

A Cooking Class and a Comet

AUDIO VERSION

Hi everyone, it's been about a week since I released my last part four of 'The Banquet and The Blueprint'. I hope you've had time to digest that or go through the transcripts. Welcome to any new listeners. I would suggest you going to my website, and sign up for email subscription because I do send out transcripts of the message. At the end of every month, I will send transcripts for the month and post them on the storehouse page of my website, but until the month is over, the only way you can get the transcript is if you are an email subscriber. Just a warning - If you are Gmail or Yahoo, they generally remove the PDF attachments or put my emails in the junk folder.... Or they don't arrive at all. So if you have subscribed and you are Gmail or Yahoo email service, please write to me at freshoil@polka.co.za and I will put you on a private group that I send to from my computer, not from the bulk sending site. That seems to work better.

Okay, so I've got a number of different topics I want to share, just touching on things I've shared in the past and adding to it, and some things that have been happening to me since I released my last podcast. So, I did discuss with you holding patterns; how the Lord has the Tip of the Spear forerunner company in a holding pattern or a pause. I discovered that I have a listener who is actually a trained pilot, and he explained to me more about holding patterns. So, I want to share that with you because it's significant, and it's going to help you to understand why you're getting this waiting period and how long it is.

So, what he explained is that the control tower at the airport puts multiple planes in holding patterns at the same time, but it gives them different areas of the sky to do their holding pattern in - so they are stacked in holding patterns, and the one that is in the lowest holding pattern is given instruction to land first. What does that mean spiritually? It means that your holding pattern is not only about you! The length of your holding pattern is dependent upon other people that are stacked below you, also in safe areas being told to move forward and to land at their destinations. So, if you feel like it's going on for a really long time, why is it dragging out? Have you heard wrong? Where's God? And if you're getting really discouraged, don't be like that, Beloved. Understand that God is orchestrating and synchronizing the movements of His Kingdom in this vast kaleidoscope dance. If you've ever looked in a kaleidoscope. Um, if you don't know what a kaleidoscope is, look it up on Google. But we used to have them as children.

You look into the viewer at the one end of this, um, tube, and at the other end are all sorts of bits of coloured glass with mirrors dividing them. And as you turn the kaleidoscope, they all fall into the most beautiful changing patterns. And it looks like the synchronized dance of different coloured jewels. And that's almost what it's like with his remnant. God is synchronizing everything. Your movements trigger other movements.

Another example is the workings of a clock. Little cogs turn and then it sets other cogs turning. All have understanding of the times, and they are part of displaying the fullness of heaven's time on the clock face. The cogs are hidden, behind the face of the clock.

They moving in secret. They moving stealthily. They moving quietly... but they are not moving in isolation.

So, you're in a stacked holding pattern. God is orchestrating the timing of your release from the holding pattern, and it is affecting and triggering other people. Once the lowest plain has been told to land, then the one above it is told to land. So, the release of one Tip of the Spear remnant saint is making way for the next remnant saint, that has been in a holding pattern for a little bit longer, to be released. I find that very helpful. So, you don't need to get anxious about the length of time.

The other thing I want to share is that I have realized in the past couple of weeks that I had got a bit of prepper burnout, having been doing it for some years, and I had said to the Lord, "Lord, is there anything else that I do need to get while I still have buying power, while I can access my bank account? Is there something that I've missed? Please, would you show me?" And He showed me a couple of health supplements that I needed to get. The one was selenium - which is good for the treatment of Ebola... and we all know that the dreaded 'E' is probably going to be part of the next pandemic. So, I had ordered some, and as I collected my delivery box from the gate and I walked into my house with this little box, I had the sense wash over me that I was busy carrying my final preps into my ark of preparation. And that is, of course, an allusion to Noah in his final week before the judgment rain began and the flood came. God instructed Noah to get all the food for the animals into the ark, get the animals into the ark and his own belongings. And so, I'm not saying that that specific day is the end of the time we have for preparation, but the Spirit was warning me that the time of preparation for your ark of preparation is coming to an end.

The phrase I was given was 'down to the wire'. So, I looked up the source of that phrase. And it's actually comes from horse racing, where horses that were neck and neck would race. And then it was the horse that just had its neck stretched out further, which crossed the wire first. In other words, being 'down to the wire' means that the end of your preparation race is in sight and there's a very short period of time. Put your whole strength and your whole effort into crossing the wire and being fully prepared in your natural ability, guided by the wisdom of the Spirit of God.

So then, on the 22nd (Monday), the Lord just said a phrase to me while I was making my bed. He said, “24 is war and more”. (And that is apostrophe 24). In other words, the year 2024 is war and more. Now, I have learned to not jump to conclusions with what the Lord says, and I usually ask Him to explain further what he means by what he said. So, I said, “What is more referring to?” This is what He said: “Plague, pestilence, acceleration of famine... Hard times is an understatement”. And I said to Him, “But, Lord, you have spoken of these things before. Why do you emphasize this now?” And this is what he said, “Because My people do not grasp the severity of what is unfolding. The spirit of slumber is hard at work, blanketing their discernment and lulling them into believing there is still time. If they could see what I see, they would sleep less and maximize the hours before dense darkness settles in.”

When He said that, I remembered that verse that says ‘make the very most of the time for the days are evil’. I don't know where it is. You can look that up. So Beloved, we have to pray for ever increasing discernment and war against the activity of the spirit of slumber, stroking us back to sleep. You know when an alarm clock rings, if you lie on your pillow and you keep your eyes shut and you just put out your hand and groggily switch the alarm clock off and you just think, “Just five minutes more...”, all of us know that five minutes actually stretches to half an hour, because when you're asleep, time goes very quickly. Then you wake up and you realize you got 15 minutes to get dressed, eat breakfast, get in your car and get to work - and you know that it's physically impossible to do it in that short amount of time.

