the Lord. And suddenly, I received an incredible download so fast that I cannot even tell you how quickly it came, but it has taken me from the 7th to the 12th to digest and make sense and arrange what I received in some sort of fashion, so that I can impart it to the remnant who's listening to this message. I do feel that what God did was lay a banqueting table before me, groaning with tasty dishes, different foods, every inch of the table covered with beautiful bowls of food. I kept seeing in the days when I tried to understand the download a middle eastern banquet - there are lots of bowls with different kinds of food, and, the table is groaning and the people eat in a leisurely fashion and they take a bit of this, a bit of that, a bit of the other.

So, what God did was show me the whole thing. I saw the detail of every part of that banqueting table, and then from the 7th to the 12th, He unpacked it for me and helped me digest it. Along the way, He showed me that what He had actually imparted with that banqueting table download was a blueprint, a DNA double-sided DNA strand of His blueprint for the season ahead. And as you know, our double-sided DNA strand has got two chromatids that are joined with bonds all the way along and they twist around each other in a spiral fashion. Now, in a DNA strand, each strand of the full DNA strand, the left and the right side of the ladder, so to speak, are different. They contain different nucleotide sequences, but they are bonded together and they move together and they are imparted together. So, what the Lord showed me as He unpacked it for me in these five days, is that He was helping me to unzip the two chromatids, and He showed me what each chromatid RNA strand contained in the Spirit. So, there were two messages bonded together and spiralling around each other as one complete package.

It's very difficult to explain in English because I'm a visual person. God speaks to me with visual messages. And then He said to me, "Go to Revelation 12 and look, and you will see that it contains a DNA strand about a season. There's a one RNA strand that is the story of the manchild and the woman, and there's another DNA strand that concerns the dragon. And yes, they twirl around each other and they are joined at various sections, but it is two separate RNA strands. That is like what I've given to you. The one strand is about the manchild and the woman. The other strand is about the dragon". So, I am going to be sharing it. I don't know how many messages it's going to break down into, because the unpacking of that banqueting table is an awful lot of material. So, it might be a two or three or even a four part series. But the first thing I'm going to deal with is the manchild and the woman. Okay, so that is just the overview of what's been happening to me since the 7th of January, 2024. It was the 24th of Shevat in the Tip of the Spear. Early Barley Calendar.

So let's scroll back. I'm walking around the block, I'm thinking about the holding pattern. And then suddenly, the Lord reminded me about the pause that happens before nuclear fission, the splitting of a nucleus of an atom. Now bear in mind that He's spoken about two chromatids being split apart, but it's one DNA strand. The nucleus of an atom is whole, and when it's split in half, there's an incredible release of power. But just before that happens, what the scientists do is they bombard the nucleus of an atom with protons, and it seems to be affecting the nucleus... And then there comes a moment where there's almost a pause and the protons stop having any effect on the nucleus. In fact, it almost looks as if it's going backwards. It becomes smaller, depressed, um, kind of deflated, almost. And it looks like the bombardment of protons is not having an effect. But if you keep on bombarding with protons, SUDDENLY nuclear fission happens and there's an incredible release of power. Wow. Now, the picture I'm using for my podcast and for the transcript is a picture that I received on my phone this morning 12th. It's actually a picture, a screenshot from a video of an explosion that happened in the earthly realm in the desert today, 12th of January, 2024. But why I use this picture is because the Spirit said to me, "Look, look at the prophetic message of this natural explosion. It's telling you a truth about nuclear fission in the spiritual realm. There is coming an incredible release of the Power of the Seven Spirits of God".

Although at this moment we are in the pause when that nucleus looks like it's deflated and things are going backwards and nothing's happening, IT WILL HAPPEN.

That picture is showing you the fullness of the Spirit, the seven Spirits of God that is going to be released in a mighty explosion of power upon the prepared and waiting holy remnant. It is the fulfillment, the full fulfillment of the Scripture in Joel 2 where it says, ' / will pour out My Spirit on all flesh, and your sons and your daughters shall prophesy, and your young men shall see visions, and old men will dream dreams. And on My male bondservants and female bondservants will I pour out My Spirit.' Now when Pentecost happened in Acts and Peter quotes Joel 2, he doesn't quote it exactly. He says, 'I will pour out OF My Spirit...' In other words, there's a portion of the whole jug of the power of the Spirit that was poured out at Pentecost, but there is coming a complete outpouring of the whole jug. That's why that round circle, the full circular rainbow of the seven colors, the seven-fold Spirit of God at the time of the explosion is such a prophetic image because it represents the FULLNESS. In the fullness of time, the fullness of the word in Joel 2 will be fulfilled, and the fullness of the seven Spirits of God will be imparted, in an explosive impartation to the prepared and waiting remnant.

