

The War Chronicles (released May and June 2020)

The War Chronicles I ~ Audio Version

The Lord has instructed me to share some of the revelation, visions and dreams that He's given me concerning war. So, I'm going to share this in two parts. I had hesitated to share this topic in the past because it's not a pleasant thing to think about, but He has instructed me that now is the time. So, I received this word on the 2nd of June 2021, and it took the form of a conversation and a vision that unfolded.

The Lord said to me, "Come, I will show you what will be hereafter."

We went past the frankincense trees that I had seen in the past in another vision to the edge of a hill and looked down, and below I could see armies fighting. I saw that many were slain and there was smoke and blood and chaos.

"What is this, Lord?" I said.

"It is the valley of Jehoshaphat."

"Are these different nations?"

"Yes."

"And what are they warring about, Lord?"

"Territory, power, dominion - the things men always go to war over."

"That wasn't the way You made it in the beginning, Lord. Then Cain slew Abel..."

"Yes," said the Lord, "He took his inclination from the evil one and brother has been against brother ever since."

"Who will win this war, Lord?"

“The one who has least need to - the one with the most territory.”

And then I found myself looking at a map, an aerial view of the northern hemisphere with the borders of the countries delineated, and I could see all of Europe and the nations to the east of it. Then I saw a great bear rug tossed down over countries, from right to left, for a commander to walk on. And at the bottom edge of the rug, I saw a piece of land the shape of the edge of a boot sticking out.

“Is that Italy I see sticking out from under the rug, Lord?”

“Yes, Italy will come under Russia's command in the latter days. The whole Eastern European bloc shall become booty of the bear.

“What about Poland, Lord?”

“Not Poland. He has bowed his knee to Me and publicly declared My protection of their land, and I will not allow the bear to erode them. They have suffered once under tyranny, but not this time. Not on my watch.”

“Will You sent angels to defend them, Lord?”

“Yes, I have commanded My angelic guard to position themselves on their borders.”

“Lord, when will this be?”

“2025 will see the completion of the laying of the rug.”

“Will I be here to witness that, Lord?”

“No daughter. You will be with me, safe and hidden. Look up the valley of Jehoshephat, that is your homework.”

And that's where the conversation ended. So, the Valley of Jehoshephat is mentioned in Joel 3. This is what the Lord refers to as ‘the valley of decision’. Multitudes will be in the valley of decision. So, I did have a sense that when the Lord said there were fighting in the valley of Jehoshephat, I felt that He was referring to a period of time more than a specific geographical location. I had the sense that he was referring to a period of war in which many people would be in the valley of decision as to where they would be going if they should die - whether to choose the Lord or whether to align themselves with the evil one. Joel 3:2 says 'I will gather all the nations and will bring them down into the valley of Jehoshephat and will plead with them there for my people and my heritage, Israel, they have scattered among the nations... The word 'Jehoshephat' means 'Jehovah has judged'.

Joe 3:9 Proclaim this among the nations: Prepare war! Stir up the mighty men! Let all the men of war draw near, let them come up. Joe 3:10 Beat your plowshares into swords, and your pruning hooks into spears; let the weak say, I am strong [a warrior]! Joe 3:11 Hasten and come, all you nations round about, and assemble yourselves; there You, O Lord, will bring down Your mighty ones (Your warriors). Joe 3:12 Let the nations bestir themselves and come up to the Valley of Jehoshaphat, for there will I sit to judge all the nations round about. Joe 3:13 Put in the sickle, for the [vintage] harvest is ripe; come, get down and tread the grapes, for the winepress is full; the vats overflow, for the wickedness [of the peoples] is great. Joe 3:14 Multitudes, multitudes in the valley of decision! For the day of the Lord is near in the valley of decision.

The word 'nations' is translated 'heathen' in the KJV, but actually means 'a foreign nation, (In other words, not a Jewish nation) or a troupe of animals or a flight of locusts'. These verses are issuing a decree, calling for foreign nations to assemble their troops. The word 'decision' is 'charutz'. It means 'incised or gold that is mined, threshing sledge, having sharp teeth'. And we also do know that the word for 'threshing sledge' in Latin is 'Tribulum', from which we get the word 'tribulation'. The tribulum or threshing sledge separates the wheat from the chaff.