Now the Word of God says, ‘Your Word is a lamp to my feet and a light to my path’. It's the Word that gives light to our path - not the news channels, not the prophecy blogs... GOD'S WORD. Discernment is about light, seeing where you stand and what is in front of you. Remember Nautical Twilight, which are the Hebrew months (in this Morning Watch Year) of Shevat, Adar, Aviv and Iyar, is the time of enemy infiltration for positioning themselves close by to launch attack. Only His Word brings spiritual light. You're not going to find it in the news channels, and it's very dicey to think you're going to get it from the prophecy blogs, because you need specific light for YOU. Many of the prophecy blogs are mixture second to none, and you may not have the necessary light or discernment to know which is soulish and which is from the Spirit of God. So, when you're seeking light and understanding and direction, it is His Word that will give it to you. God actually had me delete my password for the Netflix account that I had access to, because it was too tempting when I was exhausted at the end of the day, to just watch something nice and benign and relax and not have to think. And the Lord said it is stealing precious time. So, when He said to me that day, “If they could see what I see, they would sleep less and maximize the hours before dense darkness settles in”, and I knew that part of maximizing those hours would be taking the hours back that I have used in the evenings to just relax and watch something benign and entertaining.

Only His Word brings light. David wrote in the Psalms, ‘Send out Your light and truth, and lead me to Your holy hill’. Proverbs says, ‘Do not lean on your own understanding. In all your ways acknowledge Him and he will direct your path’. Elsewhere in Psalms, it says, ‘I will counsel you with My eye upon you. Do not be like the horse or the mule that lacks understanding and it will not come with you’. So, when the Spirit prompted me that it would be a really good idea for me to delete access to Netflix, I could have been stubborn and said, “God, you know how tired I get, especially after I've released a podcast and done the transcript. And really, I just want to put my feet up and chill...” I could have argued with God, but I knew in the depth of my heart that He was giving me a key to steal back from the spirit of slumber precious hours of my 24 hour day.

You see, you can be asleep and be awake at the same time. You can be spiritually asleep and have your eyes open at the same time. So, it is the entrance of His Word that brings light. Light is understanding, revelation and truth. If you are needing direction for your life about what to do next, you're going to get the understanding for that from His Word, the bread of His Word, broken and opened up to you by the Spirit of Truth. So you must study the original. You know, with banknotes, you get counterfeit ones and you get real ones. When they training bank tellers, they don't get them to study counterfeit notes. They get them to study in minute detail the important details of the real notes. You can take this to the bank - the Word of God is the truth and nothing but the truth. It contains light. Pure light. So, God, who is the God of Light, wants to shine His light on your path, using the tool of His Word, quickened by the Spirit of God.

Now I'm going to discuss a topic that there's a lot of stuff in the news about at the moment. I just felt I needed to address it because there are people that look into this topic, but others will have nothing to do with it. And that is the topic of visitors from other planets and aliens. Okay, so, let's look at the truth and the original and the real banknote! Remember this, Genesis 6 describes a detailed plan to defile the genetics of the human race by mixing fallen angel seed with human seed. Just as in plant breeding, where scientists do generations of cross-breeding, and during those repeated cross-breedings they remove unwanted characteristics and maximize desired characteristics. (Anyone who's a plant breeder or a botanist or an anything to do with agriculture knows this) ... the same thing has been done regarding the infiltration of the human race. Genesis 6 tells us that 'there were giants in the earth in those days...' and the key phrase is '... AND AFTERWARDS'. Now, when the flood of Noah happened, God declared He was going to destroy all FLESH - but fallen angels are not flesh. They are spirit. So, God destroyed the hybrids; the Nephilim, or the giants that were born of human women from intimacy with fallen angels, but the fallen angels escaped the judgment because they dwell in the second heaven and visit earth whenever they feel like it.

If you remember, the Israelites had to battle the giants (or the 'nephilim' is the Hebrew word for it. Nephilim is plural, or a single hybrid, which is 'nephal'), and the Israelites had to battle them long after the flood of Noah, and take possession of the Promised Land. Remember also that satan's ultimate ambition is to sit on the throne of God as God. Who is God? He is the Creator of mankind in His own image. The defilement of the human race began in Genesis 6, and the ultimate goal is to produce a race in satan's image. Now, as I said in the beginning of this topic, there's been increasing focus on alien visitation and UFO unveilings and records are being revealed of military planes having sighted UFOs and all that kind of thing. Now, I had quite a solid discipleship in truth, when I was at university, we were taught about a lot of things - not by the university, but by the fellowship I was at! I was always taught that these alien visitations and unveilings was contact with the demonic and with fallen angels.

Now, ancient civilizations have recorded interactions with alien beings who bred with human women and ruled over them. Gilgamesh was one who ruled for a thousand years, and there are actually depictions of him in carvings, being very tall and holding a lion under his one arm armpit. Now, a lion is actually quite big, so, an ordinary sized man could not do such a thing because it would be too heavy. So, if you want to learn more about this, go to Steve Quail's website. He has done a whole dvd series on excavations that took place in Mexico, and the actual evidence they've uncovered about ancient civilizations interacting with these 'visitors' and producing babies that had a lot of the characteristics of these 'visitors', and there are actual physical discoveries of artifacts. When archaeological evidence of giants and these kind of things (similar to what Steve and his team recently discovered) were taken to the Smithsonian Institute in the past; huge giant bones, giant skulls (It's been happening for centuries), they would be taken to the Smithsonian Institute and disappear completely from public record. So, it's been hidden for a very long time, but it's being unveiled and given spotlight exposure now because there is coming satan's grand finale plan.