Okay, so when God reminded me of the nuclear fission and the pause before fission. When I was walking. He spoke and said, "Praise does more than prayer in this regard". And I saw a fist in a boxing glove punch a target straight forward - in other words, the bombarding of the protons on the nucleus of the promise to try and unlock the power held within the words of the promise. It has been assaulted with intercession and prayer for a long season. But now we are in that pause moment when the promise looks almost deflated and things are going backward and God says, "Don't use prayer. Don't use intercession. Praise does more than prayer in this regard", to trigger the nuclear fission of the nucleus and release the incredible power locked up, in the words of the promise of God to His remnant. Then He said, "Make My Name great in the earth. Magnify Me". As one praises and focuses on adoration at the wonder of His person, it will cause the breakthrough of the sudden release of power. There will be an unlocking of that stored up power.

It is the fullness of our inheritance, stored up beyond the reach of change or decay in heaven for us. Now, you know, people think that's talking about what you get when you get to heaven. No, an inheritance is only useful while you're still alive on earth. What good is an inheritance if you're dead and you're not there to receive it on earth? Inheritance stored up in heaven for us is going to be released within us at the appointed moment - this nuclear fission moment that God is telling us praise will trigger. Then He suddenly reminded me of a dream I had had in 2019, and I'm going to share a portion of it. Now, I've discovered since the 7th that that dream has got a double layer of meaning. But up till this week I've only understood one layer. So, I'm going to share the relevant portions of the dream. And then I'm going to share the one layer of meaning as it pertains to the woman and the manchild:

So, on the 22nd of January 2019, in the dream, it was unbearably hot and people were seeking relief in rivers and pools. And I watched from a distance a group of children venturing into the river, but scurrying back quickly in case there was something dangerous in the water. Then I moved through some kind of hotel. There was a big room, and people were sitting around in loungers and guests in the hotel were sitting around drinking coffee, talking, and there was a banqueting table with chocolate egg type desserts on platters lying around. And one of the guests told me to help myself. I examined them briefly, but they looked too big and too sweet. Then I followed the waitress through a side door to the outside, as the main exit was clogged with people milling about. The door emerged high up in mid-air with only one big step, and I thought to myself, "this would be a great place for a bride to make her entrance at her wedding".

In the garden, which was a flat valley with a row of mountains on the left, there were many, many people. It was a hot, sunny day, and as I went quickly in the direction I had intended, suddenly I heard a loud bang and I looked up and multiple portals had broken open in the mountain range on the left, and water was gushing out in mighty waterfalls out of each one. There was a helicopter hovering above the gushing water. I turned around and I started running, passing people who were completely unaware of what was happening. I passed children and I told them to run, and then a little boy was just standing, staring at the sight, and I knew he would never be able to outrun the water. So, I scooped him up and began to run again, yelling to everyone, including his friends, "Run, run, look up, run!" And as they realized what had happened, they began to run. Then there was another loud bang and the mountains broke open in another area further along, also 3 or 4 openings - like hidden gates opening or breaking, and more waters began to pour out. And I felt a great sadness in the dream as I knew the little children I had seen playing in the river earlier would all be swept away.

The entrance to the hotel was congested with people trying to flee to safety inside. And so I took a different route, which was actually straight ahead of me. It was a grassy, leaf-littered pathway covered by an overhanging avenue of trees, and it led to the front garden of the hotel. I went inside easily, as no one had come this way, and I went to a man who was waiting in a room that had been prepared for people that would arrive. I set the little boy down and I said, through the glass wall from the room next door, that I would help him. But at that moment a man in authority in the hotel came in and told the man in the prepared room to take charge of the people arriving. I was irritated that he ignored me, so I said, "Well, I will do the next door room". I stood and watched a pack of people herding into the door of the hotel and I was overwhelmed with horror, as I knew that many of my nearest and dearest had perished. And I said loudly, "Oh God, it's the dream. It's the dream!" I woke up from that dream traumatized.