I do know there have been many words of Russia invading the United States of America. But in this vision, the Lord was showing me about the movement and the taking of territory and the exercising of Dominion across Eastern Europe. Let's pray Saints of God for the remnant and the saints in those lands, because it is common knowledge that invading troops are generally very barbaric with the population that live in the nations that they're taking over, and the saints of God need the protection and the shelter of the Blood of the lamb and the angelic host that are sent to minister to the heirs of salvation. There's a lot to pray for in these days, isn't there!

War Chronicles III

The War Chronicles III~ Audio

I've included this dream in the series, because it seems to depict the aftermath of war, and the effects on society. On the 20th of October 2021, I had a dream that I was in a huge vegetable garden, with raised vegetable beds and a new gardener that I did not know. I was instructing him to pull out the weeds, and showed him where to throw the weeds on the compost heap. And he asked if someone had been locked up in this wire cage. Now, I just want to interject here and say that my compost heap is fenced round with chicken wire because I allow my chickens to root around and turn the compost and generally contribute manure to the compost heap. But it seemed that this gardener was very familiar with the concept of people being locked up in cages. So I said to him, no, it's always just been a compost heap.

Then in the next scene, he and I was scratching around in some sort of refuse dump, along with many other people. They were mostly middle-class people who were wearing old clothes; worn-out clothes, which reminded me of the Great Depression-era fashion, and these people were all thin. While I was scratching, I saw a piece of metal sticking out, dug it out and found that it was a metal potbelly fireplace with two other parts for decoration on the top. I said to the gardener that I liked it and pulled it out and extracted it from the refuse heap. There were other people digging nearby.

Then the gardener said to me, "They are going to get rid of doctors," And he told me he had quite a stock of medicine in preparation for this time. And after he said this, we discovered that someone had pinched my little pot-bellied fireplace. I asked around and finally, someone indicated that it had been taken by someone in a certain direction. So, I ran in that direction, because that little fireplace was valuable to keep warm in winter, and one would also be able to put a pot on top and cook a bit of food. I found a woman with some kind of authority, who indicated to me that the metal fireplace had been put in a sack. And I said to her, "It is mine". And she said, "Take it," and she marked the fireplace with an 'x', meaning that it had been sold and paid for. So, this whole concept of digging on the refuse heap was that people were digging on the dump and then being made to pay for the stuff they found, in order to be able to take it away.

Just after this, I heard a woman talking to another woman and saying that those in authority were going to put five or six soldiers in each house. I went up to one of them and asked her to tell me about it, and she looked around in alarm and said, "Lower your voice or they will hear you," and then she told me that every home would be assigned five to six soldiers to house and feed. And I knew immediately in my heart that this would effectively destroy all the family's food stores and put them in danger from the soldiers, especially if they had daughters. And then my dream ended, and I woke at exactly 4h55 am.

So what the dream is depicting is basically that the middle class is in utter poverty, that it is not safe to speak out loud about events that are happening and things that are going to happen. There is a danger of being overheard and possibly reported and punished, and that there will be a foreign military presence in homes. Now, I do not know what nation I was in when I had that dream. I think the Lord was warning about a general state of affairs with ongoing rollout of war and nations being overtaken by the military presence of other nations. And it's a warning that the foreign military - very possibly military that do not speak the language that you speak in your homes, are appointed to be positioned in homes and be fed for a period of time.

Now, last week, I had picked up a a novel. It's called 'In the Shadow of the Sun King', and it is about the French Huguenots and the persecution by the Catholic Church in France, before they fled to other nations. And in that novel, (which is very historically accurate because the author always studies history and writes accurately in her novels about what occurred at that time) it describes what happened to this French Huguenot family who did not want to show allegiance to the Sun King, Louis, because he was Catholic and they were Protestant and knew of the idolatry in the Catholic Church. There was sent to them a group of dragoons (soldiers) to billet in their house. And the soldiers ransacked the house, molested the servants, slaughtered some of the cattle just for fun and generally acted like drunken louts in the house. When the family heard that the dragoons were coming, they already had a plan in place to send their two young sons into the forest with the brother in law, to hide in a cave where supplies had been placed and they were to stay there until someone came to fetch them, because what the Dragoons had been told to do was take the young boys away from the family and send them to a Catholic school for indoctrination and training for the army.