When Revelation 12 says that there was war in heaven and Michael and his angels fought satan and his angels, and there was no room found for them in heaven anymore, and they were thrown down to earth. Now we who have studied this can see that that casting to earth is satan's final wrath against mankind, and he has a short time and he will inhabit the antichrist and motivate him to persecute believers as the Book of Daniel speaks. There will be tribulation for three and a half years, which is why the woman is hidden and kept safe for three and a half years. So, for those who are not aware of this, there are coming in the near future, revelations of archaeological discoveries that support satan's intention to be seen as the architect of the human race, completely altering historic records and challenging the Biblical account in Genesis 1. These will not be hoaxes. They will be extremely confusing to those who do not have their roots firmly in the Rock of Truth, and who do not know the Word of God in detail. Many will abandon their faith and embrace the delusion that God Almighty is not their creator, and therefore could not possibly have provided a Savior for mankind made in His image.

So, understand this - the defilement of the bloodlines is ultimately a well-crafted, multi-generational plan to present an argument that nullifies the power of the Blood of the Lamb to provide salvation for human beings. I want you to know that it's all lies. Satan is the father of lies, and he's been a liar from the beginning, and he has never stopped lying... but he's very crafty in the way he lies. "Did God really say?" is what he said to Eve... and then he presents evidence that seems to indicate that she's been hoodwinked. The same kind of thing is going to happen again when the endless evidence begins to be presented. DO NOT spend time poring over the documents, videos and interviews. DO NOT STUDY THE COUNTERFEIT. Understand it is rooted in Genesis 6, not Genesis 1. The father of lies is well practiced in spinning a convincing story, and with the increasing presence of a AI governing the internet as a source of so-called 'reliable' information, there will not be places 'out there' that you will be able to source truth. Truth tellers will be shut down, banned, gagged and often removed from society permanently via some form of murder. Your only reliable source of information is the Word of God - not new translations of ancient scriptures that they keep coming up with, but the old translations, the Spirit of Truth will lead you into all truth, Not AI, not scientists and not archaeologists that are pushing the narrative that visitors from outer space spawned the human race. I really wanted to stress that because it's going to be a strong delusion that takes hold of much of the earth, and many believers who have never taken the time to study the Word of God and grow strong in their faith and to plant the true Word of God in their heart, are going to be falling away and embracing what is presented to them as truth, but is based on a lie that originated in the infiltration of the human genome in Genesis 6.

Everything Satan does is to defile the beauty of what God has created. You were not descended from alien visitors from another planet. You were created in the image of God, and the spark of life was given to you by God Almighty. It is said that when the sperm enters the ovum in the woman's reproductive system and conception takes place, there is a burst of light and power similar to what happens when nuclear fission happens (but on a much smaller scale). The creation of a human being in God's image is a powerful act of heaven within an earthen vessel. So please don't go down that path of deception, because the delusion will be strong. And make sure you toss off the spirit of slumber now!

If you haven't already got access to old reliable translations, download the E-sword app. You can get hold of multiple old translations. Also download the other free translations after the initial installation by clicking on the 'Download' button, like the Geneva Bible, which was written in 1587 (Very reliable). Also download the King James with the Apocrypha (KJVA), which is the books that they have left out of the Bible, such as the Maccabees, when they took back the temple that had been desecrated by the Romans. That's the reason for Hanukkah. There are a number of books in the Apocrypha that are edifying to read, even though they are not necessarily considered the inspired work of the Spirit of God. They were written by believers. Somebody sent me the Prayer of Azariah, which is one of the apocryphal books that the E-sword doesn't download, but Azariah was one of the three men that was thrown into the furnace. It is the most astounding record of high praise that was lifted up in that furnace. ...And as a result of that praise, the angels came and protected them from the flames.

You can Google it on the internet. Remember, 'PRAISE HAS MORE POWER IN PRAYER IN THIS REGARD!' So, check that out if you have time.

So, the next thing that happened is that on the 20th of January, I was forced to make peach jam. The 20th of January was a Saturday, and I normally try and take it easy on a Saturday; just rest, spend time with the Lord, relax and don't do a whole lot of hard labor. I'm not religious about it, but I know that human beings need a day of rest. So, I had on the Friday ordered a five-kilogram box of yellow clingstone peaches, and I had in mind that maybe I will stew some of them, maybe dry some of them in my dehydrator. It is part of my last-minute preps. So, when the box came. My friend handed me over the fence and I looked at it. It was an extremely hot day. It was about 34°C. I don't know what that is in Fahrenheit. It was very hot and we looked into the box and there were a couple of peaches that looked bruised and they were starting to go off, and I said, "Oh, this isn't great". And she said, "Oh yeah, just send me a photo and I'll show the supplier". Well. I lift them on my counter overnight.

The next day, 80% of those five kilograms of yellow cling peaches were rotten. I was so frustrated because now it was Saturday when I normally relax, and now I had to chop off all the rotten pieces and make jam with the remainder before they ended up in the same fate, because I didn't have room in the fridge for them. I had put the partly rotten ones in the fridge, and when I took them out, they were completely rotten, so the fridge was not an option. So, I was pretty frustrated that I was making peach jam on a Saturday morning, but I had to do it. And then I thought, what is going on here? So, I thought, let me investigate. Maybe God's trying to teach me something here. Maybe there's a lesson in this peach jam...

So, I looked up the etymology, (which, for those who don't know, is where that word comes from, the history of that word being written) and it said, 'the fleshy fruit of a peach tree', obviously from Old French, and directly from Medieval Latin; which is the word malum persicum, literally 'a Persian apple'. So, in Ancient Greek, persicus could mean 'Persian or peach'. Now I remembered that the Prince of Persia had warred with the angel when he was trying to bring the answer to Daniel's prayers, I thought, "Okay, so we are in the holding pattern and there's a delay in the answer coming", especially when the angel finally shows up, he says to Daniel, "The answer was sent the day you prayed, but the Prince of Persia has been resisting me", and he had to get more angel warrior help in order to get breakthrough and bring the answer through. Then I read also that the word 'peach' in 1754 meant 'an attractive woman'. I thought, "Yes, I've heard of that..." but in 1904 it meant 'a good person'. So, if a person was described as a peach, they were a really solid-to-the-core good person. So, of my five kilograms of peaches, which looked great on first sight, overnight, 70 to 80% were revealed to be rotting. In other words, the rot was already internal, but it came to the surface overnight and made them inedible. Only one third were real peaches or good people. Two thirds were rotten to the core, but it wasn't immediately apparent. Also It took great heat to reveal the inner rottenness.