Later on that day, when I had the dream, I went to gym and the Lord began to explain and interpret the dream to me. This is what he said: "On the day after the wedding. I will cause my mountains to break forth. I will open the portals of the ancient aqueducts of My Spirit, stored deep beneath the earth". (Then I realized there had been seven gates opened in the mountains altogether. First three and then four more. So, the fountains of the seven spirits of God, deep aquifers hitherto never tasted. But now those who are his mountains, His chief ones, will bring forth the blessing of the ancient hills. That is part of the blessing of Joseph). And God continued, "You will play the part of carrying the manchild during this time and bringing him to the inner chamber. The reason the manager did not speak to you is because you were invisible. The place of safety, the garden room is the Garden of Eden, where My overcomers can enter and be fed."

And I said, "Lord, why was I so shocked then in this dream, if this is a good thing?" And He said, "You were overcome with the knowledge that many close to you have not prepared themselves sufficiently. For those who are righteous. My judgments are not something to fear, for they bring recompense and reward." And I said, "Lord, all those children were swept away. How terrible." And He said, "Yes, My daughter, but My children have played in the river for long enough. They should have spent the time preparing and making themselves ready". And I said, "What of the dream I referred to twice at the end?" He said, "Yes, it is the dream you thought of the flood of judgment that comes and is at the door". Oh, I said, "So it's a flood of judgment, not a literal flood?" "It's both, My daughter. First the natural and then the spiritual." "So why did you give me this dream this morning, Lord?" I asked Him. "I wanted to show you the sequence of timing and the multitudes in the Valley of Decision. First the breaking forth and then the scooping up of the man, child and passage along the avenue of glory to the garden". "What does the hotel represent, Lord?" I asked. “It is the modern church who feast when they should fast and hold entertainment upon entertainment, and lie exhausted from drink in the morning of the Day of the Lord. They are the guests at the wedding”.

So that was the dream that I was reminded of when I was walking around the block on the 7th and I said, “Lord, what are you saying by reminding me of this dream? What is the connection to nuclear fission?” And He said, “At Easter, the idle church will be swept to destruction, but the watching ones will see and understand what is coming and warn and be led to safety”. Then He showed me a scripture in revelation 12:10

I heard a strong voice in heaven saying, now is come the salvation and power, and kingdom of our God and of his Christ.

Why does it say that? Why is it now suddenly come, in the midst of talking about the dragon and all sorts of other things? Why is the kingdom NOW coming? And God reminded me again of the nuclear fission, the release of power, as division of the nucleus of God's blueprint is broken open. This is what we pray for, Remnant. 'Let Your kingdom come. Let Your will be done', but the kingdom is WITHIN us. So, the deliverance and power of the kingdom spoken of in revelation 12:10 is released WITHIN us. Deliverance from what? Deliverance from accusation, because it says just before that that satan, the accuser, is cast down. There was no room for him in heaven anymore, and he was cast to the earth.

So, God spoke of a return to Eden for the overcomers. Now, you know in the letters to the seven churches, one of them says those who overcome are granted to eat of the Tree of Life. Revelation 12:5, the catching up of the manchild to God and the throne is where the eating of the Tree of Life begins. So, it says in Revelation 12 that the woman flees to the wilderness. In the geographical landscape, Israel is on the other side of the Jordan. The wilderness side is the place where God cared for and provided for the Israelites with fire by day, cloud by night, manna daily. So, when the woman flees to the wilderness, she's fleeing to a place where she's prepared for - but in the journey of her life. It is a retreat. Now, Revelation 12 in The King James says that the woman flees to a RETREAT prepared for her, and retreat means 'to go backwards along the way you came'.

Now, about the woman being supplied with the wings of a giant eagle. I have asked the Lord, "What does this mean? How does it manifest? What is it talking about?" It's such a mysterious phrase, and yet it's connected to Deuteronomy 32, where God hovered above Jacob when He found him in the wilderness, and He carried him on His wings like an eagle, and there was no foreign god amongst them. I heard a preacher, Dutch Sheets explain what these wings of a giant eagle are talking about, and also about those who wait upon the Lord mounting up on wings as eagles. Now listen here, already when I said 'Dutch Sheets', some of you gasped in horror and thought, "Oh no! She's been listening to the New Apostolic Reformation and that's heresy. And oh no, now I'm going to have to cancel my subscription". Listen here - when you buy a diamond or when you find a diamond that really your heart falls in love with, do you say, "Who mined this diamond? Were they spirit-filled? Were they Believers? What is their doctrine? Is it correct or were they pagan?" A diamond is a diamond. It doesn't matter who discovered it. It doesn't matter who dug it up. It doesn't matter who cut and polished it. A diamond is a diamond. So, when you get a nugget of information, even if you are like Elijah and He's brought it with an unclean bird bringing you a piece of torn off bread or flesh - even if you're getting it from what is considered an unclean source, if God brought it your way, for goodness sake, consume the nourishment that's in it! Trust the Spirit of God!