So this is what our forefathers in the faith who were under persecution had to endure, and this dream is bringing to light the fact that these things are going to be happening again. Therefore, it is wisdom to have a plan in place, in case one has to flee; to have hidden supplies in place in case one's home gets filled with soldiers. Supplies would have to be in a place where soldiers would not look, and you're going to have to ask the Lord for that revelation and wisdom on how to prepare for these things.

I don't want to scare you, but God never gives dreams like this just for the scare factor, but for the warning and the preparation factor. In that book that I was reading, the soldiers were called back to the palace and they took the husband with them, treated him very poorly and the wife got hold of her sons and they fled to Switzerland.

As I mentioned, I woke at 4h55 am. and the Holy Spirit prompted me to look up in the Strong's concordance what the word H455 is. And it is 'Eliachba'. This name means 'God will hide'. And I was so encouraged by this because the situation in the dream with the foreign soldiers and the time of trouble, scarcity of food, obviously no work, I am sure this dream was depicting those who have not taken the needle in the arm, because in the days ahead, only those who have their v.passports will be allowed to go into the shops. So, the living level and the functioning level of the middle class who have resisted the mandates being rolled out was severely reduced. So much so, that one is digging on rubbish heaps to maybe find something of value to use. That tells me that you have no access to the shops and also the fact that there was a huge vegetable garden in a place I didn't know is significant. Now, I've often mentioned my vegetable garden, but it's nowhere near the size it was in the dream - that vegetable garden was growing enough food for quite a large number of people.

So, I pondered whether I was depicting the Bridal Company who have been moved by God to new places where they've become self-sufficient, a growing their own food. It seems to me that that is a likely scenario, but God sent a word of comfort in it all. When He gave me that word, Eliachba – 'God will hide'. And Eliachba was one of David's 30 mighty men. The people who know their God shall be strong and do exploits. We may be going into an era of chaos, of war, of great military movement, of foreign troops and a great change in personal circumstances for those who are keeping their vessels holy to the Lord. But in the midst of it all, we will do exploits for the Lord, and He will hide us. Praise God.

And I also want to share that I had another dream a while back, it wasn't a war dream as such, but I was in a garden in the evening. It was dark ,but not so dark that you couldn't see a thing, And I saw a man being chased by another man with a gun, and he tried to hide himself, but he was shot in the head. While I watched him being pursued, I hid myself in the garden, because I was also vulnerable to being pursued and. Injured or killed by this person with the gun. I was hiding under a bush, not moving a muscle, just crouching and staring at the ground, and suddenly there was a pair of feet standing right in front of me, and I knew the man with the gun was standing looming over me. And I waited to be shot and just quietly said in my heart, "Lord, into Your hand, I commit my spirit," because there seemed to be no way out of that situation. And then the dream ended and I woke up. And that last little scene where he stood right in front of me and I waited, in this pregnant pause, it probably went on for at least a minute or minute and a half, which is quite a long time for one scene to freeze in a dream.

When I woke up, I asked the Lord, "Why did that man not immediately shoot me?" And the Lord said to me, "Because he could not see you. Because I was hiding you from him." So, I want to just encourage you that, although we're going into quite dangerous times ahead, that God will hide His faithful remnant - sometimes in plain sight, like happened in the last dream. And also, He will provide for us, because in the first dream, I related about digging on the rubbish dump. He allowed me to find that pot-bellied fireplace, which was a great find, and it was quite surprising that no one else had found it before me. And He also didn't allow it to be stolen from me. And when I told the woman it was mine, she just marked it as sold. There was no handover of any form of finance. So that dream also speaks of supernatural provision, when one is unable to function in the realm of hard cash. So, God is going to look after His faithful remnant, He's going to hide us – Eliachba - He's going to protect us.