Now, in my last set of messages, I spoke to you about the accuser of the brethren and the heel catcher, the spirit of jealousy launching attack, and that your enemies will be the members of your own household. So, if you look at my five kilograms of peaches representing the household of the Church of God as a whole, with the image and the lesson God was giving to me overnight, I knew that once the great heat of the Day of the Lord (the day that burns like an oven) starts, the inner rottenness of 70 to 80% will be revealed... And that's a tragic thing, because your enemies are the members of the rest of the five kilograms of peaches which you thought were real peaches or good people.

Then I discovered that when 'peach' is used as a verb, it means 'to inform against, to betray one's accomplices, to accuse, indict, and bring to trial'. Also, the old Middle English 'pilar' meant 'an accuser'. Once again, the Lord confirmed that in the day that burns like an oven, in the bulk of the Body of Christ, many will become agents of the accuser or the heel catcher. Brother will betray brother unto death, and a man's enemies will be the members of his own household.

Now, as my box of peaches shows, close contact with a peach rotten to the core in the nighttime hours will transfer and infect the one lying next to it. So, Beloved, be very careful who you associate with in these days - because those who are going to inform against and betray you because of things in their heart against you that are not immediately apparent, they are just rotten in the core. You can't see it. They will present things in a way that cause your ability to discern and your view of truth to be swayed. That's how the rottenness transfers and infects the peach next to it - and it comes from a root of bitterness. A root of bitterness, the Word tells us, defiles many. That's why Paul warned to watch yourself and one another, that a root of bitterness does not take hold. Sometimes, Beloved, you hold your ground in the spirit by holding your peace. Forgive quickly and completely, when someone says or does something to you that wounds you or makes you confused, or that is unwarranted or even cruel. Don't give the devil any room in your heart, no matter what the offense is. Lay it at the foot of the cross and say to the Lord, "I accept the payment of the Blood of the Lamb for the sin my brother or sister has committed against me. I accept the payment of the cross and the Blood. It is enough. I do not require any further payment and I release them." If you retain the sins of someone, they are retained. Remember that.

So that was really informative that I was working with peaches and the Holy Spirit showed me all this, and it connected with the heel catcher and everything we had shared before. So, I thought, okay, I'm making peach jam. Let me look up the word 'jam's' etymology. The verb 'jam' means 'to press tightly or to become wedged'. In other words, 'to be stuck in a place that you can't get out of'. It's often used of malfunction in the moving parts of machinery, or it is used to describe interference that is caused in radio signals. You can jam radio signals. So here I am making peach jam with the peaches that were basically rotten to the core. For each peach, I think I got about a teaspoon and a half of unmarred peach to make jam with.

Understand that the fact that there are people, especially of the Body of Christ, that in their hearts are not for you, although outwardly they seem to be for you, means they are giving landing space in their hearts for the accuser of the brethren and his demonic army to launch attacks from. Part of the attack is interference in the signals you're receiving from the throne room. That's why the angel said the Prince of Persia had resisted the answer to the prayer coming, because the signals were being interfered with and jammed, and Daniel had to wait three weeks.

When 'jam' is used as a noun, it means 'a tight pressing between two surfaces'. It also has the colloquial meaning 'to be in a predicament or a tight spot'. In other words, I'm in a jam. Basically, it's a trap. Now, Psalm 91, which I prayed this morning when I was breaking bread, says that if you dwell in the secret place of the Most High and make the Most High your refuge, it says, 'He will deliver you from the snare of the fowler'. Now a snare is an engineered thing by the trapper that wants to put you in a predicament and a tight spot where you can't get out. Basically, you're at the mercy of the trapper. It is satan who wants to trap you and get you into a jam - and he does it using those who are already betraying their brothers and sisters in their hearts who are harbouring bitterness, and operating in a spirit of jealousy, or who are harbouring unforgiveness and are not doing what the Word of God says. Their prayers are not being heard. If you don't forgive your brother, your prayers will not be heard by the Father, but the enemy can hear the frequency of the thoughts of your heart and mind, and if they are releasing a negative frequency, he picks up on it and starts sowing thoughts into the head of the person that is harbouring that bitterness and unforgiveness, and begins to control their thinking. Eventually, the rottenness that started in the core, in the heart, will make its way to the surface and start to infect others. A root of bitterness defiles many.

Okay, so I don't know if you've ever heard of the Japanese scientist (I can't remember his name), but he did experiments on water and the effect of different words on water as it was freezing. It's absolutely astounding the difference when you speak words like, 'I love you, you're beautiful, you've done so well'. Water freezes with the most beautiful geometrical crystal shapes because of the frequency of the words that is being released. But when you speak over water that is freezing, words like 'I hate you, you are stupid, you'll never amount to anything', or you play rock music over water as it's freezing, it makes the most ugly, jagged, non-geometrical crystal shapes. Now, our bodies are composed largely of water. So, the frequency of our thoughts and the frequency of spoken words is affecting the people around us. So, if you're struggling with unforgiveness and bitterness, deal with it because you're a tool in the enemy's hands, launching attack on your brothers and sisters in Christ.

What God wants is for you to love them, and for us to edify and build one another up more and more as we see the day of the Lord approaching. So, this was all very informative for me, and I was so grateful to the Holy Spirit for teaching me these things. While I was making the jam, I would stir the pot, run, look up something, go back, meditate on what I was shown and eventually, I got a small amount of jam. I got all these jars ready and when jam was finished it was really not much. But anyway, the lesson was worth the effort!