Now this is that this thing about the wings of a giant eagle which is such a gem. So, listen to this now. The Assyrian soldiers that surrounded Jerusalem and blockaded and stockaded the city, trained war eagles. What they did was that the soldiers braided the legs of the eagles to their arms with a three-fold cord; a plait of thongs. And those eagles were trained that when they were released, they would fly high and soar in the air - and, you know, an eagle has incredibly strong wings. The span of their wings is immense. So what these Assyrian soldiers did is that they would release the war eagles and the eagles would soar up into the heavens, and the momentum of their upward soaring would lift the Assyrian soldiers off their feet. They had trained the eagles to fly towards the target, so the Assyrian soldiers were lifted up, defying gravity, and they ran in great strides along the earth because they were carried on eagle's wings. It was not their own momentum. It was not their own strength. It was not their own fleshly ability. It was the great strength and wings of the eagles that they were braided to that propelled them forward in great strides, and then they would release the birds, and the battle would continue. So, Deuteronomy 32:9-13 describes God finding Jacob in the desert and bearing him on eagle's wings. So, we know the story of what happened in the desert with the Israelites. They were protected; a fire by night, a cloud by day. They were given daily food. They were led by the cloud right to the Promised Land. That is what being carried on eagle's wings looked like. They were completely cared for, like the woman that is given the wings of a giant eagle and taken to the place prepared for her - that retreat prepared for her, to be fed and kept safe for three and a half years.

Isaiah 40. 'Those who wait upon the Lord will renew their strength'. They will get a fresh burst of strength. They will mount up on wings as eagles. They are NOT eagles, but they are braided in a three-fold cord to God, who spreads abroad His wings and carries them. And what are the wings? Well, that's an interesting thing, because then we go to Ruth and Boaz at the threshing floor, and she said to him, in the early part of the morning watch, "Spread the wing of your garment over me". It's actually talking about the edge of his prayer shawl; the wing of his garment. What she was saying to him was, "Marry me, I want to be your wife". And when an Israelite man married a woman in the ancient Israelite wedding ceremony, when they said the vows under the chuppah, he would wrap her in his prayer shawl to symbolize she's coming under his care and protection. So, it's the care and the protection of the marriage covenant of our Bridegroom - it's THOSE wings that carry us like wings of an eagle. Isn't that beautiful? Isn't that a diamond worth picking up and keeping no matter who dug it up?

The heavy latter rain of the fullness of the Spirit will be poured out upon the bondservants of the Lord, just as Ruth had gathered one measure of barley by her own efforts, but received six more measures in a mighty outpouring into her veil, a gift from the kinsman redeemer; her bridegroom-to-be, in the darkness of the early morning watch (before one could recognize another). That's when he told her to leave the threshing floor. So, when was that, exactly? I've shared this with you before. It's Nautical Twilight, that part of the morning watch when there are just outlines on the horizon, but you can't see detail. Ruth left the threshing floor with the fullness of the outpouring from the bridegroom in Nautical Twilight. In the Morning Watch Year, it represents the four months of Shevat, Adar, Aviv and Iyar.

Tonight, the new moon has been sighted. As I've shared at the beginning, it's the new moon for Adar, if you're following the Early Barley Ripeness Calendar. So, we're a quarter of the way through the four months that represent Nautical twilight. Adar is the month of setting His gems in place. Last time I shared with you in 'The Holding Pattern of His Will', I said, go and search with the word 'Adar' on my website and read the revelation God gave me about the setting of His gems in place, connected to the month of Adar. But where are they being set in place? In their Throne Room positions washed by the worship of the living creatures and the 24 elders. Remember, praise has more power than prayer in this regard. 2024 IS THE YEAR OF THE THRONE ROOM for the remnant. Do you know how I know that? Because the word 'Lamb' appears 24 times in the Book of Revelation. There are 24 elders in the throne room that John was caught up to see. Because a door opened in heaven, God took him to the place of worship around the throne, where the living creatures continually say, "Holy, holy, holy," and the 24 elders cast down their crowns and say, "Worthy are You!" Read Revelation 4 - its worship! When God said, "Make My Name great. Magnify Me in the earth!" - that's what they doing in the throne room. God wants you to duplicate the throne room on earth. Let the throne room come on earth as it is in heaven!