Remember Rev. 12, where the woman fled to the wilderness to a place prepared where she was kept SAFE and PROVIDED FOR? So there's safety and there's provision for three and a half years. So, although the dream does paint a rather dark scenario as far as foreign soldiers being billeted to the house, remember also that God may be placing them under one's roof in order for one to lead them to the Lord.

So, it's obviously going to be a dangerous time for Christians, but by the Spirit of the living God, we will do exploits. Our lives are hidden with Christ in God! These days, every time I take communion. I thank God for this meal, the bread and the wine, which is the covenant meal. I thank Him for this covenant of protection and provision paid for by the Bridegroom, the Lamb that was slain. May the Lord bless you and guide you. May he give you great wisdom and strategic thinking and planning ahead, so that by the time one is faced with the situation, like the Huguenot family in that book I was reading, one is already well prepared and everything is in place. Everybody knows the plan. Everybody knows exactly what needs to be done and the Spirit of the living God guides and leads us every step of the way.

By the way, for those who'd like to know how that story ended, the husband was assigned by the king to be put in the Bastille for some time. He made friends with the man next door, who was a very influential businessman who had dared to disagree with one of the king's opinions. And then the husband was sent off as a slave on the galley ships. And it turned out that the man he had made friends with happened to be the owner of those ships, and he was released from prison after some time. One day, he was reading the lists of slaves in the ships, and he came across the name of the man he had met in the Bastille, and he released him from the galley. And God reunited the family. So, I want you to know that we serve the God of the impossible! Do not fling away your fearless confidence. You have need of steadfast patience and endurance that after you have fully completed the will of God, you may carry away and enjoy to the full what is promised (Hebrews 10 from verse 35) For still a very little while and the coming One will come, and He will not delay. But the just shall live by faith, and if he draws back or shrinks in fear, My soul has no delight in him. But our way is not of those who draw back to eternal misery and are utterly destroyed. But we are of those who believe and by faith preserve the soul!

I want to just highlight two things in that passage for you. It says you have need of steadfast patience and endurance. Steadfastness speaks of not wavering. And endurance speaks of holding out to the end. So, there's patience, endurance and faith. And then I want to show you something in Revelation 13, this is the chapter which speaks about the mark of the Beast being rolled out. It speaks about him being permitted to wage war on God's holy people and to overcome them. Then Revelation 13:9 says

'If anyone is able to hear, let him listen. Whoever leads into captivity will himself go into captivity. If anyone slays with the sword, with the sword must be slain. Herein is the call for the patience and faith and fidelity of the Saints.'

So, there again, we see the words 'patience', 'faith' and 'faithfulness of the Saints'. In other words, patient endurance, holding on to your faith, enduring through whatever is coming and staying true and faithful as a bondsman to the Master. So, I believe in the days in which we live, Hebrews 10:35 to the end and Revelation 13:9,10 are connected together. So, let us endure, have steadfast patience and fully complete the will of God because the coming One is soon coming. And He will not delay and the just shall live by faith - not by sight, but by faith, in the days ahead.

I want to just also say, DO NOT LAPSE INTO FEAR. AND UNBELIEF concerning God's ability to supply for us in the days ahead. He is El Shaddai - the many breasted One, and the word of God says that young lions may suffer hunger, but in the days of famine, the righteous will be satisfied. God is well able to provide and protect in these days, and I want you to prepare your heart for the days of miraculous provision and miraculous protection. They're going to be times where you open your front door in the morning thinking, "What am I going to feed my children today?" and there is a bag of food already sitting on your front doorstep. They are going to be times where you have 10 people sitting at your table and you have cooked one cup of rice, which normally feeds about four people, and you are going to be dishing out bowls of food. When all 10 have got a bowl of rice in front of them, there is still going to be rice in the pot. These are the days when our God is going to prove Himself faithful to His remnant. We are going to have so many testimonies of miraculous provision and protection. So, praise God that we are His, and not part of the enemies horde in these days. Shalom. May the Lord bless you and keep you!