After this, the Holy Spirit reminded me of something I shared in a post called 'War Chronicles V'. I did a series on the things the Lord had shown me about the coming World War III, and what was going to be happening in the end times and in the 5th part of it, I shared about a seer prophet called Siener van Rensburg, who lived during the Boer War. He was an old man, who used to be given visions and dreams by the Lord, and then when he came out of them, he would get his family to write them down, and they have been preserved. He saw a lot of things about the end of time, World War III, nuclear war, all that kind of thing. It is so very interesting. I actually am putting on my website on the Storehouse page, a link to a PDF of the whole War Chronicles Series that I've made for you to download.

So, he had a vision of what he called 'the yellow peaches rain'. Siener van Rensburg saw a dam very full of water, and yellow peaches were lying on the ground under the trees, and then the dam ran dry. In Siener's time, the late summer rains in South Africa were referred to as 'the yellow peaches rain', and they usually began in mid-February and lasted till the end of February. Siener van Rensburg said that terrible trouble would break out when the yellow peaches rain had already begun. The dam running dry, he said, signified terrible financial trouble.

I'm going to share one more thing that is in War Chronicles V, but I don't want to go over the whole thing again because you can read it in the PDF. One evening when Siener grew quiet during a meal, his eyes became narrow and the family knew that he was having a vision. Then he said, "Please fetch the writing materials. And right there, I see a black cloud creeping over Europe from the east and covering it in darkness like night. A Russian emerges from the north. He is looking straight at us. The earth here in South Africa becomes like fallow land, but it is pitch black in Europe." At the time, many thought that this spoke about the Second World War. But we know now because of events that have unfolded, the Lord was showing him World War III, and you can read The Rest of War Chronicles V in that pdf I mentioned.

Okay, now I just want to discuss more developments concerning the red dragon waiting for the devouring of the man-child in Revelation 12, and things that have actually unfolded in the earth that are in line with the dragon warring against the remnant. At Davos, in January 2024, the World Health Organization announced plans to roll out a global police force that will be responsible for punishing citizens who spread non-mainstream content on the internet. Tedros, the head of WHO, said, "This is about a common enemy and without a shared response, we will face the same problem as Covid." He explained that the deadline for this legislation is May 2024, and member states are negotiating between countries to implement this. What this means, beloved, is that my podcast will probably close down and be removed from the internet in order to protect me, before that deadline of legislation rolls out. In other words, the Lord will be taking me into hiding to protect me, just like the woman flees from the flood of the dragon and is taken to a place prepared for her.

It's now January. That basically means that we have February, March, April. And sometime during the end of that time, the Lord is going to say to me, "Shut everything down and remove it, so that you cannot be found". So, it's going to be quite a logistical exercise for me to do that. I'm warning you about this because you can download my podcasts and you can download transcripts of previous podcasts, and you can download my books on my website. ...And for the rest of it, I'm not Moses! You have the Holy Spirit that will lead you into all truth. So, when it comes to that time, you will be okay. You have a direct connection with the Spirit of God. You do not need me.

Then I had a reader bring to my attention that Eid 2024, which is the end of the Ramadan fasting period, is probably going to fall on April 8th, and I found that quite significant because April 8th is the solar eclipse that we discussed in the last messages, the eclipse that is forming the letter Aleph over the USA and has the alignment of all the planets and some conjunctions. So, Ramadan and the fasting period, which I think is 40 days, actually what they do is they don't eat or drink during daylight hours, and then in the evening they really feast. What this does is it gives an incredible amount of power to the demonic realm. So that is just adding another element to what the April 8th solar eclipse is announcing as a sign in the sky - and what is happening on the earth, which is going to contribute to what is unleashed after April the 8th.

Remember. This date is the first day of the first month of the Hebrew calendar for those who follow the Hillel calendar. Now, an Islamic month, like the Hebrew month, can also be either 29 or 30 days long. So, the date could move one day either way, depending on when the new moon is sighted (Because they also do the Islamic calendar months according to the sighting of the new moon).

Reading the Sign Correctly

Now, the next thing I wanted to discuss is also a sign in the sky. There is a comet out there in the heavens that the media has dubbed 'the Devil Comet', because at times it appears to grow horns and it glows green. The name of this comet is comet 12P or comet Pons-Brooks. It will pass by the earth later this year. Now, Beloved, it's one thing to see a sign, but it is quite another to understand what the sign says. Some signs have images combined with texts, like signs that indicate where restrooms or bathrooms public bathrooms are. And sometimes you only get pictures for those like the little male or female figure (or both these days). It was the media who dubbed this comet 'the Devil Comet' because at certain times, it grows very bright and it seems to have these two horns. But do you know that the Word of God tells us that God has HORNS coming out of his hands in Habakkuk 3? And Moses had horns or rays of light emerging from his head after 40 days, face to face with God!

Now, the thing about interpreting signs is that soulish interpretation of a sign will lead to wrong decisions concerning the direction the sign is pointing. One cannot take the assessment of worldly media, calling this a 'devil comet', and assume that this is what God calls it. At the moment, there are many videos on YouTube using the phrase 'devil comet' from Christians, who are prophesying out of that name as to what the comet is doing in the sky. Yes, comet 12P is in certain constellations at significant times in this year 2024. However, remember what I said in the beginning when I was talking about alien visitors? The Word of God must be our ultimate authority if we try to understand a sign. We have to go back to the Word of God, not to the news media, not to social media, but to the Word of God, and ask the Spirit of Truth to lead us into all truth.