Then the Lord took me to Deuteronomy 32:3&4. This is what Moses declared just before the Israelites were going to enter the Promised Land. It's the Song of Moses. It's significant that it's a song because God said, we must praise Him and worship Him, because praise has more power than prayer in this regard. So the Song of Moses says this. (And as God took me there, I spoke it out loud):

'I will proclaim the name of the Lord, ascribe greatness to our God, the Rock... (Remember God said, "Make My Name great"). His work is perfect, and all His ways are just, a God of faithfulness, without injustice, good and upright is He.'

And as I spoke this out, I suddenly had a vision of incredibly huge, giant, solid double doors slowly beginning to swing inward. They were very thick and heavy. They looked like the doors of a treasury; a safe, locked up place, and once they were open wide enough there was this light that came from inside there and a flood of treasure - I couldn't discern individual pieces... there were vague outlines of jewels, coins. everything was gold, gold, gold, it poured out through those partially open doors in a river towards me and landed at my feet. And then I heard the scripture:

'the inheritance stored up in heaven beyond the reach of change or decay...'

And then I understood what the nuclear fission was about, and what the praise that has more effect than prayer is going to trigger. As we magnify Him with ferocious praise and decrees, it causes what has been stored up in heaven for us to be suddenly released in a great flood. Just like that picture of the explosion, the fullness of the seven Spirits of God - our inheritance stored up for us for this hour, for this moment in spiritual history (It's not about physical wealth as much as spiritual wealth), the POWER of the kingdom is released. Remember, Revelation 12:10 'NOW IS COME the salvation and power of the kingdom of our God and of His Christ.'

It is a praise frequency that is the key to unlocking these double doors - and it's significant that there were DOUBLE doors, because it speaks of a double portion. This is the inheritance of the sons of the right hand. You know, it's normally a key that unlocks doors that are locked and impregnable. Isaiah 22:22 speaks of the key of David being placed upon the shoulders of those whom God has raised up. Eliakim means 'the god of raising'. He raises up one and He puts down another. The Key of David is connected to praise and worship because what did David do? He wrote the Psalms. And what are the Psalms? They are continually repetitive decrees and worship, magnifying the greatness, the faithfulness, the power, the beauty of God Almighty - that's the key of David. It's the frequency that magnifies and makes the Lord God great. Now in revelation 3:7, God speaks to the church of Philadelphia, and He identifies what part of His personality He's representing to the Church of Philadelphia. And He says:

'And to the Angel of the Assembly in Philadelphia, write, these are the words of the Holy One, the True One, He who has the key of David, Who opens, and no one can shut, Who shuts, and no one can open.'

He has the Key of David. So, He speaks of opening and nobody can shut that. What is opened? The door to the Bridal Chamber for the wise virgins, the overcomers, the Philadelphia church to enter the place of intimacy with the Bridegroom. And this Holy One and True One, Who shuts, and no one shall open, what is shut? The door of the Bridal Chamber! And who cannot open it? The foolish virgins, with no extra oil, those who are unprepared.

Now Eliakim was in the natural, the one who God spoke about in Isaiah 22:22 and as I've said, it means 'God of raising', but it comes from a root word H6965 which is 'raising', but come also means 'to confirm, to decree, to ordain, to raise up, to establish, to take for oneself, to choose or to elect for office'. Now those are really important meanings when you think of the manchild being caught up to the throne, the manchild raised up to the throne! The God of Raising raises up the manchild to a higher spiritual elevation. The God of Raising chooses for Himself and takes for Himself, and prefers and ordains and elects to office the manchild. 'And they shall be Mine, in the day I openly declare them' Malachi 3. Many are called, but few are chosen. The manchild, or those who are chosen and elected to office and governmental authority from a throne room level - they are the sons of the right hand. Isaiah 22:20 says, 'it shall come to pass in that day that He will call by name His bondservant Eliakim, the son of Hilkiyah...' And then verse 21 describes him receiving governmental authority. Eliakim came out of the loins of Hilkiyah. Hilkiyah in the Hebrew means 'portion of Yah'. But what is 'portion'? It's a Hebrew word H2506. It means 'allotment or inheritance'. The manchild are chosen as His inheritance; the inheritance of Yahweh and God raises them up and brings them forth, catches them up, and elects them to office, releasing governmental authority. That's why God wanted me to release this word on the new moon, on the 12th of January - because 12 is the number for governmental authority. It's also the first of Adar - the month for setting His prepared and waiting priests in place in their offices.