Today, I am deviating from sharing words I have received myself from the Lord and instead want to first make you aware of a man of God who lived a century ago in South Africa. The things he was shown are unfolding in our day!

Nikolaas Van Rensburg (Siener - or Seer Van Rensburg, as he was known) was a prophet to the Afrikaaner people during the Boer war in South Africa (a war between the British and the local Afrikaans people). He had many visions of the endtimes, some which have already been fulfilled - like the fall of the world trade center, but others are only making sense now as they unfold. It is a time of saying, "This is that which was spoken of..."

Mr. Mussmann, a friend of his, recalls how he often sat on the little field-stool in front of Van Rensburg' home at Rietkuil, listening to the Seer describing the fate of nations. "And to think he was a man who never read a magazine or newspaper only the Bible; he also knew nothing of the histories of nations, but he knew everything about them."

One evening, when the Seer grew quiet during the meal, his eyes narrowing and his beard began trembling, the family knew he was having a vision: "Please fetch the writing materials," he said to Kallie: "Write there: 'I see a black cloud creeping over Europe from the east and covering it in darkness like night. A Russian emerges from the north. He is looking straight at us. The earth here (in South Africa) becomes like fallow land. But it is pitch black in Europe...'" Many have thought this spoke about the second world war, but perhaps the Lord was showing him WWIII.

Vision: 13th May 1917: "I see fire and smoke over Europe, this indicates confusion and revolution. The fire is moving southwest, meaning that the unrest will spread in that direction. In that sector of Europe, we find Hungary, Rumania, Yugoslavia and Bulgaria. Greece lies further south, so it may even spread to that area.

The prosperous nations such as Norway, Finland, Sweden and Denmark lie to the north. Their financial prosperity or financial aid dries up and they will no longer be in a position to render assistance to the poorer countries. Drought will also be possible causes of the riots that will lead to the critical economic conditions and famine."

He had a vision on 22nd February 1922 and warned his people to live chaste lives: "The world is clean, but it gives a turn and is then filled with sheep droppings. I then clearly heard someone saying to me: 'Gird your loins and let your light shine'."

After that, the old prophet saw a Great Broom (11th March 1922) sweeping all the filth of moral decay from the earth. Van Rensburg referred to Isaiah 14:5-23:

"The Lord hath broken the staff of the wicked and the sceptre of the rulers. He who smote the people in wrath with a continual stroke, he that ruled the nations in anger, is persecuted and none hindereth... Yet thou shalt be brought down to hell, to the sides of the pit. They that see thee... saying, Is this the man that made the earth to tremble... that made the world as a wilderness, that destroyed the cities... thou hast destroyed thy land and slain thy people; the seed of evildoers shall never be renowned... For I will rise up against them, saith the Lord of hosts, and cut off from Babylon the name, and remnant, and son, and nephew, saith the Lord...I will sweep it with the broom of destruction..."

Vision: 29th September 1919: "A depression that will make all other disasters look like child's play is facing the world. Nothing will have value any longer and there will be no money. It will hit Europe so hard that England will financially go under in the process. America will intervene and try to help, and a starving people from Africa, will swarm to Europe. "

Vision: 3rd October 1918: He saw “waning prosperity, eventually ending in famine and want in Europe, with Germany initially being worst hit. This is followed by total collapse of the gigantic money powers, which will begin shortly after financial institutions in Europe suffer setbacks that cannot be stopped.”

During the Anglo-Boer War, the Seer had a very interesting vision of a gigantic comet that would appear in the heavens at the beginning of a future world war (WW 3). According to Mr. J. F. Naudé, he saw the Seer in April 1901, near Tafelkop, and the Seer told him about the strange comet that he had seen in a vision. Seer said that the comet had two tails in the shape of an inverted V. On the one tail, he saw the letter E and on the other, the letter T . (ET is Aleph – or eleph - Tav. Jesus is the Aleph and the Tav and this comet is a sign of His coming).

The Seer also referred to a vision he had about the start and progress of the third (and last) war — WW III. Seer said this war would start in Eastern Europe and then spread world-wide.