So, in War Chronicles V, Siener van Rensburg had a very interesting vision, during the Anglo-Boer War. He saw a gigantic comet that would appear in the heavens at the beginning of a future world war, which obviously we know now is World War III. Siener said that the strange comet had two tails in the shape of an inverted V. He didn't see them as horns. He saw them as tails of light, like an inverted V, and on one tail he saw the letter 'E', and on the other, the letter 'T'. Now when I asked the Lord, "What does this mean, Lord? What is these two letters mean on the two horns of this comet?" the Lord said, "Go back to the Hebrew". The English letter 'E' is the Hebrew letter aleph, the first letter of the alphabet, and the English letter 'T' is the Hebrew letter tav. So, it says aleph and tav on that comet's two horns of light. Siener (meaning 'seer') was a man who never read a magazine or a newspaper. He only read the Bible. He also knew nothing of the histories of nations, but he knew everything about them because of what the Spirit of God showed him in his visions. You can read that more in War Chronicles V.

So, we know from what Siener was shown, that this comet 12P is not a 'devil comet'. It's an Aleph Tav comet. Jesus is the First and the Last. He who began the good work in you will bring it to completion in the Day of the Lord. A number of times in Revelation, which is the revelation of Christ, mind you, not the revelation of the red dragon. It's the revealing of Christ as the Lamb that is found worthy. It's the revealing of the throne room - not the revelation of the red dragon and the antichrist, Jesus identifies Himself as Aleph Tav. He who is the Aleph and the Tav showed Siener van Rensburg that the comet that is coming at the beginning of a future world war is connected to Aleph Tav. And who is that? Jesus, the bright and Morning Star.

So, then I thought, okay, that makes perfect sense to me. Out with all the videos that interpreted this comet as the devil comet, doing soulish interpretation of the heavens using that wrong name. So then, Lord, what about the name 'Pons-Brooks', which is the name of the man who discovered it? So, I looked up the name 'Pons' and I found out it's derived from a Catalan word for 'bridge or river crossing'. And of course, 'brooks' means 'flowing streams'. So, we have a bridge crossing over flowing streams. Now, a bridge is to prevent the traveller from being swept away by the flowing streams. Think of the sevenfold flood of the seven heads of the dragon, released to overwhelm and sweep the woman away. The movement of this 12P comet in the heavens is a sign showing us and highlighting that there is a bridge being provided over the flowing streams from the dragon's mouth. This comet is basically speaking about the provision of a 'bridge over troubled water', so to speak. In Revelation 12 terms, it's the wings of a giant eagle are provided to protect the woman from the flood and take her where she needs to go, and the earth swallows the seven destructive streams.

So where was comet 12P when Jesus was on the cross? Let's go right back to the beginning with the genesis of this comet and the beginning of our story and reference point, because this is what the enemy wants to wipe out - the salvation of Christians according to what happened on the cross of Christ in 33 A.D. So, Jesus was on the cross on the 14th of Nisan. In that year of the Roman calendar, 33 A.D., the 14th of Nisan fell on the 1st April. So if you have a program like Stellarium, you can put that date in - the 1st of April 33 AD. And if you call that up in Stellarium or a similar program, you will find that the comet was where Ophiuchus and Scorpio meet. Now Ophiuchus depicts a man. Clutching with both hands onto Serpens, the snake constellation and wrestling with it. The comet is kind of in between Ophiuchus and the Scorpion.

I believe the presence of comet 12P between the type of Christ, Ophiuchus, and a depiction of satan as a scorpion, is alluding to Christ crushing the head of the serpent once and for all. That is the fulfilment of Genesis 3:15. On the cross, Jesus was battling darkness, and we know that the Word of God tells us that He overcame him. He triumphed over him, making a public spectacle of him on the cross. So, this comet is like a highlighter pen used to emphasize certain text, to draw a reader's attention to it.

So, let's check out what comet 12P Pons-Brooks is highlighting in 2024. We know, using Siener Van Rensburg's vision of the 'aleph tav' on the two horns of the comet, that it's drawing attention to the one who is the Aleph and the Tav. Who has rays of light beaming out of Him. Jesus said, "I am the Light of the world". Now we've got a comet that is showing in the heavens that He is the Light of the word. The Aleph and Tav of the Word made flesh will give light to our path and understanding to our spirits. The One who started the good work on the cross will finish it and bring everything to fullness of completion in Him in the Day of the Lord.

Comet 12P is a cryovolcano comet, or a cold volcano comet. It's about 17km across and it orbits the sun every 71 years. It's scheduled to slingshot around the sun in April 2024, before making its closest approach to earth on June the 2nd. It's expected to reach its maximum brightness, potentially being visible to the naked eye during the month of April 2024. Comet Pons-brooks will be located near Jupiter and 24.5 degrees from the eclipsed sun on April 8th. This means that the comet will be potentially visible at mid-eclipse to those searching with binoculars or capturing the scene with a camera. It will be between Jupiter and the sun, between the king planet and the eclipsed sun. And because of the light of the sun being blocked, this comet will be visible.

So, God is wanting us to notice Jupiter and the Sun of righteousness, the King planet and the Sun of righteousness. So, what He's doing is obscuring the light of the Sun of righteousness for a short period of time in order for that highlighter pen of 12P or Pons-Brooks to bring your attention to its position.

At the moment in January 2024, comet 12P is in Cygnus, which is a constellation that looks like a swan falling out of the heavens. It's like back diving. Is God giving us a sign that Satan is about to give his final performance, his indwelling of the antichrist and his taking over of the world?

It's interesting to note that there was a satanic record label called Swan Song that depicted satan falling from heaven. The parent company was the Warner Music Group and its founder was Led Zeppelin. It is not used anymore.

So, on the 21st of January, 2024, comet 12P is positioned in the left wing, the left armpit and wing of the Cygnus Swan constellation that is diving towards earth. The infilling of the Antichrist is the devil's swansong, his final performance before judgment.