God is enthroned in the praises of His people. And if the Key of David actually represents the frequency of praise and of worship, who does the key belong to? Revelation 3 tells us that the Holy One and True one Has the key. But the Word tells us elsewhere that the praise and worship belong to God. Revelation 4:9 says, 'Glory and honor and thanksgiving to Him'. Verse 11 says, 'Worthy are You to receive glory and honor and dominion'. Revelation 5:12 says, 'Worthy is the Lamb to receive power, riches, honor, might, wisdom, majesty, and blessing' That is seven things! Fully worthy to receive all those things is the Lamb upon the throne. Verse 13 says 'To Him on the throne, be blessing...' So, the key, which is praise and worship belongs to Him; the Lamb upon the throne, the Holy One, the True One, He has that in His possession. It belongs to Him!

So I received all that while I was walking around the block, and then I was looking up the scriptures afterwards. Later, I had to get in my car and go somewhere, and in front of me was a car with a number plate that said '84441', and then the Spirit reminded me that 444Hz is known as the Key of David. You know, it was one of the Nazi officials that set 432 hertz as the musical standard worldwide for tuning musical instruments, but 444Hz is incredibly beneficial and healing to the cells of the human body. It's just a little bit higher... And isn't that like the Nazis? Isn't that like satan, who was in charge of worship in heaven, to set a standard in the earth that is not beneficial to human beings, but actually is jarring to the cells of the human body, when actually, if you come up a little bit higher and you worship before the throne, the Lamb on the throne is washed with worship and praise in 444Hz. So there in front of me was 84441 and the Lord said to me, "Go to Psalm 81 when you get home".

'To the chief musician, a psalm of Asaph. Sing aloud unto God our strength. Make a joyful noise unto the God of Jacob. Take a psalm, and bring the timbrel, the harp with the psaltery. Blow the trumpet on the new moon, in the time appointed, on our solemn feast day. For this is a statute for Israel, and a law of the God of Jacob'.

So that was the scripture I read when I came back from my little trip to town. It's talking about praise. It's talking about worship to the One who sits on the throne. Do you see what I mean when I said that there was a whole banqueting table with all these different dishes, and they were all connected, but they were all separate. It was just a mind blowing experience, but on that day, the 7th, as I digested everything God gave me and He showed me it was a double DNA strand, I said, "Lord, when do you want me to release this?" And He said, "Go to Psalm 81". He actually said to me, "Let Me use you as my shofar," and He took me to Psalm 81. 'Blow the shofar on the new moon'. I looked it up on the internet, and actually the day that is the official new moon day is yesterday, the 11th, but the human eye could not see such a small sliver. So, the first time the moon could be sighted from Jerusalem is on the 12th. And as we know, it was sighted at 17h21 in Israel. A sliver was a sighted. With blowing the shofar, or making a decree or releasing a blueprint, saying what you hear the Father saying, there has to be precise timing. And the Lord instructed me to read the revelation He gave me on the 7th every day, and let it be fully digested and become flesh in me, before He would use me as His shofar to announce it on this day. So, this message and series of messages is the blowing of the shofar on the new moon by the Lord.

Now I just want to share that when a DNA strand with two chromatids is unzipped, (there's actually an enzyme that is released that unzips the bonds between the two chromatids to make them single), scientists have discovered that when those two chromatid strands (the two sides of the ladder) are unzipped, there is a mighty pulse of violet light. Isn't that astounding? Absolutely astounding. When the two strands that make up a full DNA blueprint are separated in order to digest and to rightly divide and to let the word become flesh in you, God has ordained that there's an incredible release of light. Is there not an incredible release of light and power when the nuclear fission happens? So, I know that as I share what God has shown me from this banqueting table, this DNA blueprint for the season ahead, you who hear and see what I am saying, are going to receive an incredible impartation of spiritual light and revelation deep within your spirit, but it's going to take you time to digest it.

So, I am going to stop there now because I see it's almost a full hour. We've managed to sample a number of dishes on that banqueting table, but I am going to continue in part two tomorrow morning. So may the Spirit of Truth lead you into all truth. May the light of the seven Spirits of God before the throne be your portion as we start the month of Adar, in the mighty name of Yeshua. Amen.