A German prophet, whose visions were published in 1994, as “Vision 2004,” show a remarkable resemblance with that of Seer van Rensburg’s and also describes the coming of a Third World War.

In one vision Gottfried von Werdenberg saw how bombs, launched from a submarine, would strike New York. The terrific air pressure force would be so severe that the skyscrapers will lift up before they “sink into the ground.” Seer Van Rensburg said, “Because England fears a Russian bomb attack, they connive in secret with the Russians. They betray Western military secrets to Russia and sign treaties with Russia against the USA. Russia mistrusts the English; the USA learns of this treachery and realises the danger of English betrayal against it.”

“The worst will be electric (laser or nuclear?) beams sowing death and destruction above and below; even the soil will be destroyed and few people will remain alive. The Russians storm through Hungary, Yugoslavia, through Austria to Italy to occupy these countries.

“Many secret weapons and gas are used everywhere. Horror (atomic?) bombs kill millions, and whole nations will be annihilated. While some nations cease to exist, others will still survive, but will be worthless. It will be a devastating war and everyone will be expected to go and fight.”

The future war will be mainly between the USA and Russia. It breaks out in Europe as the ice begins to melt (around April-May). But when the ice has already melted, then the war, started by Russia, will already have progressed considerably, so much so that it seems as if the Russians have already been victorious. It will be a very oppressive period, even for us here in South Africa.

The war will be extremely quick, destructive and terrible. Nations will be totally annihilated in a very short time. Most of the war will be waged in and from the skies with bombs (conventional and nuclear?) and other weapons, germ warfare and with secret weapons.

1 Aug. 1914 — “There is great fleeing out of Europe. There is a ditch containing red (radioactive?) water, in the north. The world becomes brightly light (nuclear explosions?) in the north. The Union of Europe turns an ashen colour (is burnt to death). A black cloud (death) hangs there.” (In the Seer’s day, there was no such term as the European Union!)

After all these events have been fulfilled, thousands of Christians will leave Europe to settle in South Africa. Seer said he saw their tents stretching from the Cape to the Kalahari and South West Africa (Namibia). Tents will also be standing from Durban to Mozambique (Maputo). These will serve as temporary shelter for all the Christians from over the world. Every tent dweller will be under the protection of God’s Hand, as was Israel in the Sinai desert in the time of Moses.

Vision of the Yellow Peaches Rain:

He saw a dam very full of water and yellow peaches lying on the ground under the trees and then the dam ran dry. In Siener's times, the late summer rains were referred to as the 'yellow peaches rain' and they usually began in mid-February and lasted for 2 weeks. Siener said terrible trouble would break out when the yellow peaches rain had already begun. The dam running dry signified terrible financial trouble.

On Feb 28 2022, a friend of mine was driving near towards Clarens and on the side of the road are masses of wild peach trees and she said the branches were bending from the weight of the ripe peaches, and she was reminded of this prophecy by Seer Van Rensburg. God showed this old man that he would again become known worldwide in the endtimes, and we can understand why. Only the Spirit of God could have revealed such details to him, 100 years before they occur. Friends, we have entered the time of terrible trouble, which will precipitate the dam running dry; terrible financial trouble.

So, what do we do now that we have read these prophecies? We press even more determinedly into God's presence, seeking His counsel, His wisdom, His guidance for each of us personally. The same Spirit of Truth who revealed world events to Seer Van Rensburg all those years ago is more than ready to share truth with those who seek Him. Remember, the time of your greatest usefulness to the kingdom is ahead. Do not waste time entertaining fear. Our God is an everlasting Rock, our Strong Tower and Hiding Place. Our names are written in the Lamb's Book of Life and we passed over from death to life the day we got baptised in water. Our lives are hidden with Christ in God. Do not worry about what you are going to eat, drink or wear. God knows you have need of all these things. Seek His Kingdom and righteousness and everything you need will be supplied you. Above all things, seek to keep in step with the Spirit. Focus, get rid of all distractions in your life – you all know your own particular weak areas. And worship much because the joy of the Lord is your strength. Remember, when we see all these things unfold, we can look up because our Bridegroom is on His way.