However, it's also time now for the manchild company, the holy remnant, to be in position for THEIR swansong. Now, I wrote a post in July 2018 called 'Swansong', and today the Lord reconnected with that post, in which I describe a statue I saw of a figure doing a swallow dive, but strangely, the brass plaque identified it as being called 'swan' by its creator. So, today is the 25th of January. Yesterday, the Lord directed me to go to a mall and go to the bank, instead of going to my local branch of the bank. So I went there, and when I got to the bank, there was no space for me. There was no appointment. And I thought, "Well, what the heck am I here for then?" But as I had walked into the mall, I saw a huge giant statue entitled 'Surrender', and underneath the brass plaque said, 'Let go of yesterday and embrace tomorrow'.

But when I was leaving the mall again, I saw that same statue from the side, and the thought came to me that it looked exactly like a diver rising up from the diving board and about to flip over backwards into the position of a swallow dive. The photo I took is from the frontal view, a position of total surrender to the momentum provided by the spirit.

So, what does me seeing the statue and God connecting it to the swan song post mean? The Lord is saying, get ready to be catapulted into your swan song for the kingdom. So, I'm now going to read out of that original post 'The Swan Song', only part of it:

'I went closer to the statue of a swallow dive to read the plaque at its base, and was surprised to discover that the name of it was not 'Swallow', but 'Swan'. How interesting - swallow dives that are swan songs. In other words, these bondslaves of the Lamb have put all their strength into their final dive. A swan song is defined as 'a final performance, one which brings a life to completion before death'. These ones have come to the place of being fully conformed to the death of Christ, and know that the final stretch of the relay race is before them. They press on to win the prize for which Christ is calling them upward.

From within they find the store of resurrection power reserved for this day and hour, and they run this leg of the race with all their heart and soul and mind and strength, because the finish line is in sight. They are dead to this world, dead to personal ambition, dead to the praises of men. They take this final plunge for heaven's pleasure, seeking only to gain the approval of the audience of one for whom they leave the safety of the diving board. This tells you that they are completely free of the fear of man, and completely filled with the fear of God. This is what they've been trained for in the furnace of affliction. This is what they were born for. They have come to the kingdom for such a time as this, and they have nothing left to lose. They are not their own. They are bought with a price, and for them to live is Christ - and to die is gain.

I was reading a book recently which contained a record of people's last words upon their death beds. Anna Pavlova, the prima ballerina who danced in Swan Lake, was heard to say, "Get my swan costume ready", as she breathed her last. What a powerful statement and one which we should all be getting ready to say, as in the dispensation of the fullness of times, heaven and earth work together to bring all things together in Christ, as Ephesians 1 describes. I mention and speak more concerning this swansong in the following POST on my website.

So, Beloved of the Lord, dwelling at the altar of incense, are you ready for your swan costume? Can you hear the sound of the Bridegroom as He approaches, in this day that burns like an oven that is at the door? Are you saying with the Spirit, "Come, Lord, come". Are you ready to throw your whole strength and heart into taking the plunge and aligning perfectly with that which the Father purposed for you to do in the earth? To play your part in helping to bring all things to completion in Him. It's the final leg of the relay race for the cause of Christ. The final harvest will now be reaped amidst much shaking and dense darkness upon the peoples, but His light will arise upon you, and your swan song will draw those around you to Him, as you focus only on bringing delight to the heart of the Bridegroom. He is asking you to get ready for your swan song; the grand finale spurt that all your seasons of difficult preparation have shaped and readied you for - all those gruelling training sessions alone with the Spirit, wrestling as the refiner's fire burned every ounce of dross from your heart, will all prove worth it. Launch yourself forth in full trust and faith. Surrender fully, with the glory of God upon you.

It is not necessary for us to remain alive, it is necessary that our lives are hidden with Christ in God., because the Word of God says, we have already died as far as this world is concerned. Whether our lives in these mortal earthen vessels are brought to an end is not important. What is important is that we complete our section of the race for the glory of God.

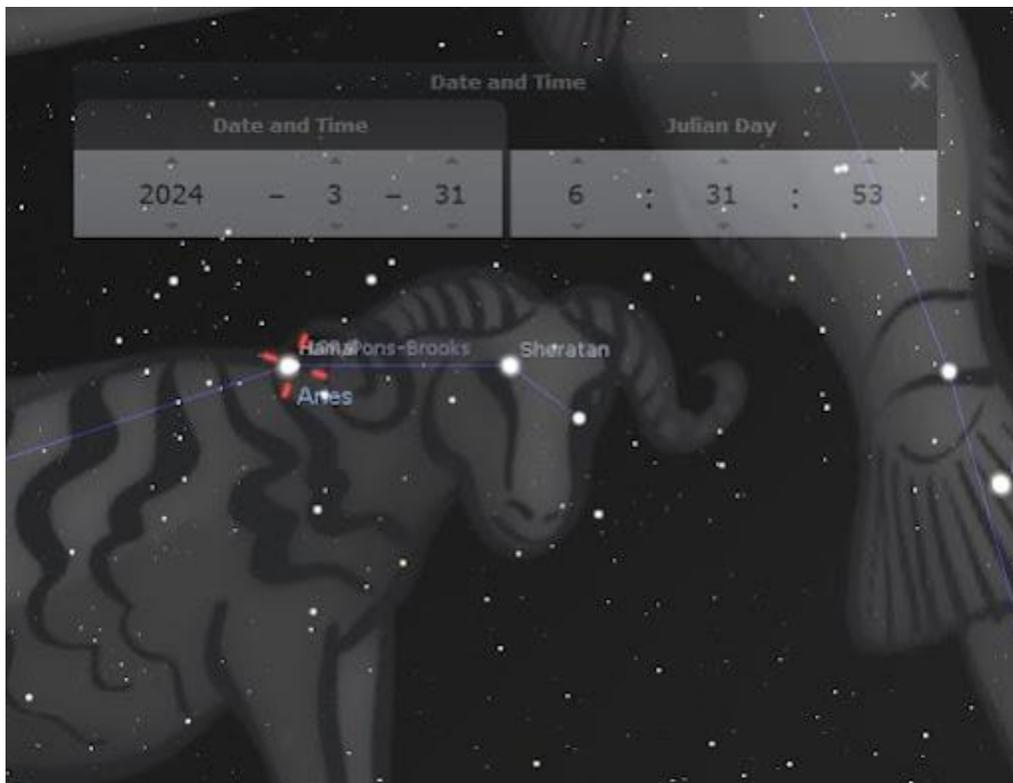

Nautical Twilight, with its potential for deception and infiltration, will stretch right until round about mid-April, when the month of Iyar ends for the Tip of the Spear. By then you should have received enough revelation, light and counsel from the Spirit of Truth to see what's going on around you. After that, it's time for the rising Morning Star to be seen in the last part of the Morning watch year 5784. As I said before, Hillel Passover is on the 22nd of April.

On 31st of March, which is Resurrection Sunday in the Orthodox Christian calendar, comet 12P has a conjunction with the alpha star (the brightest star) in the constellation Aries. Bullinger tells us that some mistakenly call that star 'Hamal', which is 'lamb' in Arabic, but the chief star of the constellation Aries (the Ram) is actually named El Nath - which means 'wounded and slain'. On the 14th of Nisan in the year of the crucifixion, the sun stood at the very spot marked by the star El Nath, the wounded and slain One. The planet, the sun that God gave for light in the heavens and for times and seasons, was positioned exactly where El Nath, the wounded and pierced slain One, is in the constellation Aries. Also extremely close was another star, Al Sheratan, meaning 'the bruised or wounded'. Don't you immediately think of Isaiah 53?

God has so ordained the times and the seasons that during the noonday darkness that struck, that eclipsed sun was seen on that 14th of Nisan in conjunction with those stars that had spoken from the heavens for so many centuries of this bruising of the woman's seed. They identified that the One on the cross was indeed the Lamb of God.

This year, God's highlighter comet is once again drawing out attention to this alpha star in Aries.

On Resurrection Sunday, 31st of March, 2024, comet 12P is reminding us of the star which is named 'wounded and slain'. This comet is God's highlighter in the heavens. Worthy is the Lamb that was slain! Revelation says 'Worthy is the Lamb that was slain to receive glory and honor, power and riches and majesty and blessing'. Revelation 4 tells us there was no one found worthy to open the scroll and break the seals. And then it was said that the Lamb was worthy to open the seals! So, the highlighter comet with Aleph Tav on its two horns, is highlighting the Lamb that was slain, Who is the Aleph and the Tav.

Psa 148:1 PRAISE THE Lord! Praise the Lord from the heavens, praise Him in the heights! Psa 148:2 Praise Him, all His angels, praise Him, all His hosts! Psa 148:3 Praise Him, sun and moon, praise Him, all you stars of light! Psa 148:4 Praise Him, you highest heavens and you waters above the heavens!

If you are someone who celebrates Easter and Resurrection Sunday, this is what's going on in the heavens on that day in 2024! The Lamb that was slain on the 14th of Nisan, (1st April AD 33), is again highlighted - not by an eclipse this time, because we now have modern technology and we can see which constellations comets are positioned in, even if we can't see them with the naked eye. God is again highlighting the power of the Lamb that was slain and His Blood shed to give salvation to mankind.

Now, in April 2024, there is a total solar eclipse (as I've said multiple times) on the 8th, and comet 12P is closest to the sun on April 21st. That is the evening, which is the beginning of the Hillel Passover. So April the 21st would be Aviv or Nisan 13th in the Hillel calendar - which is the time when Jesus was saying to His disciples in the upper room, "My body is true meat and My blood is true drink. Do this as often as you do it in remembrance of Me".

So, I do pray that what I shared has been a blessing to you. There are a couple of other things that are going on later in the year in the heavens, but I'll share them in another post because we haven't got to that time of year yet. I will share it in good time before I'm 'going dark'. Thank you Lord, for putting it all together!

The one last thing I want to share with you is yesterday, which was the 24th, I was prompted to by a bellows, which is a wooden instrument for fanning flames in a fire and getting the wood to really kindle. I found that very significant because when I looked up the price (R599) of those bellows, H599 means 'to breathe hard, or be enraged'. And the Greek word G599 means 'to be punished or to be slain'. The Lord is warning that the slain of the Lord will be many (Isaiah 66:15,16). Isaiah 26:20 and 21 says, He's coming out of his place to judge the peoples of the earth.

Isa 26:20 Come, my people, enter your chambers and shut your doors behind you; hide yourselves for a little while until the [Lord's] wrath is past. Isa 26:21 For behold, the Lord is coming out of His place [heaven] to punish the inhabitants of the earth for their iniquity; the earth also will disclose the blood shed upon her and will no longer cover her slain and conceal her guilt.

So, make sure you've got your swallow dive position right. Make sure you're in a place of complete surrender to run your leg of the relay race, which is the final leg. Remember that when a diver does a swallow dive, he doesn't face the waters far below him. He faces backwards. You are face to face with God. You are going to be launched in faith, and positioned and moved by the Spirit of the living God and empowered! Those who are led by the Spirit of God are the sons of God, and in the day that burns like an oven, it is the wicked who are left without root or branch, but those who fear His Name will gambol around like calves released from the stall (Malachi 4). Remember, that's a holding pattern, a stall, and you will skip about for joy, because the Sun of Righteousness is coming with healing in His wings for you.

Love you all! May the Holy Spirit, the One who leads us into all truth, take the bread of the Word and the other titbits I've shared with you, and break it further and release hidden nourishment for your particular situation. In Jesus name, Amen.
